Numbers 11:25-29

Are you jealous on my account? Who decrees that all people may prophesy?

The Lord came down in the Cloud. He spoke with Moses, but took some of the spirit that was on him and put it on the seventy elders. When the spirit came on them they prophesied, but not again.

Two men had stayed back in the camp; one was called Eldad and the other Medad. The spirit came down on them; though they had not gone to the Tent, their names were enrolled among the rest. These began to prophesy in the camp. The young man ran to tell this to Moses, 'Look,' he said 'Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.' Then said Joshua the son of Nun, who had served Moses from his youth, 'My Lord Moses, stop them!' Moses answered him, 'Are you jealous on my account? If only the whole people of the Lord were prophets, and the Lord gave his Spirit to them all!'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 18:8,10,12-14

R. The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

The law of the Lord is perfect, it revives the soul. The rule of the Lord is to be trusted, it gives wisdom to the simple. R.

The fear of the Lord is holy, abiding for ever. The decrees of the Lord are truth and all of them just. R.

So in them your servant finds instruction; great reward is in their keeping. But who can detect all his errors? From hidden faults acquit me. R.

From presumption restrain your servant and let it not rule me. Then shall I be blameless, clean from grave sin. R.

Second Reading

James 5:1-6

Your wealth is rotting.

An answer for the rich. Start crying, weep for the miseries that are coming to you. Your wealth is all rotting, your clothes are all eaten up by moths. All your gold and your silver are corroding away, and the same corrosion will be your own sentence, and eat into your body. It was a burning fire that you stored up as your treasure for the last days. Labourers mowed your fields, and you cheated them - listen to the wages that you kept back, calling out; realise that the cries of the reapers have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts. On earth you have had a life of comfort and luxury; in the time of slaughter you went on eating to your heart's content. It was you who condemned the innocent and killed them; they offered you no resistance.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Cf John 17:17

Alleluia, alleluia!

Your word, O Lord, is truth: make us holy in the truth.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 9:38-43,45,47-48

Anyone who is not against us is for us. If your hand should cause you to sin, cut it off.

John said to Jesus, 'Master, we saw a man who is not one of us casting out devils in your name; and because he was not one of us we tried to stop him.' But Jesus said, 'You must not stop him: no one who works a miracle in my name is likely to speak evil of me. Anyone who is not against us is for us.'

'If anyone gives you a cup of water to drink just because you belong to Christ, then I tell you solemnly, he will most certainly not lose his reward.'

'But anyone who is an obstacle to bring down one of these little ones who have faith, would be better thrown into the sea with a great millstone round his neck. And if your hand should cause you to sin, cut it off; it is better for you to enter into life crippled, than to have two hands and go to hell, into the fire that cannot be put out. And if your foot should cause you to sin, cut it off; it is better for you to enter into life lame, than to have two feet and be thrown into hell. And if your eye should cause you to sin, tear it out; it is better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell where their worm does not die nor their fire go out.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
At the words that follow, up to and including 'and became man', all bow.

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Gospel Reflection

In the Gospel we hear the disciples complaining to Jesus because someone is casting out devils in your name. The reason they are upset is because He is not one of us. So they try to stop him.

Jesus' response is:

You must not stop him: no one who works a miracle in my name is likely to speak evil of me. Anyone who is not against us is for us.

Jesus' response is a challenge: it was a challenge to his disciples to move beyond old notions of power, where they as his associates should be the only ones performing miracles - and getting the credit. They are in a way, defending what they think is their territory. The healing actions of others are also showing up their inadequacies as disciples of Jesus.

In our own time, there has been much talk in the public arena about who is in and who is out and challenges made to individuals and organisations to declare whose side are you on? There are instances of those in power discrediting those who are doing good, because their words and actions show them up as inadequate, bigoted and cruel. This creates a climate of narrow minded rhetoric that plays to people's fears and prejudices.

Jesus reminds his disciples, and us that his ministry is not about power, or territory or glory but about bring healing and life and bring it to all people. The disciples were concerned with exclusivity, Jesus was preaching and practising inclusivity.

*Let us be an active presence, intelligent and wide awake when faced with the innumerable problems posed by life today – able to interpret these problems in terms of the eternal truth as reflected in time. –
St. John XXIII, 18 Oct 1959*

Congratulations to those who celebrated Marriage Week by joining the seven-day “virtual retreat with Pope Francis” and then sharing their journey with others at the concluding session last Sunday, Sept. 20. We hope that your relationship was enhanced spiritually and formatively, and thank the Faith Formation team, especially Vitt Lim and Rose Franco, for enabling this spiritual experience.

