Dear sisters and brothers in Christ

The rich man in the story today was woken up to his folly only after his death. Need we wait for the Lord's words after we're gone? Shouldn't we subscribe to a policy of 'prevention rather than cure', and wake up from the various 'follies' of our lives right now and face reality openly?

We cannot remain 'snugly ensconced' in a safe environment of our own making - whether that be at home, at school, at work, in our church. Rather, we need to allow God's Spirit to create in us a willingness to actively do something (according to each one's ability) about injustice and violence in our community and in our world.

In the week ahead, let us do what we can to be faithful to the Lord's command to love our neighbour unconditionally in imitation of Him!

- ◆ This Saturday is the First Saturday of the month, and thus we will celebrate the Liturgy of Anointing of the Sick during the 9am Mass. Adoration and Benediction will follow mass. NB First Friday is the following Friday this month.
 - ◆ Baptism Preparation for parents and Godparents whose children will be baptised in October is this Wednesday evening from 7:30pm in the Church.

My personal thanks to all who came to the Parish Assembly last Sunday. It was a grand occasion when the past, present and future of our Parish were reflected upon and discussed. There is a full summary of the Assembly in the Bulletin for this week. Please take the Bulletin HOME and reflect upon these things in the week ahead. We are about to embark on new directions which build upon the marvellous foundations of the past that presently make this Parish one of the best in our Diocese!!

God bless you all

Fr. John

The Future

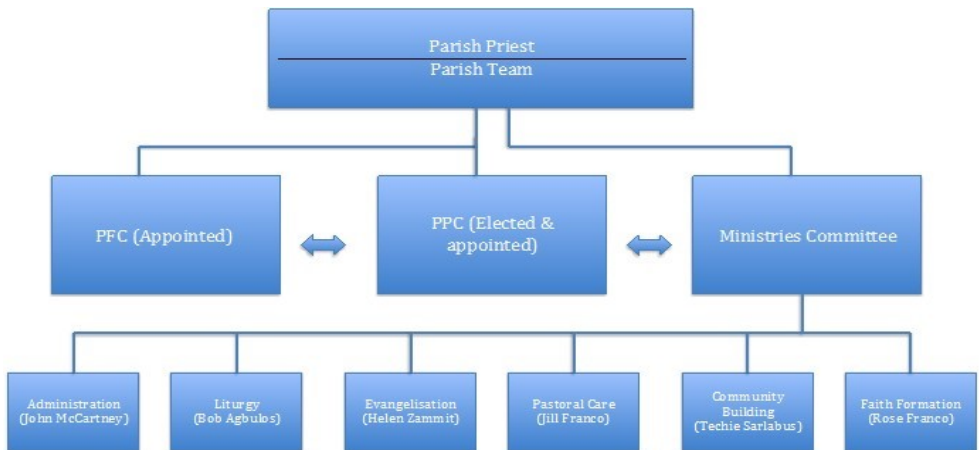

The Vision for the Future

Fr John reviewed recent successes and presented his vision and plans for the future.

I. Over the past year or so we have introduced a number of initiatives:

- Evangelisation
- Pastoral Care: Bereavement support & meals for those in need.
- Marriage Preparation – we are planning to introduce our own marriage preparation course
- Our Stewardship Program
 - ⇒ Good response to some initiatives after our Stewardship Program eg the many volunteers who offer their time and talents
 - ⇒ While pledges in Planned Giving increased, there is still a need for improvement

II. He presented the proposed structure of the Parish leadership team as follows:

The major highlight of the above structure is the creation of a Ministries Committee, which separates the operational function of the various parish ministries from the pastoral planning function of the PPC. The move will also require the election of parishioners (in line with Diocesan guidelines) into a Parish Pastoral council that will consist of:

- The clergy - Parish Priest, Assistant Priest and Deacon
- Seven (7) parishioners, nominated and elected by the parish community and/or nominated/appointed by the Parish Priest
- Ex officio members - Parish Schools Representative, Parish Business Manager, Parish Finance Committee Representative.

The new Council will come into effect on 1 January 2017. More details will be announced prior to elections in November 2016.

