Message from Father John

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ

Doubt is an integral part of humanity's approach to many things in life. When we first hear of something new, especially something that appears to be out of the ordinary, one of the first responses of human beings is to doubt the veracity of the claim(s) presented.

And this is the response of Thomas in today's Gospel. The other disciples declare that Jesus is alive! Thomas cannot get his head around this, and declares he won't accept this unless he can see and touch the wounds of Christ. This is the classic scientific agnosticism that is endemic in all humanity: we need to see and touch in order to verify the truth of any assertion.

Yet the spiritual often does not lend itself to such "proof". Indeed, the spiritual challenges the need for such experiential verification. Rather, the spiritual demands of us one thing that can never be demonstrated: faith.

Thomas was blessed with seeing, hearing, touching, the Risen Lord. But we are not and so, for us, the final beatitude in John's Gospel speaks to us all: "Blessed are those who keep have not seen and yet believe."

As we continue in this time of social distancing and virtual lockdown, we need to believe the future will be better. As we struggle with our faith practice and prayers during these tough times, let's reflect hard and long on the words of the Risen Lord spoken to Thomas for our benefit— for we are indeed blessed; despite the absence of demonstrable proof, we still believe that Christ is Risen and Alive!

My dear friends,

1. Please check our webpage and parish Facebook page for any and all updates.
2. We are continuing to publish a list of those who are sick; and also those who have died. Please keep all these in your prayers.
3. We will continue to live stream our Sunday Mass every week at 10.30am.

And most of all, let's continue faithful to the Lord in thought, word, and deed during the days, weeks, and months ahead!

God Bless you

Fr John

FAITH FORMATION

⇒ Our Lady of Perpetual Help

Oh Mother of Perpetual Help, grant that I may ever invoke your powerful name, the protection of the living and the salvation of the dying. Purest Mary, let your name henceforth be ever on my lips. Delay not, Blessed Lady, to rescue me whenever I call on you. In my temptations, in my needs, I will never cease to call on you, ever repeating your sacred name, Mary, Mary. What a consolation, what sweetness, what confidence fills my soul when I utter your sacred name or even only think of you! I thank the Lord for having given you so sweet, so powerful, so lovely a name. But I will not be content with merely uttering your name. Let my love for you prompt me ever to hail you Mother of Perpetual Help. Mother of Perpetual Help, pray for me and grant me the favor I confidently ask of you. (Then say three Hail Marys).

"A family that prays together, stays together - Fr Patrick Peyton"

We continue to ask for host families to pray the rosary at home and request our Blessed Mother's intercessions.

With the current Covid19 crisis, families who are rostered are requested to communicate between families on the transfer of the Blessed Statue. Families on the roster, if unable to pick up please don't hesitate to contact Bart or Melva.

We are in urgent need for volunteers to assist in the following ministries in our Parish:

⇒ Children's liturgical

We have only a few facilitators able to take these Sunday sessions. If you are interested and able to assist in facilitating these 15-20mins sessions during the 1st Mass, please contact Helen Zammit on 8883 598.

⇒ Sacrament of Baptism facilitators

We require assistance at the children's baptismal rites during Sundays 12pm. For interested parties please contact Krizzia Samonte on krizzia.samonte@gmail.com or the Parish Office.

⇒ SRE Teachers

If you could spare 30 minutes on weekdays to spread God's word teaching the scriptures to children, we need you. We currently have 4 primary schools and a high school in our parish where we hold scripture classes during school hours for 30 minutes during Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. For more information contact ASOK on 020265 or Renuka 0414 795814. Training and support will be provided.

Paying our debt together

First Collection – for the diocese. This is used for the support of priests and deacons of the Diocese.

Second Collection – for the parish. This is used to meet our parish running costs of the church and provide for ministry expenses; it is also needed to pay off our church mortgage. A Planned giving Program is in place to help us with the running cost of the church.

PLANNED GIVING PROGRAM If you would like to be a part of the church's plan giving program, which goes to the second collection, an SJ23rd form is available at the church foyer or contact the parish office. The Parish Finance Committee encourages all parishioners to register for direct debit or credit card deductions or use our Tap&Go machines instead of the envelop system. This will be very helpful for Budgeting.

