From the Pastor's desk

In reflecting on the First Reading and the Gospel for the 21st Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year B), let's not imitate the 'many' who walk away from the 'hard sayings' of the Lord, muttering under their breath. "this is intolerable language. How can anyone accept it?" Rather, let's imitate the Disciples and say: "Lord, to whom can we go? You have the words of everlasting life"; and let's also imitate the People of Israel in their words: "we too will serve the Lord, for He is our God"! Only when we embrace the Truth will we truly be free!

This weekend we have our annual Collection for Catholic Mission. Despite all the demands on us, let's be generous - so that the Gospel may be proclaimed through word and deed throughout the world.

This week we have the monthly Baptism Preparation Evening in the Church at 7:30pm.

Our second Enquiry Night for RCIA is on Wednesday evening in the Church Kitchen at 7:30pm. All welcome.

And we continue to pray for those being confirmed this week on Friday night at 7:30 and on Saturday afternoon at 2:00pm.

We also welcome Fr. Robert back to the Parish on Friday 28th after celebrating his niece's wedding in India.

Have a blessed week, everyone. Let's continue to pray for one another.

Fr. John

Some sayings of the saints for our reflection...

“From silly devotions and sour-faced saints, good Lord, deliver us!”

St. Teresa of Avila

“As patience leads to peace, and study to science, so are humiliations the path that leads us to humility”.

St. Bernard of Clairvaux

“Pray as though everything depended on God. Work as though everything depended on you”.

St. Augustine

“The world would have peace if only men of politics would follow the Gospels”.

St. Bridget of Sweden

“It is not enough just to wish well; we must also do well”.

St. Ambrose

“The world is a book, and those who do not travel read only a page”.

St. Augustine

(Should this be the theme for those who go on Pilgrimages??!)

“You can win more converts with a spoonful of honey than with a barrelful of vinegar”.

St. Francis de Sales

“No one is to be called an enemy; all are your benefactors, and no one does you harm. You have no enemy except yourselves”.

St. Francis of Assisi

First Reading

Joshua 24:1-2, 15-18

We will serve the Lord God, because he is our God.

Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel together at Shechem; then he called the elders, leaders, judges and scribes of Israel, and they presented themselves before God. Then Joshua said to all the people: 'If you will not serve the Lord, choose today whom you wish to serve, whether the gods that your ancestors served beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are now living. As for me and my House, we will serve the Lord.'

The people answered, 'We have no intention of deserting the Lord our God who brought us and our ancestors out of the land of Egypt, the house of slavery, who worked those great wonders before our eyes and preserved us all along the way we travelled and among all the peoples through whom we journeyed. We too will serve the Lord, for he is our God.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 33:2-3, 16-23

R. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

I will bless the Lord at all times, his praise always on my lips; in the Lord my soul shall make its boast. The humble shall hear and be glad. R.

The Lord turns his face against the wicked to destroy their remembrance from the earth. The Lord turns his eyes to the just and his ears to their appeal. R.

They call and the Lord hears and rescues them in all their distress. The Lord is close to the broken-hearted; those whose spirit is crushed he will save. R.

Many are the trials of the just man but from them all the Lord will rescue him. He will keep guard over all his bones, not one of his bones shall be broken. R.

Evil brings death to the wicked; those who hate the good are doomed. The Lord ransoms the souls of his servants. Those who hide in him shall not be condemned. R.

Gospel Acclamation

cf John 6:63,68

Alleluia, alleluia!

Your words, Lord, are spirit and life: you have the words of everlasting life. Alleluia!

Second Reading

Ephesians 5:21-32

This is the great mystery, it applies to Christ and the Church.

Give way to one another in obedience to Christ. Wives should regard their husbands as they regard the Lord, since as Christ is head of the Church and saves the whole body, so is a husband the head of his wife; and as the Church submits to Christ, so should wives submit to their husbands, in everything. Husbands should love their wives just as Christ loved the Church and sacrificed himself for her to make her holy. He made her clean by washing her in water with a form of words, so that when he took her to himself she would be glorious, with no speck or wrinkle or anything like that, but holy and faultless. In the same way, husbands must love their wives as they love their own bodies; for a man to love his wife is for him to love himself. A man never hates his own body, but he feeds it and looks after it; and that is the way Christ treats the Church, because it is his body - and we are its living parts. For this reason, a man must leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two will become one body. This mystery has many implications; but I am saying it applies to Christ and the Church.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

John 6:60-69

Lord, whom shall we go to? You have the words of everlasting life.

After hearing his doctrine many of the followers of Jesus said, 'This is intolerable language. How could anyone accept it?' Jesus was aware that his followers were complaining about it and said, 'Does this upset you? What if you should see the Son of Man ascend to where he was before?'

'It is the spirit that gives life, the flesh has nothing to offer. The words I have spoken to you are spirit and they are life.'

'But there are some of you who do not believe.' For Jesus knew from the outset those who did not believe, and who it was that would betray him. He went on, 'This is why I told you that no one could come to me unless the Father allows him.' After this, many of his disciples left him and stopped going with him.

