From the Pastor's desk

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ

Sunday's Readings - and especially the Gospel of Luke - encourage us to become prophets for our times. This is never easy, as it demands that we challenge our dominant cultural mores. As such, a prophet never wins the popularity prize.

However, before we can challenge others we need to re-examine our own lives and re-commit to continual conversion ourselves. We must call ourselves to account!

As this week unfolds lets fan the flame of faith, and rediscover our mission of being a prophet to our world. Let's imitate the Lord Jesus and proclaim the Truth of the Gospel at all times and in all circumstances.

And in so doing, let's support each other in our joint prophetic ministry of love!

- May I take this opportunity to thank all those wonderful people who helped in so many ways to make last Sunday's Installation Mass with Bishop Vincent such a memorable occasion for me, and, indeed, for all present. It was a joyful experience of parish community....
- And Bishop Vincent commented to me that it was great to be in a parish that was so alive! So, WELL DONE EVERYONE!
- We welcome Fr Robert back from his WYD experience and some annual leave. We look forward to hearing all about the WYD Pilgrimage from all those who attended this event in Kraków.
- Monday 15 August is The Solemnity of the Assumption. With Christmas, this is the other remaining Holy Day of Obligation. Masses in our Parish will be at 9am, 12:15pm (school mass) and 7:30pm.
- We will be having a two-week Parish Pilgrimage next year during the Sept-Oct School Holidays: In the Footsteps of St John XXIII. Brochures are available with details, and I hope we can reach the maximum number of 45 quickly. This will be a marvellous time of spiritual renewal, as well as a fun time with friends and fellow parishioners.
- I was supposed to have the month of August overseas on annual leave, but my recent surgery prevented that! As a result, now Fr Robert is back, I'll take a couple of weeks leave from Tuesday this week, back in time for the first weekend of September - and the Grand Raffle draw on Fathers Day.

Please refer all parish matters to Fr Robert or Deacon Tan in my absence.

God bless you all!

Let's continue to pray for one another.

Entrance Antiphon

Turn your eyes, O God, our shield;
and look on the face of your anointed one; one day within your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere.

First Reading

Jeremiah 38:4-6. 8-10

You bore me to be a man of strife for the whole world.

The king's leading men spoke to the king. 'Let Jeremiah be put to death: he is unquestionably disheartening the remaining soldiers in the city, and all the people too, by talking like this. The fellow does not have the welfare of this people at heart so much as its ruin.' 'He is in your hands as you know,' King Zedekiah answered 'for the king is powerless against you.' So they took Jeremiah and threw him into the well of Prince Malchiah in the Court of the Guard, letting him down with ropes. There was no water in the well, only mud, and into the mud Jeremiah sank.

Ebed-melech came out from the palace and spoke to the king. 'My lord king,' he said, 'these men have done a wicked thing by treating the prophet Jeremiah like this: they have thrown him into the well where he will die.' At this the king gave Ebed-melech the Cushite the following order: 'Take three men with you from here and pull the prophet Jeremiah out of the well before he dies.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Communion Antiphon

With the Lord there is mercy; in him is plentiful redemption.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 39:2-4. 18

R. Lord, come to my aid!

I waited, I waited for the Lord and he stooped down to me; he heard my cry. R.

He drew me from the deadly pit, from the miry clay. He set my feet upon a rock and made my footsteps firm. R.

He put a new song into my mouth, praise of our God. Many shall see and fear and shall trust in the Lord. R.

As for me, wretched and poor, the Lord thinks of me. You are my rescuer, my help, O God, do not delay! R.

THE WORD OF GOD

"What you are is God's gift to you, what you become is your gift to God."

Second Reading

Hebrews 12:1-4

Let us bear patiently the struggle placed upon us.

With so many witnesses in a great cloud on every side of us, we too, then, should throw off everything that hinders us, especially the sin that clings so easily, and keep running steadily in the race we have started. Let us not lose sight of Jesus, who leads us in our faith and brings it to perfection: for the sake of the joy which was still in the future, he endured the cross, disregarding the shamefulness of it, and from now on has taken his place at the right of God's throne. Think of the way he stood such opposition from sinners and then you will not give up for want of courage. In the fight against sin, you have not yet had to keep fighting to the point of death.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Luke 12:49-53

I have come not to give peace, but discord.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'I have come to bring fire to the earth, and how I wish it were blazing already! There is a baptism I must still receive, and how great is my distress till it is over!