III. Addressing our parish debt levels

The parish is currently exploring a land development opportunity (down Bentwood Terrace and along Windsor Road) which IF successful should realise a significant financial return for the parish. It is hoped that the proceeds will allow us to pay off our current debt on the church building (currently $4.1m) and potentially fund further infrastructure projects that will enhance the facilities of our parish. We will keep you updated as each stage of the process progresses.

IV. Special Projects being considered

We also have plans to develop the memorial garden behind the sanctuary to include a columbarium and possibly an outdoor altar. A columbarium is a wall where people are able to place the ashes of their loved ones.

In conclusion

The meeting concluded with a very worthwhile Q&A forum, with parishioners providing very useful and welcome feedback and suggestions. We will be reviewing that feedback and look towards implementing many of the suggestions.

Entrance Antiphon

All that you have done to us, O Lord, you have done with true judgement, for we have sinned against you and not obeyed your commandments. But give glory to your name and deal with us according to the bounty of your mercy.

Communion Antiphon

By this we came to know the love of God: that Christ laid down his life for us; so we ought to lay down our lives for one another.

First Reading

Amos 6:1. 4-7

You who give yourself to licentiousness and revelry will be exiled.

The almighty Lord says this:

Woe to those ensconced so snugly in Zion and to those who feel so safe on the mountain of Samaria. Lying on ivory beds and sprawling on their divans, they dine on lambs from the flock, and stall-fattened veal; they bawl to the sound of the harp, they invent new instruments of music like David, they drink wine by the bowlful, and use the finest oil for anointing themselves, but about the ruin of Joseph they do not care at all. That is why they will be the first to be exiled; the sprawlers' revelry is over.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 145:6-10

R. Praise the Lord, my soul!

It is the Lord who keeps faith for ever, who is just to those who are oppressed. It is he who gives bread to the hungry, the Lord, who sets prisoners free. R.

It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind, who raises up those who are bowed down. It is the Lord who loves the just, the Lord, who protects the stranger. R.

He upholds the widow and orphan but thwarts the path of the wicked. The Lord will reign for ever, Zion's God, from age to age. R.

Gospel Acclamation

2 Corinthians 8:9

Alleluia, alleluia!

Jesus Christ was rich but he became poor, to make you rich out of his poverty.

Alleluia!

How can a young person
stay on the path of purity?
By living according to your word.

Psalm 119:9 | NIV

Second Reading

1 Timothy 6:11-16

Obey the commandments until the coming of the Lord.

As a man dedicated to God, you must aim to be saintly and religious, filled with faith and love, patient and gentle. Fight the good fight of the faith and win for yourself the eternal life to which you were called when you made your profession and spoke up for the truth in front of many witnesses. Now, before God the source of all life and before Jesus Christ, who spoke up as a witness for the truth in front of Pontius Pilate, I put to you the duty of doing all that you have been told, with no faults or failures, until the Appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ, who at the due time will be revealed by God, the blessed and only Ruler of all, the King of kings and the Lord of lords, who alone is immortal, whose home is in inaccessible light, whom no man has seen and no man is able to see: to him be honour and everlasting power. Amen.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Luke 16:19-31

During your life good things came your way just as bad things came the way of Lazarus. Now he is being comforted while you are in agony.

Jesus said to the Pharisees: "There was a rich man who used to dress in purple and fine linen and feast magnificently every day. And at his gate there lay a poor man called Lazarus, covered with sores, who longed to fill himself with the scraps that fell from the rich man's table. Dogs even came and licked his sores. Now the poor man died and was carried away by the angels to the bosom of Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried.

"In his torment in Hades he looked up and saw Abraham a long way off with Lazarus in his bosom. So he cried out, "Father Abraham, pity me and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am in agony in these flames." "My son," Abraham replied "remember that during your life good things came your way, just as bad things came the way of Lazarus. Now he is being comforted here while you are in agony. But that is not all: between us and you a great gulf has been fixed, to stop anyone, if he wanted to, crossing from our side to yours, and to stop any crossing from your side to ours."