Then Jesus said to the Twelve, 'What about you, do you want to go away too?' Simon Peter answered, 'Lord, who shall we go to? You have the message of eternal life, and we believe; we know that you are the Holy One of God.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father
almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true

God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

*At the words that follow, up to and including
'and became man', all bow.*

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Gospel Reflection

The First Reading from the Book of Joshua and the final part of John Chapter 6 (the Gospel for this 21st Sunday in Ordinary time (Year B)) have similar themes.

In the Book of Joshua we have the story of the renewal of the Sinai Covenant in the Land of Israel. The People must now choose the one and only God or imitation gods (the gods beyond the River Euphrates and the gods of the Amorites). The People choose the Lord God of Israel: “we will serve the Lord”.

And there is a choice placed before Jesus’ followers: they had been party to the Sign of the Multiplication of the Loaves and Fish and Jesus’ explanation of the Sign, which included the concepts of the Word as nourishment and the Eucharist as the life-giving gift of Salvation – and now they must choose to accept or reject the teaching of Christ. Some walked away, while the 12 remain. Those who accept must now accept the Message of the Lord in its entirety, accepting Jesus as Messiah and accepting the challenge of loving like Jesus (unconditionally).

So... what will we do?

Do we accept the Teaching of Christ in its entirety?

Do we believe that Jesus is God, the Second Person of the Trinity?

Do we embrace the challenge of unconditional love of neighbour?

In reflecting on the Scriptures let’s reflect on our answers to the above questions. Let’s not imitate the ‘many’ who walk away from the ‘hard saying’ of the Lord, muttering under their breath. “this is intolerable language. How can anyone accept it?” Rather, let’s imitate the Disciples and say: “Lord, to whom can we go? You have the words of everlasting life”; and let’s also imitate the People of Israel in their words: “we too will serve the Lord, for He is our God”!

Parish Pastoral Council Corner

Each one of you ought to be able to say: I have not ploughed furrows of division and distrust, nor have I saddened immortal souls through my suspicions and fears. I have been open, trustworthy and trusting. Even those who do not share my ideals have received my sympathy as a brother or sister, so that I might not impede the great plan of Providence when, in its time, it comes to fulfillment. –

St. John XXIII, 22 November 1963

Next Sunday, 30 August, we will be celebrating the 101st World Day of Migrants and Refugees. The Holy Father, Pope Francis, has chosen the theme “Church without frontiers, Mother to all” for this day, identifying migrants and refugees to be in need of our special attention and care, as they are our brothers and sisters “who are trying to escape difficult living conditions and dangers of every kind.” (Message, 2015)

- The Social Justice team under Qwayne Guevara has invited speakers from the House of Welcome who will share their insights on the current issues affecting refugees and migrants. They will set up a stall with resources to broaden our understanding of these issues so that we all can move forward towards a more just world.
- To add color to our liturgical celebration of Migrant Sunday, we encourage parishioners to come in the national costume of their birth country during the weekend masses. We are also organizing a multicultural food fiesta for the morning masses and the youth groups might put up a sausage sizzle for the evening masses. Please contact Techie Sarlabus of the Community Building team if you wish to donate a dish for the fiesta or to assist in the day’s activities.

We still need host families for the Rosary statue from Sept. 15 onwards and for the month of October, so please contact me if you are interested to host our Mother in your home.

Our young parishioners have shown great interest in participating in the 2016 World Youth Day in Poland. To help finance their trip, our youths are selling $2 tickets to the Diocesan WYD fundraising raffle to be drawn next year. Please support them generously and buy tickets! *Have a blessed week! Why we do what we do.....

Continuing on from last week's item about the Mass

The Parts of the Mass

In talking or thinking about the Mass, first attention should be given to the Eucharistic Prayer. This, the center of the Mass, is that part when the Church recalls Jesus Christ, does again what the Lord did at the Last Supper, and Prays with Him to the Heavenly Father. The Eucharistic Prayer is the heart of the Mass and deserves our close attention, our "Amen."

The Eucharistic Prayer is followed by the Communion Rite. Starting with the Our Father, we prepare for Holy Communion with our Lord.

Immediately before the Eucharistic Prayer is the short Offertory. Now the bread and wine, usually brought to the priest in a procession, are offered to God.

And before the Offertory there is a "Liturgy of the Word," when we listen to selected readings from the Bible and have them explained in the homily. At this time in the Mass, we review our sacred writings, our written heritage.

And before the Liturgy of the Word, there is a short Introductory Rite. In this we express our sinfulness and say together prayers to our God.

Every Mass we join in, ideally, means going through a familiar beloved journey which, though familiar, is different and novel every time.

The Preparatory Rites

After processing to the sanctuary and reverencing the Blessed Sacrament, the priest kisses the altar because the altar represents the Body of Christ and is the sacred place of sacrifice.

During the procession you may join in a hymn. Then you receive an opening greeting from the priest. There follows a short penitential rite. At this time you should recall your own failures, sins, selfishness and pride and should ask God's pardon and mercy with the help of the subsequent prayers.

If the "Gloria" is said, make this an expression of your praise of God. Then listen to the Opening Prayer of the Mass and make its sentiments your own. This you do by saying "Amen" at its end.
