Our Parish Mission

The parish of St John XXIII is a faith community with the Eucharist as its heart. Inspired by John XXIII's prophetic opening of the windows of the Church, we welcome the fresh air of the Holy Spirit, inviting every person to share in the responsibility of enriching the life and faith of our community by sharing their gifts and talents."

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ

As we are celebrating the Family Sunday today, let the servant leadership of Jesus inspire us. Jesus' Kingdom is not about who wears the crown, but who bares the cross.

- Let us continue to pray for our HSC students, may the Holy Spirit assist them in their exams.
- As we celebrate Family Sunday we pray that they may be inspired to deepen their love for each other. Kindly take a prayer card at the entrance of the Church.
- We wish Father John a safe return from his holidays, Father John will be arriving on the 25th October for the 6pm Mass.
- Don't forget that 24 October (Saturday) is our Parish Zumba Night fundraiser hosted by our own Rudi Yap and Fr. Robert! Tickets are available after the weekend Masses at $15 each for a fun night of sweat and dancing for a very good cause!

RECONCILIATION FACILITATORS NEEDED

We are in urgent need of facilitators. We are looking for parishioners who would like to assist in this year's Reconciliation sacramental programme. Facilitators will be given training before the programme commences.

If you think you can help, please contact Jill on 9852-0583 or at admin@john23rd.org.au.

There will also be a special facilitator's training session by Sr. Mary-Louise from the Office for Worship (OFW) for this programme.

Details are as follows:

Reconciliation facilitator training session

Date: Sat 24 October

Place: Institute for Mission
1-5 Marion St, Blacktown 2148

Time: 2.30-4.30pm

DIVORCED/SEPARATED SOCIAL SUPPORT GROUP

The Pastoral Care team is starting a social support group for those who have been through the pain of separation and divorce with friendly get togethers for coffee or meals.

If you are interested, please contact Jill on 98520583 or admin@john23rd.org.au

STEWARDSHIP PROGRAM

The parish is about to embark on a Stewardship Program. The focus of this program, previously known as Planned Giving, will be to renew our appreciation of all that God has given us in our personal lives and in our parish.

During this program people will be invited to consider contributing more of their time and service to the parish and also their money. As Bart notes in his column, we are looking for people to assist on the Stewardship Steering Committee. If you are able to assist for a few hours across the following two months please contact John McCartney (9899 2473).

Sacrament of Reconciliation Parent's Meeting

First Reading

Isaiah 53:10-11

If he offers his life in atonement, he shall see his heirs and have long life.

The Lord has been pleased to crush his servant with suffering.

If he offers his life in atonement, he shall see his heirs, he shall have a long life and through him what the Lord wishes will be done.

His soul's anguish over he shall see the light and be content. By his sufferings shall my servant justify many, taking their faults on himself.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 32:4-5, 18-20,22

R. Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

The word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted.

The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love. R.

The Lord looks on those who revere him, on those who hope in his love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine. R.

Our soul is waiting for the Lord. The Lord is our help and our shield. May your love be upon us, O Lord, as we place all our hope in you. R.

Second Reading

Hebrews 4:14-16

Let us be confident in approaching the throne of grace.

Since in Jesus, the Son of God, we have the supreme high priest who has gone through to the highest heaven, we must never let go of the faith that we have professed. For it is not as if we had a high priest who was incapable of feeling our weaknesses with us; but we have one who has been tempted in every way that we are, though he is without sin. Let us be confident, then, in approaching the throne of grace, that we shall have mercy from him and find grace when we are in need of help.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

THE WORD OF GOD

Gospel Acclamation

Mark 10:45

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Son of Man came to serve and to give his life as a ransom for all.
Alleluia!

Gospel
Mark 10:35-45

The Son of Man came to give his life as a ransom for all.

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, approached Jesus. 'Master,' they said to him 'we want you to do us a favour.' He said to them, 'What is it you want me to do for you?' They said to him, 'Allow us to sit one at your right hand and the other at your left in your glory.' 'You do not know what you are asking' Jesus said to them. 'Can you drink the cup that I must drink, or be baptised with the baptism with which I must be baptised?' They replied, 'We can.' Jesus said to them, 'The cup that I must drink you shall drink, and with the baptism with which I must be baptised you shall be baptised, but as for seats at my right hand or my left, these are not mine to grant; they belong to those to whom they have been allotted.'

