Twenty First Sunday in Ordinary Time 26 August 2018

From the Pastor's desk

Today's Liturgy of the Word encourages all of us to reflect on our relationship with Father. It invites us to choose to be faithful and faith-filled followers of Jesus Christ. The Word of God expects us to renew our Covenant Commitment with God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

It would be very beneficial if this process of

- reflection on our relationship with Father,
- our choice FOR the Lord and his Gospel,
- and the renewal of our Baptismal Covenant with our Trinitarian God became a regular part of our daily prayer.

Today during this Eucharistic Celebration,

- let's imitate the People of Israel at Shechem,
- let's act in a way similar to the Apostles at Capernaum,
- let's make a change from a sometimes lukewarm and apathetic faith commitment to one that is on fire with Love for God and God's People.

Let's say with St. Peter:

"Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life".

1. Please pray for the repose of the soul of Sam Cauchi (12 years old) who will be buried from our Church on Wednesday at 11am. Let's keep his parents, brother and family in our prayers as well.
2. RCIA Enquiry night is this coming Thursday in the Parish Conference Room at 7.30pm.
3. The PPC Meeting will be held in the Presbytery at 7.30pm as the St Vincent de Paul will be meeting in the Church Kitchen at the same time.
4. First Saturday Mass at 9am will include the Anointing of the Sick, followed by Adoration and Benediction.

God Bless you all.

Fr John

Entrance Antiphon

Turn your ear, O Lord, and answer me; save the servant who trusts in you, my God. Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I cry to you all the day long.

First Reading

Joshua 24:1-2.15-18

We will serve the Lord God, because he is our God.

Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel together at Shechem; then he called the elders, leaders, judges and scribes of Israel, and they presented themselves before God. Then Joshua said to all the people: 'If you will not serve the Lord, choose today whom you wish to serve, whether the gods that your ancestors served beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are now living. As for me and my House, we will serve the Lord.'

The people answered, 'We have no intention of deserting the Lord our God who brought us and our ancestors out of the land of Egypt, the house of slavery, who worked those great wonders before our eyes and preserved us all along the way we travelled and among all the peoples through whom we journeyed. We too will serve the Lord, for he is our God.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 33:2-3, 16-23

R. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

I will bless the Lord at all times, his praise always on my lips; in the Lord my soul shall make its boast. The humble shall hear and be glad. R.

The Lord turns his face against the wicked to destroy their remembrance from the earth. The Lord turns his eyes to the just and his ears to their appeal. R.

They call and the Lord hears and rescues them in all their distress. The Lord is close to the broken-hearted; those whose spirit is crushed he will save. R.

Many are the trials of the just man but from them all the Lord will rescue him. He will keep guard over all his bones, not one of his bones shall be broken. R.

Evil brings death to the wicked; those who hate the good are doomed. The Lord ransoms the souls of his servants. Those who hide in him shall not be condemned. R.

Second Reading

Ephesians 5:21-32

This is the great mystery, it applies to Christ and the Church.

Give way to one another in obedience to Christ. Wives should regard their husbands as they regard the Lord, since as Christ is head of the Church and saves the whole body, so is a husband the head of his wife; and as the Church submits to Christ, so should wives submit to their husbands, in everything. Husbands should love their wives just as Christ loved the Church and sacrificed himself for her to make her holy. He made her clean by washing her in water with a form of words, so that when he took her to himself she would be glorious, with no speck or wrinkle or anything like that, but holy and faultless. In the same way, husbands must love their wives as they love their own bodies; for a man to love his wife is for him to love himself. A man never hates his own body, but he feeds it and looks after it; and that is the way Christ treats the Church, because it is his body - and we are its living parts. For this reason, a man must leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two will become one body. This mystery has many implications; but I am saying it applies to Christ and the Church.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

cf John 6:63, 68

Alleluia, alleluia! Your words, Lord, are spirit and life: you have the words of everlasting life. Alleluia!

Gospel

John 6:60-69

Lord, whom shall we go to? You have the words of everlasting life.

After hearing his doctrine many of the followers of Jesus said, 'This is intolerable language. How could anyone accept it?' Jesus was aware that his followers were complaining about it and said, 'Does this upset you? What if you should see the Son of Man ascend to where he was before?

'It is the spirit that gives life, the flesh has nothing to offer. The words I have spoken to you are spirit and they are life.

'But there are some of you who do not believe.' For Jesus knew from the outset those who did not believe, and who it was that would betray him. He went on, 'This is why I told you that no one could come to me unless the Father allows him.' After this, many of his disciples left him and stopped going with him.

Then Jesus said to the Twelve, 'What about you, do you want to go away too?' Simon Peter answered, 'Lord, who shall we go to? You have the message of eternal life, and we believe; we know that you are the Holy One of God.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

The earth is replete with the fruits of your work, O Lord; you bring forth bread from the earth and wine to cheer the heart.

SUGGESTION BOX

We welcome your comments and constructive suggestions.

PARISH NEWS

COLUMBARIUM UPDATE

Preliminary work on the Garden of Remembrance and columbarium has commenced. We will be at all masses this weekend to receive payments from those who have reserved niches.

We are also asking anyone who has not taken up their free plant allocation from Blacktown Council to sign the form at the doors of the church. This will enable us to take up your allocation.

See also Page 6 for the many opportunities to contribute to the Garden of Remembrance and our parish generally.

DISABLED PARKING

We have designated two additional disabled parking bays in the small top carpark. They have been designated specifically for Saturday and Sunday so general parking is still permissible during the week. Please be considerate when parking on the weekends.

WE GIVE THANKS TO.....

Colin for the new disabled parking signs and volunteers who painted the bays.

Anh and his team for the wooden security screen at the side entrance and the excavation for the Garden of Remembrance hedge.

Plenary Council 2020

Pope Francis has approved the Australian Bishops' decision to hold a Plenary Council in Australia in 2020 and 2021. It is a significant moment for the Church in Australia to make decisions about the future. To prepare the agenda for the Plenary Council, all of God's people are invited to reflect on the question: "What do you think God is asking of us in Australia at this time?" Find out more about the Plenary Council 2020 at the new website, now online:

www.plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au

SUGGESTION BOX RESPONSES

Our suggestion box in the foyer gathers a number of comments and suggestions from parishioners. As most are anonymous we aren't able to respond directly, so in this new column we will endeavour to address many of those contributions.

Q. I have a query about genuflecting/bowing in the church. I personally show respect to the tabernacle which contains the consecrated hosts. In our church the tabernacle is in a chapel which happens to be partly visible from most of the body of the church proper, except where it is blocked by the ambo. Is there any chance that the tabernacle could be a bit higher? Is my thinking correct?

A. Once mass begins our focus is no longer the tabernacle but the altar. Except for the minister who gets the Blessed Sacrament from the tabernacle for Communion and returns it, everyone else bows to the altar (not the tabernacle). Thus, the chapel of reservation is meant to be a place of prayer, separate from the church and it would thus be liturgically incorrect to raise the tabernacle.

Changes to our collection

First Collection will occur after the Homily and which will be brought to the altar during the offertory procession. The Second Collection will occur after the offertory and will be brought forward during the Holy, Holy.

Paying our debt together

The First Collection – for the diocese. This is used for the support of the Bishop and priests of the Diocese.

The Second Collection – for the parish. This is used to meet our parish running costs of the church and provide for ministry expenses.

PLANNED GIVING PROGRAM

If you would like to be a part of the church's plan giving program, which goes to the second collection, an SJ23rd form is available at the church foyer or contact the parish office.

We would encourage instead of the envelope system to either direct debit or credit card deduction.