In Memoriam

⇒ COLUMBARIUM

We have opened this up to parishioners from other parishes; so there is an opportunity for them to have their ashes placed in church grounds, beside a church where family and friends may conveniently visit after mass. There are still opportunities to sponsor items for the garden e.g. plants and other landscaping costs.

⇒ MEMORIAL WALL PLAQUES

The wall in front of the church is devoted to the memory of our deceased family and friends, especially if they are buried overseas. The plaques cost $250.00.

Please email for any queries to businessmanager@john23rd.org.au

Parish Notices

⇒ New Mass and church building guidelines

The Diocese of Parramatta issued new guidelines to clergy and parishes based on the new government directives around social and religious space, that came into effect at midday Monday, 23 March 2020. These new Diocesan guidelines have also been made available to the general public at <https://parracatholic.org/covid19/>

Church buildings are closed and Masses (both indoors and outdoors) are to cease. Funerals and weddings are allowed to take place with strict social distancing required by the government. Only emergency baptisms will continue at this point, with each priest/deacon to use their own discretion on how to handle these as long as social distancing rules are observed.

⇒ Helping our Parish

A practical impact of this pandemic is the financial impact to the Parish. Without the collections, we are looking into a very difficult time for the rest of the year. This is an impact that is going to be felt by many of you.

If you would like to continue to support the Parish, we will encourage you to please make your donations online. There will be forms available in the foyer if you would like to switch to this way of supporting the parish financially. Our Tap and Go is also available at $5 or $10.

If you have Planned Giving envelopes, please place those in the mailbox outside the sacristy door.

⇒ Sunday Mass streamed live

We will stream live 10:30am every Sunday. Join us, but remember, even if this is a virtual mass, it should be treated with reverence. No food or drinks during the live stream.

How do we prepare ourselves for the live stream:

- Before it starts read the Mass readings (can be access through our website)
- It would be good if the whole family in the house joins together in the Mass.
- Have a few moments to think what to thank the Lord for and what to offer him during this time.
- Stay in reverent gesture throughout the Mass, standing up or sitting down. Join in the prayers, responses and singing (if present). Remember that you are praying with many other fellow parishioners and more.
- At the time of Communion, make a spiritual communion
(Act of Spiritual Communion).
*My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen*
- At the end of the Mass, take a moment of silence, read scriptural readings again and reflect how you can live God's Word that day.

Entrance Antiphon

1 Pt 2:2

Like newborn infants, you must long for the pure, spiritual milk, that in him you may grow to salvation, alleluia.

First Reading

Acts 10:34, 37-43

The faithful lived together and owned everything in common.

The whole community remained faithful to the teaching of the apostles, to the brotherhood, to the breaking of bread and to the prayers.

The many miracles and signs worked through the apostles made a deep impression on everyone.

The faithful all lived together and owned everything in common; they sold their goods and possessions and shared out the proceeds among themselves according to what each one needed.

They went as a body to the Temple every day but met in their houses for the breaking of bread; they shared their food gladly and generously; they praised God and were looked up to by everyone. Day by day the Lord added to their community those destined to be saved.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 117:24, 13-15, 22-24, R. v.1

(R.) Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

Let the sons of Israel say: 'His love has no end.' Let the sons of Aaron say: 'His love has no end.' Let those who fear the Lord say: 'His love has no end.' (R.)

I was thrust, thrust down and falling but the Lord was my helper. The Lord is my strength and my song; he was my saviour. There are shouts of joy and victory in the tents of the just. (R.)

The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone. This is the work of the Lord, a marvel in our eyes. This day was made by the Lord; we rejoice and are glad. (R.)

Second Reading

1 Pt 1:3-9

He has given us a new birth as his children, by raising Jesus Christ from the dead.

Blessed be God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who in his great mercy has given us a new birth as his sons, by raising Jesus Christ from the dead, so that we have a sure hope and the promise of an inheritance that can never be spoilt or soiled and never fade away, because it is being kept for you in the heavens. Through your faith, God's power will guard you until the salvation which has been prepared is revealed at the end of time. This is a cause of great joy for you, even though you may for a short time have to bear being plagued by all sorts of trials; so that, when Jesus Christ is revealed, your faith will have been tested and proved like gold – only it is more precious than gold, which is corruptible even though it bears testing by fire – and then you will have praise and glory and honour. You did not see him, yet you love him; and still without seeing him, you are already filled with a joy so glorious that it cannot be described, because you believe; and you are sure of the end to which your faith looks forward, that is, the salvation of your souls.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Jn 20:29

Alleluia, alleluia!

