From the Pastor's desk

Dear sisters & brothers in Christ..

Our readings for this weekend speak to us of God's call. Amos was called to be a prophet to the northern kingdom of Israel, although he was a southerner from the Kingdom of Judah. He was a farmer but God chose him, and he obeyed; he forsook his comfort zone and went north in obedience to God's will.

The disciples were not trained evangelists or prophets, but Jesus chose them to be Apostles. They responded and found themselves proclaiming the Kingdom of God; healing the sick; casting out evil. They, too, left the familiar in obedience to God's will.

Every baptized Christian is empowered by the Holy Spirit to be a faithful follower of the Lord. We need to co-operate with the grace of God and respond with alacrity to the call of the Lord; we need to be obedient to God's will for us!

In the week ahead let's reflect on the call of the Lord for each of us. Let's open our hearts and minds to the Lord's will for us. We are the prophets to our own Age. Let's never fail in this service to God's people!

- Due to necessary maintenance works taking place in our Church this week, there will be NO MASS ON MONDAY and NO ADORATION ON FRIDAY.
- Don't forget the video series on Mary in the Scriptures: Mondays (7.30-9pm) or Saturdays 4-5.30pm) in St Mark's Staff Room.
- Thanks to all who made last Tuesday's Children's Retreat such a successful and uplifting event.

Let's continue to pray for each other.

God bless you all!

Fr John

Entrance Antiphon

As for me, in justice I shall behold your face; I shall be filled with the vision of your glory.

First Reading

Genesis 3:9-15

Go, prophesy to my people.

Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, said to Amos, 'Go away, seer; get back to the land of Judah; earn your bread there, do your prophesying there. We want no more prophesying in Bethel; this is the royal sanctuary, the national temple.' 'I was no prophet, neither did I belong to any of the brotherhoods of prophets.' Amos replied to Amaziah, 'I was a shepherd, and looked after sycamores: but it was the Lord who took me from herding the flock, and the Lord who said, "Go, prophesy to my people Israel."' "

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 84:9-14

R. Lord, show us your mercy and love, and grant us your salvation.

I will hear what the Lord God has to say, a voice that speaks of peace, peace for his people. His help is near for those who fear him and his glory will dwell in our land. R.

Mercy and faithfulness have met; justice and peace have embraced. Faithfulness shall spring from the earth and justice look down from heaven. R.

The Lord will make us prosper and our earth shall yield its fruit. Justice shall march before him and peace shall follow his steps. R.

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 4:13 - 5:1

Before the world was made, he chose us in Christ.

Blessed be God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with all the spiritual blessings of heaven in Christ. Before the world was made, he chose us, chose us in Christ, to be holy and spotless, and to live through love in his presence, determined that we should become his adopted sons, through Jesus Christ for his own kind purposes, to make us praise the glory of his grace, his free gift to us in the Beloved in whom, through his blood, we gain our freedom, the forgiveness of our sins. Such is the richness of the grace which he has showered on us in all wisdom and insight. He has let us know the mystery of his purpose, the hidden plan he so kindly made in Christ from the beginning to act upon when the times had run their course to the end: that he would bring everything together under Christ, as head, everything in the heavens and everything on earth.

And it is in him that we were claimed as God's own, chosen from the beginning, under the predetermined plan of the one who guides all things as he decides by his own will; chosen to be, for his greater glory, the people who would put their hopes in Christ before he came. Now you too, in him, have heard the message of the truth and the good news of your salvation, and have believed it: and you have been stamped with the seal of the Holy Spirit of the Promise, the pledge of our inheritance which brings freedom for those whom God has taken for his own, to make his glory praised.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Communion Antiphon

The sparrow finds a home, and the swallow a nest for her young: by your altars, O Lord of hosts, my King and my God. Blessed are they who dwell in your house, for ever singing your praise.

Gospel Acclamation

cf Ephesians 1:17-18

Alleluia, alleluia!

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our heart that we might see how great is the hope to which we are called. Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 6:7-13

He called the Twelve, and began to send them out.

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out in pairs giving them authority over the unclean spirits. And he instructed them to take nothing for the journey except a staff - no bread, no haversack, no coppers for their purses. They were to wear sandals, but, he added, 'Do not take a spare tunic.' And he said to them, 'If you enter a house anywhere, stay there until you leave the district. And if any place does not welcome you and people refuse to listen to you, as you walk away shake off the dust from under your feet as a sign to them.' So they set off to preach repentance; and they cast out many devils, and anointed many sick people with oil and cured them.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

LITURGY CHANGES

We are about to embark on some major cleaning and renovations in the church. In the second week of the holidays (16-20 July) specialised high-rise access equipment will be installed, which will cause some disruption to our usual liturgies:

Monday 16 July – no access so no Mass or Liturgy of the Word

Tuesday 17 July – 9.00am mass but no access from 9.30. There will be Tuesday evening Novena and Mass

Wednesday 18 July - 9.00am mass but no access from 9.30

Thursday 19 July - 9.00am mass but no access from 9.30

Friday 20 July - 9.00am mass but no access from 9.30, so no Benediction

The total cost is about $20 000. For those interested in the breakdown, the hire of the two access lifts is $7 000. The cost of the following work is $13 000 :

- Repair of broken/missing louvre panes
- Servicing of remote louvre winders
- Tinting of some west-facing windows to reduce the afternoon glare
- Servicing of the fans
- Servicing of the high-rise smoke detectors
- Washing high-rise and all other windows – external and internal
- Cleaning and oiling the sanctuary crucifix
- Cleaning and dusting all high-rise areas
- Replacing light bulbs in front entrance chandelier

Some works totalling $5000 are also planned for the church gardens, apart from the Columbarium:

- Upgrading watering/reticulation system
- Re-landscaping some areas
- Returfing some areas

Paying our debt together

The First Collection – for the diocese. This is used for the support of the Bishop and priests of the Diocese.

The Second Collection – for the parish. This is used to meet our parish running costs of the church and provide for ministry expenses.

PLANNED GIVING PROGRAM

If you would like to be a part of the church's plan giving program, which goes to the second collection, an SJ23rd form is available at the church foyer or contact the parish office.

We would encourage instead of the envelope system to either direct debit or credit card deduction.

Welcome to the community of the Catholic Parish of St John XXIII Glenwood Stanhope Gardens where the love of Christ is shared in so many ways.