When the other ten heard this they began to feel indignant with James and John, so Jesus called them to him and said to them, 'You know that among the pagans their so-called rulers lord it over them, and their great men make their authority felt. This is not to happen among you. No; anyone who wants to become great among you must be your servant, and anyone who wants to be first among you must be slave to all. For the Son of Man himself did not come to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

A Parish HSC Prayer

Heavenly Father, we bring before you our HSC students. Give them the gifts of wisdom, right judgement, knowledge and courage. Bless them with calm hearts and clarity of mind as they sit for their exams. May they be affirmed in their efforts and may they know that you are there with them. We pray that they will stay calm under pressure and work to the best of their ability. May they feel your loving presence in their lives, now and always, and may they be strengthened by the prayerful support of us, their parish community. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen

A Student's HSC Prayer

Lord, you have loved me into life and I thank you. In this exam period, give me a calm heart and quiet confidence in the knowledge that you hold me in the palm of your hand. Bless me with keen understanding and a retentive memory. Give me the ability to grasp things correctly, and express myself clearly.

Help me to look beyond this time of exams and see clearly whatever you are calling me to be in life. Show me my gifts and talents and help me to have the courage to use them to love others, to give you glory and to leave this world a better place. Amen.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true
God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
*At the words that follow, up to and including
'and became man', all bow.*
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Gospel Reflection

The first reading is the passage of Isaiah's mysterious suffering servant who takes upon himself the people's iniquity (Isaiah 53:2-11). Isaiah's mysterious figure of the "suffering servant" is not only a sign of God's love for us, but he also represents all human beings before God. Only God appreciated his servant's true greatness. Because he suffered, he was regarded as a sinner and therefore as one to be spurned. Because the servant fulfilled the divine will by suffering for the sins of others, the servant will be rewarded by the Lord.

The second reading speaks of Christ the high priest, tried in every way like us but sin, and the Gospel passage speaks of the Son of Man who has come to give his life in ransom for many (Mark 10:35-45). These three passages bring to light a fundamental aspect of the heart of priestly ministry, that is the servant leadership and one that we celebrate together as God's people in the Eucharistic mystery.

The servant leadership is emphasised in the Gospel reading today. It concludes with one of the most important Gospel sayings that indicates Jesus' messianic mission: "For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many." Jesus did not come into the world seeking personal gain, privilege or prestige. Rather, he came for service, and this entailed giving his life up as a ransom.

Jesus' Kingdom is not about who wears the crown, but who bears the cross. And there is no shortcut to God's favour. Jesus' image of greatness is service. Jesus does himself what he asks others to do: to serve and not to be served, to give love freely, to reach out to those in need and not to wait for adoring approval.

Christian discipleship is a service industry in which there should be no unemployment. There is work for all. Let us enjoy the Christian discipleship by being a loving servant.

Parish Pastoral Council Corner

If Christian parents discover that a child of theirs has been blessed by a vocation to the priesthood or religious life, let them feel the greatness of this honour and encourage their child's response to God's voice in every way possible. – St. John XXIII, 16 September 1959

We thank everyone who participated and helped in the celebration of the Feast day of our patron, St. John XXIII and our 13th Parish Formation anniversary last Sunday. A special thanks to those who donated all the scrumptious food and those who gave cash donations.

The SJ23 Prayer Group will be celebrating its monthly Praise & Worship Night this Saturday, the 17th of October, after the Vigil Mass. The theme is "Declare God's Goodness" and the guest speaker is Fr. Vincent Savarimuthu.

This Sunday, the 18th of October, we celebrate Diocesan Family Sunday at masses in every Parish in the Diocese of Parramatta. The theme this year is "Love is our Mission". There will also be talks during the Afternoon Family Gathering at the MacKillop Centre in St. Marys, covering testimonies from Parramatta Diocese World Meeting of Families delegates, an update on the Synod on the Family and the canonization of Blesseds Louis and Zelie Martin, parents of St. Therese. More information is available from the Family and Life Office.

