Reflection

In today's liturgy we learn that not only is life unpredictable and full of surprises but that our God is full of surprises. In the First Reading we hear the prophet Isaiah speaking to those who are privileged to hold the position of God's chosen people. They have been trusted with a deposit of faith and the lineage of the promised messiah. But Isaiah upsets the predictability of their privileged position by suggesting that even foreigners will be welcomed into the kingdom of God.

The Second Reading contains the same message of surprise and unpredictability. Paul is struggling with Israel's rejection of Jesus as the messiah. He turns to the gentiles to preach the good news, hoping to "make his own people jealous" so that they would return to their privileged place as God's chosen ones and wholeheartedly accept Jesus as their messiah. They had predicted that the messiah would be a mighty king who would slay their enemy and restore their power but this gentle peacemaker who associated with sinners was totally beyond their expectations.

The gospel moves away from these general expectations to witness Jesus on a one and one encounter. As always Jesus realizes salvation in his actions. A Canaanite woman approaches him and persistently shouts at him to cure her daughter who is "tormented by a devil". Jesus at first ignores her and insists that he has been sent to save only the chosen ones. The disciples urge him to send her away. But when she perseveres Jesus praises her for her faith and heals her daughter. The disciples must have been surprised by this apparently unpredictable response.

To complicate the situation a person in those times who had a serious illness was often perceived of as being possessed by demons because either they or their parents were guilty of sin. And furthermore the Canaanites were regarded as a real threat to the religious and political values of the chosen people. For Jesus to step outside these rigid boundaries was shocking. But Jesus wanted to convey to them that all who have faith in God are subject to his healing power.

As Isaiah proclaimed in the First Reading "my house shall be called a house of prayer for all people." Even though the Canaanite woman was not a predictable candidate for healing, Jesus' compliance to her persistent demand was a total contradiction of popular religious sentiment. God too is full of surprises. They must learn that God is a God of inclusion not exclusion.

Perhaps if we were to take a good look into our own lives we would recognize something of ourselves in God's chosen people.

Entrance Antiphon

Turn your eyes, O God, our shield; and look on the face of your anointed one; one day within your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere.

First Reading

Isaiah 56:1, 6-7

I will lead the foreigners to my holy mountain.

Thus says the Lord: Have a care for justice, act with integrity, for soon my salvation will come and my integrity be manifest.

Foreigners who have attached themselves to the Lord to serve him and to love his name and be his servants - all who observe the sabbath, not profaning it, and cling to my covenant - these I will bring to my holy mountain. I will make them joyful in my house of prayer. Their holocausts and their sacrifices will be accepted on my altar, for my house will be called a house of prayer for all the peoples.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 66:2-3, 5-6, 8

R. O God, let all the nations praise you!

O God, be gracious and bless us and let your face shed its light upon us. So will your ways be known upon earth and all nations learn your saving help. R.

Let the nations be glad and exult for you rule the world with justice. With fairness you rule the peoples, you guide the nations on earth. R.

Let the peoples praise you, O God; let all the peoples praise you. May God still give us his blessing till the ends of the earth revere him. R.

Second Reading

Romans 11:13-15, 29-32

The gifts and call of God are irrevocable.

Let me tell you pagans this: I have been sent to the pagans as their apostle, and I am proud of being sent, but the purpose of it is to make my own people envious of you, and in this way save some of them. Since their rejection meant the reconciliation of the world, do you know what their admission will mean? Nothing less than a resurrection from the dead! God never takes back his gifts or revokes his choice.

Just as you changed from being disobedient to God, and now enjoy mercy because of their disobedience, so those who are disobedient now - and only because of the mercy shown to you - will also enjoy mercy eventually. God has imprisoned all people in their own disobedience only to show mercy to all humankind.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Matthew 4:23

Alleluia, alleluia!

Jesus preached the Good News of the kingdom and healed all who were sick. Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 15:21-28

Woman, you have great faith.

Jesus left Gennesaret and withdrew to the region of Tyre and Sidon. Then out came a Canaanite woman from that district and started shouting, 'Sir, Son of David, take pity on me. My daughter is tormented by a devil.' But he answered her not a word. And his disciples went and pleaded with him. 'Give her what she wants,' they said 'because she is shouting after us.' He said in reply, 'I was sent only to the lost sheep of the House of Israel.' But the woman had come up and was kneeling at his feet. 'Lord,' she said 'help me.' He replied, 'It is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the house-dogs.' She retorted, 'Ah yes, sir; but even house-dogs can eat the scraps that fall from their master's table.' Then Jesus answered her, 'Woman, you have great faith. Let your wish be granted.' And from that moment her daughter was well again.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

With the Lord there is mercy; in him is plentiful redemption.

FAITH FORMATION

⇒ Our Lady of Perpetual Help

Oh Mother of Perpetual Help, grant that I may ever invoke your powerful name, the protection of the living and the salvation of the dying. Purest Mary, let your name henceforth be ever on my lips. Delay not, Blessed Lady, to rescue me whenever I call on you. In my temptations, in my needs, I will never cease to call on you, ever repeating your sacred name, Mary, Mary. What a consolation, what sweetness, what confidence fills my soul when I utter your sacred name or even only think of you! I thank the Lord for having given you so sweet, so powerful, so lovely a name. But I will not be content with merely uttering your name. Let my love for you prompt me ever to hail you Mother of Perpetual Help. Mother of Perpetual Help, pray for me and grant me the favor I

Paying our debt together

First Collection – for the diocese. This is used for the support of priests and deacons of the Diocese.

Second Collection – for the parish. This is used to meet our parish running costs of the church and provide for ministry expenses; it is also needed to pay off our church mortgage. A Planned giving Program is in place to help us with the running cost of the church.

PLANNED GIVING PROGRAM If you would like to be a part of the church's plan giving program, which goes to the second collection, an SJ23rd form is available at the church foyer or contact the parish office. The Parish Finance Committee encourages all parishioners to register for direct debit or credit card deductions or use our Tap&Go machines instead of the envelop system. This will be very helpful for Budgeting.