'Do you suppose that I am here to bring peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division. For from now on a household of five will be divided: three against two and two against three; the father divided against the son, son against father, mother against daughter, daughter against mother, mother-in-law against daughter-in-law, daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel Acclamation

John 10:27

Alleluia, alleluia!

My sheep listen to my voice, says the Lord; I know them, and they follow me.

Alleluia!

Gospel Reflection

It must be very difficult for Jesus to break into the lives of the people of his time with his strange message of God. Caught up in the loving obedience which dominated his life, he preached a message which was disturbing. It was so disturbing that it took him to the cross. A message of the closeness of a loving God to all people, and the demands which such love creates, necessarily leads to opposition. Indeed, our attempts to domesticate such a message show that humankind, even those parts known to be Christian, is still unable totally to accept his message.

Jesus was aware the call to Christian love is judged as an unrealistic option to resolve the problems of our complicated world. Thus he spoke of the fire which he was bringing to this earth, setting alight not only the hearts but also the lives of the people whom this touched.

The fire which Jesus' life and preaching brought would spread. But as it spread, it brought division into the lives of the people who accepted him and the promises of God's reign. He announces that the divisions would happen at the deepest level of social relationships, that is the family. Indeed, in the time of Jesus himself, and in the time when Luke was writing the Gospel, such things were happening such as father against son, son against father, mother against daughter and vice versa. The most intimate of human communities was divided as some members accepted the risk of following Jesus of Nazareth, while others refused it.

The divisions which Jesus and Luke knew may not be a part of our society. We live in a more difficult world, where people just do not care! We have to ask ourselves if we are prepared to live, with Jesus, the fire he brought upon this earth. Are we prepared to accept the divisions which he forces us to admit?

How do we cope with the fact that the person of Jesus can still divide families, even those called Christian? Or are we happy to hide our belief in the saving love of Jesus from the world in which we live, and only parade it when it is convenient? But remember that the fire and the division which Jesus brought are still present.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

At the words that follow, up to and including 'and became man', all bow.

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Why we do what we do..

MARY & THE SAINTS

Catholics believe that worship is due to God alone. Catholics do, however, venerate Mary. In other words, we honor our Blessed Mother with great reverence and devotion because she is the Mother of God. Mary is the model of perfect love and obedience to Christ. God preserved Mary from sin, and she conceived our Lord by the power of the Holy Spirit, bringing Christ into our world. Catholics can't help but honor the Blessed Virgin Mary, who is full of grace, the Mother of God and our Mother, for her "yes" to God that made the Incarnation possible. And without the Incarnation, we would not have salvation. Mary is the most beautiful model of total submission to the will of God. Catholics do not view Mary as equal to Christ, but rather venerate Mary because of her relationship to Christ. The Catechism of the Catholic Church explains, "Mary's role in the Church is inseparable from her union with Christ and flows directly from it" (CCC 964).

As Catholics, we pray that we can respond to God's call to holiness for our lives in the way that Mary did. Mother Theresa prayed to emulate Mary's devotion to Christ:

"Mary, Mother of Jesus, give me your heart so beautiful, so pure, so immaculate, so full of love and humility that I may be able to receive Jesus in the Bread of Life, love Him as You loved Him, and serve Him as You served Him...."

<http://www.catholicscomehome.org/your-questions/church-teachings/mary-the-saints/>

Like all Christians, Catholics believe in life after death, but we also believe that our relationship with other Christians does not end with death. Catholic prayer to saints is a recognition of this communion.

Why do Catholics pray to saints?

Do Catholics believe that saints should be worshiped?

Is there a difference between prayer and worship?

The Communion of Saints

As Catholics, we believe that our life doesn't end at death but simply changes. Those who have lived good lives and died in the faith of Christ will, as the Bible tells us, share in His Resurrection.

While we live together on earth as Christians, we are in communion, or unity, with one another. But that communion doesn't end when one of us dies. We believe that the saints, the Christians in heaven, remain in communion with those of us on earth.

So, just as we might ask a friend or family member to pray for us, we can approach a saint with our prayers, too.

Why we do .. (con't)

The Difference Between Prayer and Worship

Many non-Catholic Christians believe that it is wrong to pray to the saints, claiming that our prayers should be directed to God alone.

Some Catholics, responding to this criticism, have argued that we do not pray to the saints but with them.

Both groups, however, are confusing prayer with worship. True worship (as opposed to veneration or honor) does indeed belong to God alone, and we should never worship man or any other creature as we worship God. But while worship may take the form of prayer, as in the Mass and other liturgies of the Church, not all prayer is worship. When we pray to the saints, we're simply asking them to help us, by praying to God on our behalf, or thanking them for having already done so.