"The rich man replied, "Father, I beg you then to send Lazarus to my father's house, since I have five brothers, to give them warning so that they do not come to this place of torment too." "They have Moses and the prophets," said Abraham, "let them listen to them." "Ah, no, father Abraham," said the rich man "but if someone comes to them from the dead, they will repent." Then Abraham said to him, "If they will not listen either to Moses or to the prophets, they will not be convinced even if someone should rise from the dead."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel Reflection

The theme of Social Justice flows through our three readings this weekend.

The Prophet Amos continues to attack the unjust rich who enjoy a luxurious lifestyle at the expense of others in the community who are lacking in basic necessities. He demands that exploitation and greed are to be excised from our lives, for making decisions solely on the basis of profit is a crime against God's Law, and, ultimately, a crime against humanity. Anything that places money before people is sinful.

Timothy is urged by Paul to create an orderly community and help people live conscientious lives, so that the world can live in peace and harmony.

And the Gospel text from Luke offers Jesus' story of Lazarus and the rich man. Lazarus is poor, but he is not clouded with false gods such as materialism. His goodness is found in his openness to God and not in his poverty per se. The rich man, on the other hand, is caught up with his riches and thus neglects God and God's children (Lazarus being the epitome of the poor ones of the children of God). And the point of the parable is this: the need of the poor will be changed to wealth of a different sort while the selfish abundance of the unjust rich will be turned to eternal misery!

The rich man in the story today was woken up to his folly only after his death. Need we wait for the Lord's words after we're gone? Shouldn't we subscribe to a policy of 'prevention rather than cure', and wake up from the various 'follies' of our lives right now and face reality openly?

We cannot remain 'snugly ensconced' in a safe environment of our own making - whether that be at home, at school, at work, in our church. Rather, we need to allow God's Spirit to create in us a willingness to actively do something (according to each one's ability) about injustice and violence in our community and in our world.

I conclude with two quotations from Pope St. John Paul II:

"The church will not hesitate to take up the cause of the poor and to become the voice of those who are not heard when they speak up, not to demand charity but to ask of rustic. Yes, the preference for the poor is a Christian preference"

"Justice and charity are no more than empty words if they are not accompanied by concrete actions toward concrete people".

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true
God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

At the words that follow, up to and including 'and became man', all bow.

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

We are all on a journey, and on this journey we are at the service of Jesus, of his Gospel, and the holy Church. Each person has their place, and their appointed time. Those who serve in the Church change, but the Church itself is immortal. – 14 December 1955

COUNCIL MATTERS

† Next PPC Executive Team meeting scheduled for Tuesday, 18 October 2016, from 7:30 pm at the Parish Office Conference Room.

† Parish Council Restructuring Announcement:

- At last Sunday's Parish Assembly, as part of the Vision for the Future of SJ23, Fr. John announced the splitting of the Parish Council through the creation of a separate Committee for the various Parish Ministries.
- The coordinators for these committees (John McCartney - Administration, Bob Agbulos - Liturgy, Helen Zammit - Evangelisation, Jill Franco - Pastoral Care, Techie Sarlabus - Community Building and Rose Franco - Faith Formation) will now be part of an umbrella committee headed by Fr John that will continue looking after the different parish ministries.
- In line with the guidelines set by the Diocese of Parramatta, the SJ23 Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) will focus on promoting the Church's mission to live and communicate the love and values of Christ in our world. Being an advisory body to the Fr. John, it will seek to: (a) enrich the quality of parish life and (b) provide opportunities for parishioners to grow in holiness as well as to discover and live out their personal and community call to mission to live as Catholics who can effectively transform society.
- The "refreshed" SJ23 PPC will be comprised of 4 elected and 3 appointed parishioners and will start on 1 January 2017. Every two years thereafter, there will be elections to determine the composition of the PPC.
- We will be making future announcements on the elections for the 2017 PPC, but we are looking at holding this around mid-November, so please look for these announcements in the forthcoming weekend bulletins and social media.

FAITH FORMATION TEAM

- † We continue to ask for host families from to pray the Rosary at home and request for our Blessed Mother's intercessions. Please refer to the bulletin section for available dates.