Don't forget that 24 October (next Saturday) is our Parish Zumba Night fundraiser hosted by our own Rudi Yap and Fr. Robert! Tickets are available after the weekend Masses at $15 each for a fun night of sweat and dancing for a very good cause!

Please continue to support our young parishioners joining the 2016 World Youth Day in Poland by buying $2 tickets to the Diocesan WYD fundraising raffle to be drawn next year!

We are looking for parishioners who wish to join the Parish Stewardship team. If you are willing to give generously of your time to assist in this fundraising initiative for our parish, please contact John McCartney or myself before 31 October.

We still need host families for the Rosary statue from November onwards, so please contact me if you are interested to host our Mother in your home.

Have a blessed week! Bart

Why we do what we do.....

Holy Communion: Our Life in Christ

The Sacrament of Holy Communion is the third of the Sacraments of Initiation. Even though we are required to receive Communion at least once per year (our Easter Duty), and the Church urges us to receive Communion frequently (even daily, if possible), it is called a sacrament of initiation because, like Baptism and Confirmation, it brings us into the fullness of our life in Christ.

In Holy Communion, we are eating the True Body and Blood of Jesus Christ, without which "you shall not have life in you" (John 6:53).

Preparing for the Sacrament of Holy Communion

Because of the intimate connection of the Sacrament of Holy Communion to our life in Christ, we must be free of any grave or mortal sin before receiving it, as St. Paul explained in 1 Corinthians 11:27-29. Otherwise, as he warns, we receive the sacrament unworthily, and we "eateth and drinketh damnation" to ourselves.

If we are aware of having committed a mortal sin, we must participate in the Sacrament of Confession first. The Church sees the two sacraments as connected, and urges us, when we can, to join frequent Confession with frequent Communion.

In order to receive Communion, we must also abstain from food or drink (except for water and medicine) for one hour beforehand. (For more details on the Communion fast, see What Are the Rules for Fasting Before Communion?)

Making a Spiritual Communion

If we cannot receive Holy Communion physically, either because we cannot make it to Mass or because we need to go to Confession first, we can pray an Act of Spiritual Communion, in which we express our desire to be united with Christ and ask Him to come into our soul.

A spiritual communion is not sacramental, but prayed devoutly, it can be a source of grace that can strengthen us until we can receive the Sacrament of Holy Communion once again.

The Effects of the Sacrament of Holy Communion

Receiving Holy Communion worthily brings us graces that affect us both spiritually and physically. Spiritually, our souls become more united to Christ, both through the graces we receive and through the change in our actions that those graces effect. Frequent Communion increases our love for God and for our neighbor, which expresses itself in action, which makes us more like Christ.

Physically, frequent Communion relieves us of our passions. Priests and other spiritual directors who counsel those who are struggling with passions, especially sexual sins, often urge frequent reception not only of the Sacrament of Confession but of the Sacrament of Holy Communion. By receiving Christ's Body and Blood, our own bodies are sanctified, and we grow in our likeness to Christ. In fact, as Fr. John Hardon points out in his Modern Catholic Dictionary, the

Why we do ..(cont'd)

Church teaches that "A final effect of Communion is to remove the personal guilt of venial sins, and the temporal punishment [earthly and purgatorial] due to forgiven sins, whether venial or mortal."

http://catholicism.about.com/od/beliefsteachings/p/Sac_Communion.htm

An Act of Spiritual Communion

The Roman Catholic Church encourages the faithful to make frequent, if not daily, communion. Today, the normal opportunity to receive the Eucharist comes at daily Mass. (In the past, many parishes, especially in cities, distributed the Eucharist before and after Mass for those who weren't able to attend the whole Mass.)

When we cannot make it to daily Mass, however, we can still make a spiritual communion, in which we express our faith in Christ and in His Presence in the Eucharist, and we ask Him to unite Himself with us.

The following text is a popular form of spiritual communion; you can memorize it or use it as a guide to offering your own act of spiritual communion in your own words.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
