Reflection

In today's gospel episode, Matthew 14:13-21, having heard of the death of John the Baptist, Jesus withdraws to a lonely place by himself – but the Jerusalem Bible used in our current Lectionary renders that final element as “where they could be by themselves”, indicating his disciples. The crowds anticipate his movement and reach the place ahead of him, but Jesus is moved to compassion on seeing them. Earlier, in 9:36, he had similarly been moved to compassion, the crowd seeming to him to be “harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd”, prompting him to commission the twelve and send them out as labourers in the harvest; teaching of the twelve in training for the mission is attached, and it is followed by the first mention of John the Baptist being in prison (11:2). This time, following the news of John's death and being moved to compassion again by sight of the crowd, Jesus heals their sick. As evening falls the disciples appear, suggesting he dismiss the crowds to find their own food; there then unfolds the first of Matthew's two accounts of feeding multitudes, usually referred to as the multiplication of loaves and fishes. Jesus being moved to compassion also precedes the second account of a feeding (15:32-39). These narrative links enable the formation of a single, integrated account: Jesus is moved to compassion, then heals, teaches and feeds. Ancient authors and preachers from at least the time of Origen noticed this. Origen interprets the feeding accounts as primarily being about Jesus teaching, opening the Scriptures (the Law) in a new and satisfying way; to be taught by Jesus is to be fed on the Word of God (a point John's gospel makes emphatically).

Ancient homilists dealing with these accounts also stressed the hands, observing that Jesus breaks the loaves but gives them to the disciples to give to the crowds, for how could one alone distribute to so many? Those preachers deduced that the bread multiplied in the disciples' hands (including the hands of Judas Iscariot!). In Origen's interpretation, the disciples were being trained and commissioned by Jesus to teach others. This influenced a particular theology of ministry: the teaching or feeding movement begins with Jesus, unfolds in the hands of the apostles, and continues through the ordained ministry both in teaching or preaching and in presiding at the Eucharist.

Entrance Antiphon

O God, come to my assistance; O Lord, make haste to help me! You are my rescuer, my help; O Lord, do not delay.

First Reading

Isaiah 55:1-3

Hasten and eat.

Thus says the Lord:

Oh, come to the water all you who are thirsty; though you have no money, come! Buy corn without money, and eat, and, at no cost, wine and milk. Why spend money on what is not bread, your wages on what fails to satisfy? Listen, listen to me and you will have good things to eat and rich food to enjoy. Pay attention, come to me; listen, and your soul will live. With you I will make an everlasting covenant out of the favours promised to David.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 144:8-9, 15-18

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us: he answers all our needs.

The Lord is kind and full of compassion, slow to anger, abounding in love. How good is the Lord to all, compassionate to all his creatures. R.

The eyes of all creatures look to you and you give them their food in due time. You open wide your hand, grant the desires of all who live. R.

The Lord is just in all his ways and loving in all his deeds. He is close to all who call him, call on him from their hearts. R.

Second Reading

Romans 8:35, 37-39

No creature can separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ.

Nothing can come between us and the love of Christ, even if we are troubled or worried, or being persecuted, or lacking food or clothes, or being threatened or even attacked. These are the trials through which we triumph, by the power of him who loved us.

For I am certain of this: neither death nor life, no angel, no prince, nothing that exists, nothing still to come, not any power, or height or depth, nor any created thing, can ever come between us and the love of God made visible in Christ Jesus our Lord.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Matthew 4:4

Alleluia, alleluia!

No one lives on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God. Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 14:13-21

They all ate and were satisfied.

When Jesus received the news of John the Baptist's death he withdrew by boat to a lonely place where they could be by themselves. But the people heard of this and, leaving the towns, went after him on foot. So as he stepped ashore he saw a large crowd; and he took pity on them and healed their sick.

When evening came, the disciples went to him and said, 'This is a lonely place, and the time has slipped by; so send the people away, and they can go to the villages to buy themselves some food.' Jesus replied, 'There is no need for them to go: give them something to eat yourselves.' But they answered, 'All we have with us is five loaves and two fish.' 'Bring them here to me,' he said. He gave orders that the people were to sit down on the grass; then he took the five loaves and the two fish, raised his eyes to heaven and said the blessing. And breaking the loaves he handed them to his disciples who gave them to the crowds. They all ate as much as they wanted, and they collected the scraps remaining, twelve baskets full. Those who ate numbered about five thousand men, besides women and children.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

You have given us, O Lord, bread from heaven, endowed with all delights and sweetness in every taste.

FAITH FORMATION

⇒ Our Lady of Perpetual Help

Oh Mother of Perpetual Help, grant that I may ever invoke your powerful name, the protection of the living and the salvation of the dying. Purest Mary, let your name henceforth be ever on my lips. Delay not, Blessed Lady, to rescue me whenever I call on you. In my temptations, in my needs, I will never cease to call on you, ever repeating your sacred name, Mary, Mary. What a consolation, what sweetness, what confidence fills my soul when I utter your sacred name or even only think of you! I thank the Lord for having given you so sweet, so powerful, so lovely a name. But I will not be content with merely uttering your name. Let my love for you prompt me ever to hail you Mother of Perpetual Help. Mother of Perpetual Help, pray for me and grant me the favor I confidently ask of you. (Then say three Hail Marys).

Paying our debt together

First Collection – for the diocese. This is used for the support of priests and deacons of the Diocese.

Second Collection – for the parish. This is used to meet our parish running costs of the church and provide for ministry expenses; it is also needed to pay off our church mortgage. A Planned giving Program is in place to help us with the running cost of the church.

PLANNED GIVING PROGRAM If you would like to be a part of the church's plan giving program, which goes to the second collection, an SJ23rd form is available at the church foyer or contact the parish office. The Parish Finance Committee encourages all parishioners to register for direct debit or credit card deductions or use our Tap&Go machines instead of the envelop system. This will be very helpful for Budgeting.