You believe in me, Thomas, because you have seen me; happy those who have not seen me, but still believe! Alleluia!

Gospel

Jn 20:19-31

After eight days Jesus came in and stood among them.

In the evening of that same day, the first day of the week, the doors were closed in the room where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews. Jesus came and stood among them. He said to them, 'Peace be with you,' and showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were filled with joy when they saw the Lord, and he said to them again, 'Peace be with you.'

'As the Father sent me, so am I sending you.'

After saying this he breathed on them and said:

'Receive the Holy Spirit. For those whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven; for those whose sins you retain, they are retained.'

Thomas, called the Twin, who was one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. When the disciples said, 'We have seen the Lord', he answered, 'Unless I see the holes that the nails made in his hands and can put my finger into the holes they made, and unless I can put my hand into his side, I refuse to believe.' Eight days later the disciples were in the house again and Thomas was with them. The doors were closed, but Jesus came in and stood among them. 'Peace be with you' he said. Then he spoke to Thomas, 'Put your finger here; look, here are my hands. Give me your hand; put it into my side. Doubt no longer but believe.' Thomas replied, 'My Lord and my God!' Jesus said to him:

'You believe because you can see me. Happy are those who have not seen and yet believe.'

There were many other signs that Jesus worked and the disciples saw, but they are not recorded in this book. These are recorded so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing this you may have life through his name.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Cf. Jn 20:27

Bring your hand and feel the place of the nails, and do not be unbelieving but believing, alleluia.

Message from Bishop Vincent Long

Easter Offerings

FOR GOD SO LOVED THE WORLD

Ephesians 5:1-2

Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love, as Christ loved us and gave Himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

Your gift supports our parish to share Christ's message of love and salvation with all

GIVE TO YOUR PARISH

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Every year, as a people of faith, we gather at parishes during Holy Week and celebrate God's steadfast, unconditional and grace-filled love for us.

This Easter, during the corona virus pandemic, I hope that you, your family and friends, are as safe and healthy as possible.

Although socially isolated, we can still rejoice together from home as one Church, as the One Body of Christ, knowing that we are helping to save and protect lives.

Let us rejoice and give thanks to God for all that He has done for us in Jesus . . . for our salvation and all the lives that He has transformed through His saving grace.

Let us rejoice in all the good work in our community that God accomplishes through us together within our parish families and as individuals.

Our parishes rely on the generosity of our faith community to sustain our liturgical, sacramental, pastoral and charitable ministries and we are ever grateful for your faithful support.

The COVID-19 pandemic is having an unimaginable impact on our parishes and their ability to raise funds to support their ministries, pastoral care programs and charitable works.

If you can manage to do so, would you please consider an Easter Offering gift towards the evangelical work of your local parish as a way to joyfully respond to God's gift of grace to us in Jesus Christ?

Any gift, whatever you can give, will nurture the spiritual vitality of our parishes and will ensure that we can continue to provide Christian pastoral care that brings hope and joy to our community.

The spirit of giving and sharing our blessings is what's important.

If you're able to consider a gift of sustained support for your parish through planned giving, the best way is through recurring monthly online donations. It's safe and easy; and your automatic contributions will ensure that your spiritual decision to support your parish and faith family remains an ongoing priority.

More than ever, our Church is needed to bring love, hope, care and Christ's message of salvation to our community.

To support your parish with a one-off or recurring donation, please give via the form below, or contact your parish direct.

Every gift bears witness to God's love for us and deepens our own sense of living gratitude for the grace that He has poured out into each of our hearts and lives.

May God continue to bless you this Easter and always and keep you safe and in good health.

⇒ Cardinal Pell and the Victorian Criminal Justice System

Cardinal George Pell has been acquitted of all charges of child sexual abuse by Australia's highest court – the High Court of Australia. In criminal cases, they usually sit only a bench of five judges. In Pell's case, the full bench of seven sat. They knew the world was watching. They often write separate opinions. But in the case of Cardinal Pell they all put their name to one judgment. They unanimously upheld his appeal and in almost record time.
