Dear sisters and brothers in Christ

The only way we can truly live up to the Lord's Call to tell everyone about the Good News of Jesus Christ is to remain in relationship with God. And the only way we can remain in relationship with God is to persevere in prayer, adopting an attitude of openness to God's Will in all things.

And in doing this we will help others come to know the beauty and the power of our Loving Creator God!

- ◆ Please note that the Parent Evening for First Reconciliation is this Wednesday evening from 7:30pm in our Church. At least one parent for each of the children enrolled in the Sacramental Programme today MUST attend this important Adult Education session. I look forward to welcoming those whose children are about to embark on this important spiritual journey.
- ◆ Please note that nominations to the new Parish Pastoral Council are now open. This week and next is your opportunity to offer yourselves or nominate another to serve your brothers and sisters for two years on the Parish Pastoral Council. This is an essential way in which the parish offers advice to me as Parish Priest. I encourage you to think deeply about who should serve...
- ◆ There is a lot of information in this week's bulletin concerning...
 - ⇒ the Sacramental Programme,
 - ⇒ the Parish re-Structure,
 - ⇒ the Parish Council Elections,
 - ⇒ the November Book of the Dead, and many more topics of vital interest to the majority of parishioners.

Please feel free to take the bulletin Home or access it on the Parish Webpage.

May God's blessings continue to come down on you all. Let's continue to pray for one another.

Have a great week!

Fr. John

Parish Pastoral Council

As we outlined last week, the new Parish Pastoral Council (elections in November) will coordinate 6 ministry and administration groups. Each week we will outline one of these groups and how you can contribute your time and talents. This week we cover the Administration group.

ADMINISTRATION

Coordinator – John McCartney
(businessmanager@john23rd.org.au)

Counters. We count the weekend collections which takes about 2 hours each week. We need at least 4 more counters – the more we have the less often you would need to be there. At the moment each team is rostered 1 day per month.

Contact: Tanya 9852 0580 secretary@john23rd.org.au

Gardening. We each look after a garden bed around the church, as well as the occasional working bee. We need more gardeners – the more we have the less work there is for each gardener.

Contact: John McCartney 9899 2473 businessmanager@john23rd.org.au

Church Cleaning. We clean the church which takes about X hours each week. We need a lot more cleaners – the more we have the less often you would need to be there. At the moment each team is rostered 1 day per month.

Contact: Tanya 9852 0580 secretary@john23rd.org.au

Communications. The Communications & Media committee looks after the printed material in the parish eg the bulletin, flyers and posters, as well as the parish website and Facebook page. We also look after the parish archives.

Entrance Antiphon

To you I call; for you will surely heed me, O God; turn your ear to me; hear my words. Guard me as the apple of your eye; in the shadow of your wings protect me.

First Reading

Exodus 17:8-13

As long as Moses kept his arms raised, Israel had the advantage.

The Amalekites came and attacked Israel at Rephidim. Moses said to Joshua, 'Pick out men for yourself, and tomorrow morning march out to engage Amalek. I, meanwhile will stand on the hilltop, the staff of God in my hand.' Joshua did as Moses told him and marched out to engage Amalek, while Moses and Aaron and Hur went up to the top of the hill. As long as Moses kept his arms raised, Israel had the advantage; when he let his arms fall, the advantage went to Amalek. But Moses' arms grew heavy, so they took a stone and put it under him and on this he sat, Aaron and Hur supporting his arms, one on one side, one on the other; and his arms remained firm until sunset. With the edge of the sword Joshua cut down Amalek and his people.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Communion Antiphon

Behold, the eyes of the Lord are on those who fear him, who hope in his merciful love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 120

R. Our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

I lift up my eyes to the mountains: from where shall come my help? My help shall come from the Lord who made heaven and earth. R.

May he never allow you to stumble! Let him sleep not, your guard. No, he sleeps not nor slumbers, Israel's guard. R.

The Lord is your guard and your shade; at your right side he stands. By day the sun shall not smite you nor the moon in the night. R.

The Lord will guard you from evil, he will guard your soul. The Lord will guard your going and coming both now and for ever. R.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

John 1:1

Second Reading

2 Timothy 3:14 - 4:2

This is how the people of God become equipped and ready for every good work.

You must keep to what you have been taught and know to be true; remember who your teachers were, and how, ever since you were a child, you have known the holy scriptures - from these you can learn the wisdom that leads to salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All scripture is inspired by God and can profitably be used for teaching, for refuting error, for guiding people's lives and teaching them to be holy. This is how the man who is dedicated to God becomes fully equipped and ready for any good work.

