EIGHTH SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME

25 - 26 FEBRUARY 2017

Our Parish Mission

The parish of St John XXIII is a faith community with the Eucharist as its heart. Inspired by John XXIII's prophetic opening of the windows of the Church, we welcome the fresh air of the Holy Spirit, inviting every person to share in the responsibility of enriching the life and faith of our community by sharing their gifts and talents."

From the Pastor's desk

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ,

Trusting in God is a constant theme in the Scriptures. And today's Liturgy of the Word for the 8th Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year A) revisits this essential aspect of Faith.

We know we are called to 'seek first the Kingdom', but we fail to do so, preferring the rather Pelagian approach to spiritual life, wherein all grace and benefit is up to us, that gifts come from our meritorious activities, that we have to 'earn' our way to Heaven. This is a heresy: for we are totally dependant on the grace of God for salvation. As a result we do two things: we do all we can to open ourselves up to the action of the Holy Spirit in our lives and respond to God's grace through our good works; and we trust that God will look after us always, for God is the ground of our being!

Gospel Reflection

Trusting in God is a constant theme in the Scriptures. And today's Liturgy of the Word for the 8th Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year A) revisits this essential aspect of Faith.

The short quotation from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah utilises the magnificent image of a mother's care for her child to illustrate how God will never abandon His own, for, even if a mother does 'forget her baby at the breast', the Lord will never forget those whom He created. So, no matter what happens to us in life, God will not abandon us. At times it may appear that we are adrift on the stormy waters of life, but everything will turn out for the good of those who continue to Trust in God.

And St. Paul reminds the Corinthians (and us) that we are stewards of the mysteries of God, and, as Stewards, we need to be found worthy of God's Trust. This means that every one of us who call ourselves Christian must be a light shining in the darkness of the world, so that those who look at us can see the face of Christ gazing back at them. Trust works both ways: we trust in God's goodness towards us, but we need to be trustworthy stewards of the Faith entrusted to us.

And Jesus declares that we need to be like the birds of heaven or the flowers in the field: totally dependant on God's grace, which will never let us down. "Seek first the Kingdom.." speaks to us of the invitation of the Lord to put all our faith and trust in the one who looks after His Creation at all times. Through his utilisation of simple Galilean pastoral imagery, Jesus declares that God loves His creatures so much, how much more will God love his own children (us)?!

So, what does this message of the need to trust God in all things and at all times mean for us - right here and now?

Well, we know the answer: we must continue to make certain that our priorities are in the right order: God first, all else second.

We know we are called to 'seek first the Kingdom', but we fail to do so, preferring the rather Pelagian approach to spiritual life, wherein all grace and benefit is up to us, that gifts come from our meritorious activities, that we have to 'earn' our way to Heaven. This is a heresy: for we are totally dependant on the grace of God for salvation. As a result we do two things: we do all we can to open ourselves up to the action of the Holy Spirit in our lives and respond to God's grace through our good works; and we trust that God will look after us always, for God is the ground of our being; indeed, the Creator keeps the whole universe in existence through His own Will.

In this coming week let's reflect on the need we all have to trust in God always, no matter what!

Entrance Antiphon

The Lord became my protector. He brought me out to a place of freedom; he saved me because he delighted in me.

First Reading

Isaiah 49:14-15

Even these may forget, says the Lord God, yet I will not forget you.

Zion was saying, The Lord has abandoned me, the Lord has forgotten me. Does a woman forget her baby at the breast, or fail to cherish the son of her womb?

Yet even if these forget,

I will never forget you.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 61:2-3, 6-9

R. Rest in God alone, my soul.

In God alone is my soul at rest; my help comes from him. He alone is my rock, my stronghold, my fortress: I stand firm. R.

In God alone be at rest, my soul; for my hope comes from him. He alone is my rock, my stronghold, my fortress: I stand firm. R.

In God is my safety and glory, the rock of my strength. Take refuge in God all you people. Trust him at all times. Pour out your hearts before him. R

Communion Antiphon

I will sing to the Lord who has been bountiful with me, sing psalms to the name of the Lord Most High.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 4:1-5

The Lord will bring light to all that is hidden in darkness.

People must think of us as Christ's servants, stewards entrusted with the mysteries of God. What is expected of stewards is that each one should be found worthy of his trust. Not that it makes the slightest difference to me whether you, or indeed any human tribunal, find me worthy or not. I will not even pass judgement on myself. True, my conscience does not reproach me at all, but that does not prove that I am acquitted: the Lord alone is my judge. There must be no passing of premature judgement. Leave that until the Lord comes: he will light up all that is hidden in the dark and reveal the secret intentions of men's hearts. Then will be the time for each one to have whatever praise he deserves, from God. The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Hebrews 4:12

Alleluia, alleluia!

The word of God is living and active; it probes the thoughts and motives of our heart.

Alleluia!

Gospel
Matthew 6:24-34

Do not worry about tomorrow.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'No one can be the slave to two masters: he will either hate the first and love the second, or treat the first with respect and the second with scorn. You cannot be the slave both of God and of money.

