Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time 29 July 2018

From the Pastor's desk

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ

St Paul speaks to us this weekend of our common vocation as Christians:

"Bear with one another charitably, in complete selflessness, gentleness and patience. Do all you can to preserve the unity of the Spirit by the peace that binds you together."

We need to ask ourselves some pertinent questions:

- * How often do we bear with each other in love?
- * Do we truly try to be compassionate, understanding others from their point of view?
- * How selfless are we? How gentle? How patient?

Further to this, are we attempting to foster UNITY in our families, in our community? Or, do we prefer to tell everyone what should be happening as far as we are concerned! So... Are we peacemakers? Are we striving for the peace which will bind us together as one?

Despite our many shortcomings there is never cause for despair! Rather, we are a people who live in HOPE. We hope for conversion - in our own hearts, and in the hearts of others in our world.

As St Paul says: "You were all called into one and the same hope when you were called." Let us, therefore, recommit ourselves to our common baptismal vocation, so that we may continue to grow in our witnessing for Christ and the Gospel in our families, in our community, and in the world at large.

- We welcome Rochelle Wright in our community this weekend after her Baptism during the Vigil Mass. Let's keep Rochelle and Roland in our prayers as they prepare for their marriage next weekend.
- The Luke/Acts course gets underway this Wednesday from 7.30pm in Church. All welcome.
- First Friday this week...Novena Mass at 7.30pm
- First Saturday Mass at 9am will include the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick, and will be followed by Adoration and Benediction.
- Next Sunday evening Mass (6pm) will be our combined Youth Groups Mass. Deacon Jack Green will be preaching at this Mass.
- From this weekend on the First Collection will occur after the Homily. The Second Collection will occur at the offertory. The first collection will be in the offertory procession.

God bless you all! Fr John

Our Parish Mission

The parish of St John XXIII is a faith community with the Eucharist as its heart. Inspired by John XXIII's prophetic opening of the windows of the Church, we welcome the fresh air of the Holy Spirit, inviting every person to share in the responsibility of enriching the life and faith of our community by sharing their gifts and talents."

Entrance Antiphon

God is in his holy place, God who unites those who dwell in his house; he himself gives might and strength to his people.

First Reading

2 Kings 4:42-44

They will eat and have some left over.

A man came from Baal-shalishah, bringing Elisha, the man of God, bread from the first-fruits, twenty barley loaves and fresh grain in the ear. 'Give it to the people to eat,' Elisha said. But his servant replied, 'How can I serve this to a hundred men?' 'Give it to the people to eat' he insisted for the Lord says this, "They will eat and have some over." He served them; they ate and had some over, as the Lord had said.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 144:10-11, 15-18

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

All your creatures shall thank you, O Lord, and your friends shall repeat their blessing. They shall speak of the glory of your reign and declare your might, O God. R.

The eyes of all creatures look to you and you give them their food in due time. You open wide your hand, grant the desires of all who live. R.

The Lord is just in all his ways and loving in all his deeds. He is close to all who call him, who call on him from their hearts. R.

Second Reading

Ephesians 4:1-6

There is one body, one Lord, one faith, one baptism.

I, the prisoner in the Lord, implore you to lead a life worthy of your vocation. Bear with one another charitably, in complete selflessness, gentleness and patience. Do all you can to preserve the unity of the Spirit by the peace that binds you together. There is one Body, one Spirit, just as you were all called into one and the same hope when you were called. There is one Lord, one faith, one baptism, and one God who is Father of all, through all and within all.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Luke 7:16

Alleluia, alleluia!

A great prophet has appeared among us; God has visited his people. Alleluia!

Gospel

John 6:1-15

He distributed to those who were seated as much as they wanted.

Jesus went off to the other side of the Sea of Galilee - or of Tiberias - and a large crowd followed him, impressed by the signs he gave by curing the sick. Jesus climbed the hillside, and sat down there with his disciples. It was shortly before the Jewish feast of Passover.

Looking up, Jesus saw the crowds approaching and said to Philip, 'Where can we buy some bread for these people to eat?' He only said this to test Philip; he himself knew exactly what he was going to do. Philip answered, 'Two hundred denarii would only buy enough to give them a small piece each.' One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said, 'There is a small boy here with five barley loaves and two fish; but what is that between so many?' Jesus said to them, 'Make the people sit down.' There was plenty of grass there, and as many as five thousand men sat down. Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks and gave them out to all who were sitting ready; he then did the same with the fish, giving out as much as was wanted. When they had eaten enough he said to the disciples, 'Pick up the pieces left over, so that nothing gets wasted.' So they picked them up, and filled twelve hampers with scraps left over from the meal of five barley loaves. The people, seeing this sign that he had given, said, 'This really is the prophet who is to come into the world.' Jesus, who could see they were about to come and take him by force and make him king, escaped back to the hills by himself.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and never forget all his benefits.

SUGGESTION BOX RESPONSES

Our suggestion box in the foyer gathers a number of comments and suggestions from parishioners. As most are anonymous we aren't able to respond directly, so in this new column we will endeavour to address many of those contributions.

Q. The church looks nice and clean - good work. Will the other curtains be replaced?

A. Thank you. The ten-year cleaning was very expensive - the important 2nd collection goes towards the upkeep of our church. The curtains will be replaced soon.

Paying our debt together

The First Collection – for the diocese. This is used for the support of the Bishop and priests of the Diocese.

The Second Collection – for the parish. This is used to meet our parish running costs of the church and provide for ministry expenses.

PLANNED GIVING PROGRAM

If you would like to be a part of the church's plan giving program, which goes to the second collection, an SJ23rd form is available at the church foyer or contact the parish office.

We would encourage instead of the envelope system to either direct debit or credit card deduction.

Welcome to the community of the Catholic Parish of St John XXIII Glenwood Stanhope Gardens where the love of Christ is shining in so many ways.

SUGGESTION BOX

We welcome your comments and constructive suggestions.