Before God and before Christ Jesus who is to be judge of the living and the dead, I put this duty to you, in the name of his Appearing and of his kingdom: proclaim the message and, welcome or unwelcome, insist on it. Refute falsehood, correct error, call to obedience - but do all with patience and with the intention of teaching.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Hebrews 4:12

Alleluia, alleluia!

The word of God is living and active; it probes the thoughts and motives of our heart.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 18:1-8

God will see those who cry to him vindicated.

Jesus told his disciples a parable about the need to pray continually and never lose heart. 'There was a judge in a certain town' he said who had neither fear of God nor respect for man. In the same town there was a widow who kept coming to him and saying, "I want justice from you against my enemy!" For a long time he refused, but at last he said to himself "Maybe I have neither fear of God nor respect for man, but since she keeps pestering me I must give this widow her just rights, or she will persist in coming and worry me to death."

And the Lord said, 'You notice what the unjust judge has to say? Now will not God see justice done to his chosen who cry to him day and night even when he delays to help them? I promise you, he will see justice done to them, and done speedily. But when the Son of Man comes, will he find any faith on earth?'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel Reflection

A theme of perseverance in prayer pervades our Liturgy today. This doesn't mean that we can expect 'results' because of our persistence. Rather, perseverance is an attitude of openness to God's Will; it is a realisation that God knows the best 'result' for us. We trust our Loving God!

The Old Testament text from Exodus 17:8-13 portrays Moses as mediating between God and the People of Israel. As long as Moses lifted up his hands in prayer, then God listened and responded. When, through human weakness, Moses let his hands drop, disaster struck! It is often the same with us: as often as we lift our hands (figuratively) in prayer, then we remain open to God's Spirit. We can allow God in so that the Lord can touch our lives. However, when through laziness, doubt, or whatever reason we let our hands fall, we let our prayer go off the boil... and disaster in relationship with God is imminent.

Luke's Gospel text about the Parable of the Widow and the Dishonest Judge (18:1-8) offers a similar point: the result of the woman's perseverance led to victory for her case; and Jesus is telling his audience and us that God will act in a like manner if we but persevere in faithful prayer, open to God's omniscient Will.

And the Second Reading from 2Tim 3:14-4:2 speaks of persevering in proclaiming and teaching the Good News. What flows from prayer is a relationship with God. And this in turn impels us to tell others about the beauty and goodness of God. Our relationship with God in persistent prayer helps us "proclaim the message and, welcome or unwelcome, insist on it!"

So, to summarise: the only way we can truly live up to the Lord's Call to tell everyone about the Good News of Jesus Christ is to remain in relationship with God.

And the only way we can remain in relationship with God is to persevere in prayer, adopting an attitude of openness to God's Will in all things.

And in doing this we will help others come to know the beauty and the power of our Loving Creator God!

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true
God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

At the words that follow, up to and including 'and became man', all bow.

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Altar Server Training

We will have our Altar Server Training over two Saturdays, the 5th and 12th of November. The two sessions will be held in the church from 10 to 11.30am, followed by their commissioning at the 10.30 am mass on Sunday the 20th November. To be an altar server, you need to be over 10 years of age; have received the sacraments of Baptism, Reconciliation and 1st Holy Communion; and are prepared to assist before, during and after the mass. Application forms are available in the foyer, on our parish website and on our parish Facebook page. For further details, contact Bob Agbulos from the Liturgy team. Details on the form.

Remembrance Wall and Memorial Garden

The new plaques have been installed on the Remembrance Wall and the Memorial Garden trees, as well as the three roses to the memory of Fr Dave, donated by our three schools. A special blessing ceremony will be held on All Souls Day, Wednesday 2 November, after the 7.30pm mass. The old plaques may be collected from the Parish Office.

There are still places on the Remembrance Wall for your departed loved ones. If you place your order by 1 November they will be ready by Christmas.

November Book of Remembrance

We are instituting a new process for entering the names of your departed loved ones in the November Book of Remembrance. During the last few weeks of October a book will be placed in the sanctuary to enable you to write the names of your departed family and friends. This is more personal than the previous envelope system as you will be able to personally inscribe the names. A box will be provided for your November mass offering.

Gardening working bee

Thank you to all our gardeners who work tirelessly to keep our gardens looking so good. However, they need some extra help so we have organised a working bee to clean up some of the gardens as a lead up to Christmas, but before it gets too hot. Please join us on Saturday 22 October 7.00-9.00am.