'That is why I am telling you not to worry about your life and what you are to eat, nor about your body and how you are to clothe it. Surely life means more than food, and the body more than clothing! Look at the birds in the sky. They do not sow or reap or gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not worth much more than they are? Can any of you, for all his worrying, add one single cubit to his span of life? And why worry about clothing? Think of the flowers growing in the fields; they never have to work or spin; yet I assure you that not even Solomon in all his regalia was robed like one of these. Now if that is how God clothes the grass in the field which is there today and thrown into the furnace tomorrow, will he not much more look after you, you men of little faith? So do not worry, do not say, "What are we to eat? What are we to drink? How are we to be clothed?" It is the pagans who set their hearts on all these things. Your heavenly Father knows you need them all. Set your hearts on his kingdom first, and on his righteousness, and all these other things will be given you as well. So do not worry about tomorrow: tomorrow, will take care of itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

In the Word of God is the Spirit,
and the Spirit gives LIFE.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father
almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true
God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

At the words that follow, up to and including 'and became man', all bow.

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Why we do what we do...

THE PEOPLE OF GOD

Variety of gifts, variety of service

ORDAINED MINISTRIES - In his First Letter to the Corinthians, St Paul writes about spiritual gifts. He says: Now there are varieties of gifts (charismata), but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone (1Cor 12: 4-6). So it is in and through the members of his Body that Christ himself is still engaged in the work of service.

The key Christian ministries are the ordained ministries (Bishop, Priest and Deacon) but, through Baptism, all the People of God share in the life of Christ and have a responsibility to take part in Christian ministry in some way. There are numerous particular ministries in which the People of God can participate.

BISHOP - The Bishop is a Priest especially ordained to lead the diocese. His role is to teach and care for the spiritual needs of the Priests and people of his diocese.

PRIEST - The Priest is ordained to preach the word and preside over the liturgy and the celebration of the Sacraments. His role is also to care for the pastoral needs of his parish community.

DEACON - The Deacon is ordained to serve the Church. He assists the Bishop or the Priest in the celebration of the Eucharist. He can also preside at the Sacraments of Baptism and Marriage.

THE PEOPLE OF GOD - The term 'People of God' is often used to describe the baptised members of the Church who are not ordained. There is an interrelationship between the ordained and non-ordained ministries because every ministry of the whole Church is a participation in the one priesthood of Christ. The People of God may serve the Church in any number of particular ministries. The Second Vatican Council encouraged their 'full, conscious and active participation': The Church earnestly desires that all the faithful be led to that full, conscious, and active participation in liturgical celebrations called for by the very nature of the liturgy. Such participation ... is their right and duty by reason of their baptism - Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, 1963 n. 14

The baptised People of God are encouraged to participate in the liturgy by means of the responses, acclamations, songs, the postures of prayer and, at the proper times, by an attentive silence. There are some present in the assembly who undertake particular liturgical roles to assist the Priest throughout the celebration of the Mass.

SACRISTANS - The sacristans makes sure that all of the preparations are made for the celebration of the Eucharist. This includes ensuring the altar is dressed, the liturgical vessels, hosts and wine are ready, the Sacramentary and the Lectionary are in place, and any other items required for that particular Mass are ready.

Why we do...(con't)

ALTAR SERVERS - The altar servers help the Priest throughout the liturgy. Anyone who has received their First Holy Communion and is trained can be an altar server. At the beginning of the Mass the altar servers process into the church with the Priest, and they bring religious symbols such as the cross or candles into the sacred space. During the Preparation of the Gifts, the altar servers stand either side of the Priest at the front of the altar to receive the gifts. They then take the gifts and the water used by the Priest to the altar table. At the conclusion of the liturgy the altar servers process out of the church with the Priest.

LITURGICAL MUSICIANS - The liturgical musicians help the people to respond through music and song during the Mass. They lead the assembly at key points in the liturgy such as the Entrance Procession, the Psalm, the Alleluia, the Eucharistic Prayer, and Communion. The liturgical musicians could be those who sing, play instruments, and join with others in a choir. Music is used to help people to participate in the Mass and lift their hearts to God.

READERS/LECTORS - The readers or lectors play an important role in the Liturgy of the Word as they proclaim and share the Word of God with the people gathered. Following the Introductory Rites, the lector moves to the lectern or ambo, and reads from the Lectionary the readings for that Sunday.

EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION

Extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion assist the Priest to prepare and distribute the bread and wine to the people during the Liturgy of the Eucharist. This involves bringing the hosts from the tabernacle to the altar after the Lamb of God is sung or spoken. They stand at the altar with the Priest, pray with the assembly and reverently distribute the bread or wine to the people. The extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion, who are usually adults, have special instruction before they perform this ministry. They also take the Eucharist to believers who are unable to attend Mass due to illness or disability.

USHERS AND GREETERS - The ushers and greeters meet and greet people in a welcoming manner as they arrive at the church. Frequently they hand out hymnals and notices so that people feel welcome and prepared for Mass.

COLLECTORS - The collectors move among the people gathered to collect money for the Church and for those in need.

GIFT BEARERS - The gift bearers bring up the gifts of bread and wine during the Preparation of the Gifts on our behalf. At the sanctuary the Priest receives the gifts and then places them on the altar.
