From the Pastor's desk

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ

The themes of the End of Time in today's reading are concepts that spur us on to be good, as we prepare for the future life of the Heavenly Sphere of existence. They encourage us to be full of hope for the promise of Salvation will be ours, if we but remain faithful to Christ and his Gospel.

Let's reflect on this all in the coming week and ask our Loving God to help us live lives worthy of the name "Christian"!

- My thanks to all who attended the Parish Meeting last Wednesday night. It was a fantastic experience of community, and so many people were encouraged to become even better stewards of our Parish family and its responsibilities. This weekend Cecilia Zammit from the Diocesan Chancery will speak to us of the third part of our Stewardship Programme: generosity in financial giving. This adds to what has been spoken about over the previous two weekends: prayer and worship together with service for the Lord and his community.
- This week we have First Reconciliations in our Church for the 200+ children who have been preparing for this Sacrament of God's Healing. Let's keep these youngsters in our thoughts and prayers during the next few days.
- There are moves to establish a group for those who have found themselves suddenly single again through separation, divorce or bereavement. Please see the Notice in the Parish Affairs section of our bulletin and contact the Office if this speaks to you and your needs at present
- The Parish Council will meet on Wednesday (at the later time of 8pm as I have First Reconciliations until then!) in the Parish Meeting Room.
- Please note that there will be a Charismatic Retreat Mass in our Church next Sunday afternoon at 2pm, celebrated by Monsignor Ron McFarlane.

Let us continue to keep each other in our prayers

Fr John

Happy Birthday Eugene D'Cruz! ... a blessed 95 on the feast of St Martin of Tours. With Fr John in his St Martin of Tours chasuble from the pilgrimage he lead to Santiago de Compostela.

Stewardship Prayer

Let us pray together:

Generous and loving God, You call us to be disciples of your son Jesus and good stewards of all your many gifts.

Open our minds and hearts to a greater awareness and deeper appreciation of your countless blessings.

Teach us to be faithful servants of your gifts. With Mary's help, may we return ten-fold the gifts entrusted to us.

Bless our Parish with a deepening devotion to prayer, a growing commitment for service, and increasing levels of generosity as we work to advance the mission of both our parish and diocese.

We pray through Christ, our Lord.

Amen.

First Reading

Daniel 12:1-3

When that time comes your own people will be spared.

'At that time Michael will stand up, the great prince who mounts guard over your people. There is going to be a time of great distress, unparalleled since nations first came into existence. When that time comes, your own people will be spared, all those whose names are found written in the Book. Of those who lie sleeping in the dust of the earth many will awake, some to everlasting life, some to shame and everlasting disgrace. The learned will shine as brightly as the vault of heaven, and those who have instructed many in virtue, as bright as stars for all eternity.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Second Reading

Hebrews 10:11-14, 18

By a single offering he has achieved the eternal perfection of those who are sanctified.

All the priests stand at their duties every day, offering over and over again the same sacrifices which are quite incapable of taking sins away. Christ, on the other hand, has offered one single sacrifice for sins, and then taken his place for ever, at the right hand of God, where he is now waiting until his enemies are made into a footstool for him. By virtue of that one single offering, he has achieved the eternal perfection of all whom he is sanctifying. When all sins have been forgiven, there can be no more sin offerings.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 15:5, 8-11

R. Keep me safe, O God; you are my hope.

O Lord, it is you who are my portion and cup; it is you yourself who are my prize. I keep the Lord ever in my sight: since he is at my right hand, I shall stand firm.

R.

And so my heart rejoices, my soul is glad; even my body shall rest in safety. For you will not leave my soul among the dead, nor let your beloved know decay.

R.

You will show me the path of life, the fullness of joy in your presence, at your right hand happiness for ever. R.

Gospel Acclamation

Luke 21:36

Alleluia, alleluia!

Be watchful and pray constantly, that you may be worthy to stand before the Son of Man.

Alleluia!

Gospel
Mark 13:24-32

He shall gather his elect from the four winds.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'In those days, after the time of distress, the sun will be darkened, the moon will lose its brightness, the stars will come falling from heaven and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. And then they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory; then too he will send the angels to gather his chosen from the four winds, from the ends of the world to the ends of heaven.

'Take the fig tree as a parable: as soon as its twigs grow supple and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. So with you, when you see these things happening: know that he is near, at the very gates. I tell you solemnly, before this generation has passed away all these things will have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

'But as for that day or hour, nobody knows it, neither the angels of heaven, nor the Son; no one but the Father.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

THE WORD OF GOD

Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves.

Do what it says.

James 1:22

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true

God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

*At the words that follow, up to and including
'and became man', all bow.*

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Gospel Reflection

The three readings for this 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year B) all speak of the end of time. This is the appropriate theme as we come to the end of the Church's Liturgical Year with the Feast of Christ the King next week.

The apocalyptic Book of Daniel speaks of the End of Time, assuring the people of Israel that those who have remained faithful to God ("whose names are found written in the Book (of Life)") will receive eternal life.

The Gospel of Mark for today picks up this theme of the End of Time, and utilizing similar language to Daniel offers amazing imagery of the last days: all of which is meant to help early Christians prepare for Christ's Second Coming.

And the Letter to the Hebrews – although using different language – also speaks of the end: Christ has taken his place with the Father, and he is now "waiting until his enemies are made into a footstool for him"; that is, he is waiting until all hear the Gospel before returning in Glory.