Parish Notices (con't)

Parish Pastoral Council elections

As announced by Fr John at the Parish Assembly, the Parish Pastoral Council will be reconstituted to include 4 elected and 3 appointed parishioners. Elections will take place at all masses on the weekends of 12-13 and 19-20 November. The new Council will commence on 1 January 2017 for a period of two years.

Call for nominations

Would you like to contribute some of your time and expertise to YOUR parish? Take a nomination form, available at the front door, and discuss it with your family. The nomination process is detailed on the form. Nominations close on Friday 4 November at 4.00pm. Our Business Manager, John McCartney has been appointed the Returning Officer and will be organising the election.

Diocesan Notices

15-16 October: Way of Mercy Regional Gathering, Quakers Hill

Pope Francis has called for a more merciful and inclusive church in "which we are all called to give consolation to each man and each woman of our time". In response, the relics of St Mary of the Cross MacKillop and St Teresa of Kolkata accompanied by a Mercy Cross are on a pilgrimage through the Diocese of Parramatta.

On the weekend of 15-16 October, the Mercy Cross and Relics will be hosted by Mary Immaculate Parish, Quakers Hill, with St John XXIII Parish, Glenwood-Stanhope Gardens; Our Lady of the Rosary Parish, Kellyville; and Our Lady of the Angels Parish, Rouse Hill.

On the weekend of 22-23 October, the Mercy Cross and Relics will be hosted by The Good Shepherd Parish, Plumpton, with St Aidan's Parish, Rooty Hill; Holy Family Parish, Mt Druitt; and Sacred Heart Parish, Mt Druitt South.

To find out more about the Way of Mercy and dates when the Mercy Cross and Relics are coming to a parish near you, visit www.mercyhasaface.org.au or contact the Pastoral Planning Office, tel(02)8838 3460, pastoralplanning@parra.catholic.org.au

Why we do what we do...

Overview of the Mass

Key moments in the Mass

<http://www.togetheratonealtar.catholic.edu.au/receive/dsp-content.cfm?loadref=39>

At Mass we gather as the friends of Jesus coming together. We listen to the story about Jesus, told to us from the scripture. We give thanks to God the Father for all that Jesus did for us.

We go from Mass with Jesus as part of our lives. We now try to live as he did. The Mass is made up of twelve key moments. The 'Greeting' is the beginning of the celebration of Mass. Next is the 'Penitential Act' when we tell God we are sorry for the times we have not loved as we should have.

Following this are the 'Scripture Readings' read by people from the assembly, after which the Priest reads the Gospel. The First and Second Readings, and the Gospel are explained by the Priest and he talks about what we can learn from them in the 'Homily'. The 'Creed' is when everybody in the Church stands up and says what they believe as a group. The 'Prayer of the Faithful' is when we offer prayers for people in need. People from the assembly lead us in this.

The gifts of bread and wine are brought to the altar during the 'Preparation of the Gifts'. The 'Consecration of the bread and wine' is when the bread and wine are changed into the Body and Blood of Jesus. We then speak the 'The Lord's Prayer' which Jesus taught us.

We say it together to praise God for all that we have been given and to ask God to forgive us the things that we have done wrong. Next we shake hands with the people around us to share the peace that Christ gives. This is called the 'Sign of Peace'. At 'Communion' those of us who have made our First Holy Communion, can now move forward to the altar to receive of Body and Blood of Jesus. This brings us closer to God.

To finish Mass the 'Final Blessing' is spoken. The Priest blesses us and sends us from the church to bring Jesus to the people we meet by being loving and kind.

Parish Pastoral Council Corner

The thought of the presence of God and the spirit of worship will in all my actions have as their immediate object Jesus, God and man, really present in the most holy Eucharist. The spirit of sacrifice, of humiliation, of scorn for self in the eyes of men, will be illuminated, supported and strengthened by the constant thought of Jesus, humiliated and despised in the Blessed Sacrament.
Pope John XXIII

COUNCIL MATTERS

- † Next PPC Executive Team meeting scheduled for Tuesday, 18 October 2016, from 7:30 pm at the Parish Office Conference Room.
- † Parish Council Restructuring Announcement:
 - * At the recent Parish Assembly, and as part of the Vision for the Future of SJ23, Fr. John announced the splitting of the Parish Pastoral Council through the creation of a separate Committee for the various Parish Ministries, independent of the PPC.
 - * In line with the guidelines set by the Diocese of Parramatta, the SJ23 Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) will focus on promoting the Church's mission to live and communicate the love and values of Christ in our world. Being an advisory body to the Fr. John, it will seek to: (a) enrich the quality of parish life and (b) provide opportunities for parishioners to grow in holiness as well as to discover and live out their personal and community call to mission to live as Catholics who can effectively transform society