We now observe Social Justice Sunday on 27 September. This year’s Social Justice Statement is titled: ‘For Those Who’ve Come Across the Seas: Justice for refugees and asylum seekers’. The Statement addresses the divisive national debate over asylum seekers, especially those who arrive by boat. It reminds all Australians of the need to welcome and comfort those who have fled here from terror and danger, and to live out the example of Jesus, who never turned his back on those who were lost or suffering. For further details about the Social Justice Statement, visit the Australian Catholic Social Justice Council website at www.socialjustice.catholic.org.au.

Please continue to support our young parishioners joining the 2016 World Youth Day in Poland by buying $2 tickets to the Diocesan WYD fundraising raffle to be drawn next year!

On Sunday, October 11, we will be celebrating the Feast day of our patron, St. John XXIII while also jointly commemorating our 13th Parish Formation anniversary. Join us for solemn mass celebrations at the 10:30 am Mass, followed by a food fiesta and the traditional birthday cake cutting (and eating). Donations of food will be most welcome: sign up with Techie or any Parish Council member.

Lastly, 24 October (Saturday) is our Parish Zumba Night fundraiser hosted by our own Rudi Yap and Fr. Robert! Tickets are available after the weekend Masses at $15 each for a fun night of sweat and dancing for a very good cause!

We still need host families for the Rosary statue from Oct. 20 onwards and the month of November, so please contact me if you are interested to host our Mother in your home.

Have a blessed week! Bart

Church Funnies

Why we do what we do.....

WHY ARE THE SACRAMENTS OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH SO IMPORTANT?

Sacraments are signs established by Christ that cause what they signify. They heal us from sin and plant, nourish or restore the life of grace in us.

The Sacraments are so important because they make the power of the Paschal mystery of Jesus present to us for the sake of salvation. By these seven channels of grace, God makes us his adopted children and increases his life of grace within us.

The Seven Sacraments touch all the stages and all the important moments of Christian life: they give birth and increase, healing and mission to the Christian's life of Faith. There is thus a certain resemblance between the stages of natural life and the stages of the spiritual life.

THE SEVEN SACRAMENTS AND THEIR EFFECTS

1. BAPTISM

Baptism is the Sacrament by which we become Christians. It frees us from Original Sin, makes us children of God, temples of the Holy Spirit and members of the Church.

The liturgical celebration: The minister pours water over the head of the candidate saying, "I baptise you (name) in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."

The effects: The forgiveness of sins, the new life of grace and membership in the Church.

2. CONFIRMATION

Confirmation completes the Christian initiation begun in Baptism, making us spiritually adult by means of a permanent 'seal' upon our souls. In this Sacrament the Holy Spirit also gives us seven gifts that enable us to see and act well spiritually. These gifts empower us to publicly proclaim the Gospel and to defend the Faith against opposition.

The liturgical celebration: The minister anoints a person's forehead with chrism saying, "Be sealed with the gift of the Holy Spirit."

The effects: The sealing with the Holy Spirit for the mature Christian life.

3. EUCHARIST

The Eucharist is a sacrifice, a presence and a food. As a SACRIFICE it makes present Jesus Christ's sacrifice on Calvary for our salvation. As a PRESENCE, it is Jesus Christ himself under the appearances of bread and wine. As a FOOD, it is the nourishment of our souls by which we share in God's own life.

The liturgical celebration: The priest consecrates bread and wine saying, "This is my body which will be given up for you...; this is the cup of my blood..."

The effects: The Real Presence; Sacrifice of Calvary re-presented; spiritual food.

Why we do ... (cont'd)

4. CONFESsION

Confession (or PENANCE or RECONCILIATION) is the Sacrament by which we, repenting and confessing our sins, are absolved of sin through the ministry of a priest.

The liturgical celebration: The penitent confesses sins with sorrow and repentance. The priest gives absolution, "I absolve you from your sins..."

The effects: The forgiveness of sins and restoration of grace.

5. ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Anointing of the Sick is that Sacrament by which sick persons, through anointing with oil and the prayer of the priest, receive grace for the salvation of their souls and possible bodily healing.

The liturgical celebration: The priest anoints the sick person's forehead and hands with oil, praying the prescribed words.

The effects: The forgiveness of sins, spiritual strength and healing.

6. HOLY ORDERS

Holy Orders is the Sacrament in which a baptised man receives the authority and ability to share in the particular mission that Christ entrusted to his apostles. There are three orders of this Sacrament: episcopate, presbyterate and diaconate.

The liturgical celebration: The bishop lays hands on the candidate's head and prays the prayer of consecration.

The effects: The ordination of a minister to act in the person of Christ.

7. MARRIAGE

Marriage is that Sacrament by which a baptised man and woman are bound together by vows to an exclusive lifelong commitment to one another and to accepting and raising children. In this Sacrament God gives grace for the fulfilment of these duties.

The liturgical celebration: The spouses express their consent to one another following the prescribed canonical form, usually before a priest.

The effects: The union of the spouses as Christ is united to the Church.