Given this theme we can see that EXPECTANT WAITING is the hallmark of the faithful Christian:

- We wait in hope for the final fulfilment of Christ's Sacrifice
- We are hope filled people who live in readiness for the End
- Our deaths will see us outside of time and thus at the End immediately

These and similar concepts spur us on to be good, as we prepare for the future life of the Heavenly Sphere of existence. They encourage us to be full of hope for the promise of Salvation will be ours, if we but remain faithful to Christ and his Gospel.

Let's reflect on this all in the coming week and ask our Loving God to help us live lives worthy of the name "Christian"!

Parish Pastoral Council Corner

Just as the blood, coursing silently through our veins, gives life, colour and strength to the entire body, so charity, a hidden but pulsing and life-giving force, makes all our good works effective and meritorious. – St. John XXIII, 8 March 1959

We thank everyone who attended the Parish Stewardship meeting last Wednesday, 11 November at St. Mark's College School Hall. It was truly generous of you to give your time for this important undertaking of our parish. Over the next few weeks, we encourage every parishioner to renew their personal commitment to parish life and our community's vision and mission by:

- Participating in a parish group or ministry and in church activities; and/or
- Starting or increasing their financial pledge of support for our parish particularly during the second collection.

Currently, the income from the second collection and planned giving contributions is inadequate to service interest payments on our Church Building loan, to pay for its maintenance while meeting parish operational costs and running Faith Programs. We estimate that we need to raise parish cash inflows to a minimum of $8k per week – are you able to help? Please take a Pledge Card and return this during the weekend masses – every bit counts towards meeting our goals!

Please continue to support our young parishioners joining the 2016 World Youth Day in Poland by buying $2 tickets to the Diocesan WYD fundraising raffle to be drawn next year!

We still need host families for the Rosary statue from December 22 onwards, so please contact me if you are interested to host our Mother in your home.

We will be holding the young Altar Servers' training course during 2 Saturdays in November (21 & 28), and enrolment forms are available in the church foyer for those interested in becoming altar servers for the parish.

The Institute for Mission (IFM) of the Parramatta Diocese is now accepting enrolments for the 2016 Certificate in Pastoral Formation course as well as the 2016 Beginning Theology (BT) program. Those who would like more information on these courses may attend the Nov. 30 IFM Info & Advent Reflection Night at the IFM office at Marion St., Blacktown or go to ifm.org.au for online queries.

Have a blessed week! Bart

Why we do what we do.....

The last of our Sacraments.....

Introduction:

Traditionally referred to as Extreme Unction or Last Rites, the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick was previously most commonly administered to the dying, for the remission of sins and the provision of spiritual strength and health. In modern times, however, its use has been expanded to all who are gravely ill or are about to undergo a serious operation, and the Church stresses a secondary effect of the sacrament: to help a person recover his health.

Like Confession and Holy Communion, to which it is closely linked, the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick can be repeated as often as is necessary.

Biblical Roots:

The modern celebration of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick recalls the early Christian use, going back to biblical times. When Christ sent His disciples out to preach, "they cast out many devils, and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them" (Mark 6:13). James 5:14-15 ties physical healing to the forgiveness of sins:

Is any man sick among you? Let him bring in the priests of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. And the prayer of faith shall save the sick man: and the Lord shall raise him up: and if he be in sins, they shall be forgiven him.

Who May Receive the Sacrament?:

Following this biblical understanding, the Catechism of the Catholic Church (para. 1514) notes that:

The Anointing of the Sick "is not a sacrament for those only who are at the point of death. Hence, as soon as anyone of the faithful begins to be in danger of death from sickness or old age, the fitting time for him to receive this sacrament has certainly already arrived."

When in doubt, priests should err on the side of caution and provide the sacrament to the faithful who request it.

The Form of the Sacrament:

The essential rite of the sacrament consists in the priest (or priests, in the case of the Eastern Churches) laying hands on the sick, anointing him with blessed oil (usually olive oil blessed by a bishop, but in an emergency, any vegetable oil will suffice), and praying "Through this holy anointing may the Lord in his love and mercy help you with the grace of the Holy Spirit. May the Lord who frees you from sin save you and raise you up."

When circumstances permit, the Church recommends that the sacrament take place during Mass, or at least that it be preceded by Confession and followed by Holy Communion.

The Minister of the Sacrament:

Only priests (including bishops) can administer the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick, since, when the sacrament was instituted during

Why we do ..(cont'd)

Christ's sending out of His disciples, it was confined to the men who would become the original bishops of the Church.

The Effects of the Sacrament:

Received in faith and in a state of grace, the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick provides the recipient with a number of graces, including the fortitude to resist temptation in the face of death, when he is weakest; a union with the Passion of Christ, which makes his suffering holy; and the grace to prepare for death, so that he may meet God in hope rather than in fear. If the recipient was not able to receive the Sacrament of Confession, Anointing also provides forgiveness of sins. And, if it will aid in the salvation of his soul, Anointing may restore the recipient's health.

http://catholicism.about.com/od/beliefsteachings/p/Sac\_Anointing.htm

The seven sacraments—Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Communion, Confession, Marriage, Holy Orders, and the Anointing of the Sick—are the life of the Catholic Church. Each sacrament is an outward sign of an inward grace. When we participate in them worthily, each provides us with graces—with the life of God in our soul. In worship, we give to God that which we owe Him; in the sacraments, He gives us the graces necessary to live a truly human life.
