Twenty Second Sunday in Ordinary Time 2 September 2018

From the Pastor's desk

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ

The Church's traditions are the means that enable us to come to the goal of salvation and eternal life. They are not ends in themselves.

Whenever the Church fails to strive for this end, this vision (which is her task as proclaimer of the Kingdom), then the traditions and rules that cause such failure need to be re-examined from the perspective of the heart.

That is, what is the real (deeper) purpose of the tradition, the rule? Does its present manifestation actually capture the truth that it's trying to express?

Or, is a new, contemporary, formulation needed so that the goal of the Church's mission can be achieved in an ever-changing world?

Ultimately, our Christian faith is always about the heart, the spirit. It is NOT about laws, rules, regulations for their own sake. These laws, rules, regulations are merely the means to the End. They aid us in achieving our purpose, our goal, as church - which is to come to a closer relationship with God and to fulfil our baptismal mission of evangelisation.

Remember the words of James today:

"Pure unspoilt religion, in the eyes of God our Father is this: coming to the help of orphans and widows when they need it".

1. We continue to pray for the children who will be confirmed this week on Wednesday and Thursday evening at 7.30pm.
2. First Friday this week: Novena Mass at 7.30pm.

And a HAPPY FATHER'S DAY to all!

God's blessings always!

Fr John

Entrance Antiphon

Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I cry to you all the day long. O Lord, you are good and forgiving, full of mercy to all who call to you

First Reading

Deuteronomy 4:1-2, 6-8

You may add nothing to the word which I speak to you - keep the commands of the Lord.

Moses said to the people: 'Now, Israel, take notice of the laws and customs that I teach you today, and observe them, that you may have life and may enter and take possession of the land that the Lord the God of your fathers is giving you. You must add nothing to what I command you, and take nothing from it, but keep the commandments of the Lord your God just as I lay them down for you. Keep them, observe them, and they will demonstrate to the peoples your wisdom and understanding. When they come to know of all these laws they will exclaim, "No other people is as wise and prudent as this great nation." And indeed, what great nation is there that has its gods so near as the Lord our God that has laws and customs to match this whole Law that I put before you today?'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 14:2-5

R. The just will live in the presence of the Lord.

Lord, who shall dwell on your holy mountain? He who walks without fault; he who acts with justice and speaks the truth from his heart. R.

He who does no wrong to his brother, who casts no slur on his neighbour, who holds the godless in disdain, but honours those who fear the Lord. R.

He who keeps his pledge, come what may; who takes no interest on a loan and accepts no bribes against the innocent. Such a man will stand firm for ever. R.

Second Reading

James 1:17-18, 21-22, 27

Be doers of the word.

It is all that is good, everything that is perfect, which is given us from above; it comes down from the Father of all light; with him there is no such thing as alteration, no shadow of a change. By his own choice he made us his children by the message of the truth so that we should be a sort of first-fruits of all that he had created.

Accept and submit to the word which has been planted in you and can save your souls. But you must do what the word tells you, and not just listen to it and deceive yourselves.

Pure, unspoilt religion, in the eyes of God our Father is this: coming to the help of orphans and widows when they need it, and keeping oneself uncontaminated by the world.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

James 1:18

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Father gave us birth by his message of truth, that we might be as the first fruit of his creation Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

You forget the commandments of God and hold on to human tradition.

The Pharisees and some of the scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered round Jesus, and they noticed that some of his disciples were eating with unclean hands, that is, without washing them. For the Pharisees, and the Jews in general, follow the tradition of the elders and never eat without washing their arms as far as the elbow; and on returning from the market place they never eat without first sprinkling themselves. There are also many other observances which have been handed down to them concerning the washing of cups and pots and bronze dishes. So these Pharisees and scribes asked him, 'Why do your disciples not respect the tradition of the elders but eat their food with unclean hands?' He answered, 'It was of you hypocrites that Isaiah so rightly prophesied in this passage of scripture:

This people honours me only with lip-service, while their hearts are far from me. The worship they offer me is worthless, the doctrines they teach are only human regulations. You put aside the commandment of God to cling to human traditions.

He called the people to him again and said, 'Listen to me, all of you, and understand. Nothing that goes into a man from outside can make him unclean; it is the things that come out of a man that make him unclean. For it is from within, from men's hearts, that evil intentions emerge: fornication, theft, murder, adultery, avarice, malice, deceit, indecency, envy, slander, pride, folly. All these things come from within and make a man unclean.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

How great is the goodness, Lord, that you keep for those who fear you.

Nothing outside a person can defile them.....

....it is what comes out of a person

PARISH NEWS

DISABLED PARKING

We have designated two additional disabled parking bays in the small top carpark. They have been designated specifically for Saturday and Sunday so general parking is still permissible during the week. Please be considerate when parking on the weekends.

WE GIVE THANKS TO.....

everyone who endeavoured to wear their national costumes in commemoration of Migrant Sunday. Apologies for cancelling the food fiesta event due to the inclement weather we're having, albeit we do welcome the rain as it is badly needed especially for our farmers.

... to Carmina for sewing the beautiful new collection bags. Now we just need to fill them.

... to everyone who signed over their plant allocation from Blacktown Council – we are able to get 400 plants! We won't take them all now but will spread our planting over the year.

CRL – Family Night – Trivia Night

We are having a night of curiosity.

Come join us for a trivia night where we will be testing you on facts from the bible to the facts of the world to facts of sport and list goes on.

Entry is free and we promise a night of good old fashioned family fun.

Time – 7.30 pm onwards

Where – St Marks College Hall – Stanhope Gardens

Light Supper will be provided

SUGGESTION BOX RESPONSES

Our suggestion box in the foyer gathers a number of comments and suggestions from parishioners. As most are anonymous we aren't able to respond directly, so in this new column we will endeavour to address many of those contributions.

Q. During Benediction, the list of petitions should not be read aloud. Instead there should be a silent pause at that time to allow everyone to recall their own petitions. After all these petitions are meant for the Lord, they make no sense to the congregation and are best reflected upon personally and individually, while still silently praying for the petitions of others in the congregation.

A. This suggestion has much merit, although it would need some discussion with those who attend the Novena Masses. Since the NSW Privacy Act states that we cannot mention that someone is sick without their permission or the permission of their next-of-kin, perhaps we should restrict the listing of names to those who have died?

Changes to our collection

First Collection will occur after the Homily and which will be brought to the altar during the offertory procession. The Second Collection will occur after the offertory and will be brought forward during the Holy, Holy.

Paying our debt together

The First Collection – for the diocese. This is used for the support of the Bishop and priests of the Diocese.

The Second Collection – for the parish. This is used to meet our parish running costs of the church and provide for ministry expenses.

PLANNED GIVING PROGRAM

If you would like to be a part of the church's plan giving program, which goes to the second collection, an SJ23rd form is available at the church foyer or contact the parish office.

We would encourage instead of the envelope system to either direct debit or credit card deduction.

FAITH FORMATION

ST VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

Vinnies, Stanhope Gardens Conference is starting a "Non-perishable Food Drive" to help feed the needy in the community. When we get calls for assistance with food, we help out with a bag of groceries and a food voucher to buy fresh meat etc. At the moment, our cupboard is looking bare for some items and we are asking for help. We believe that if every family was to contribute one item of non-perishable food a month our cupboard would never go bare. At present, we need long life milk, cereal, pasta sauce, tinned vegetables, tinned meat and tinned fish. We will have a labelled plastic bin in the church foyer for your donations. We will advise you every month as to what food item is running low. Thank you very much for all the help you have given our Vinnies Conference so far. God bless you all.
