First Sunday of Advent
28 November 2021

Each of the Lectionary cycles ends in the midst of end-time warnings and a focus on the second coming of Christ, which then continues in Advent even as we change Gospels. The confusing effect of this is most pronounced this year, because as we switch to Luke we hear his version of what we read from Mark two Sundays ago (Mark 13:24-32), but without Luke's parallel to the fig-tree section. Even though the common theme of the First Sunday of Advent ("the Lord's coming at the end of time" as stated in the 2014 Homiletic Directory) has thus already been pre-empted, the Lectionary offers another reference to the coming of Christ with his saints in the second reading (1 Thessalonians 3:12-4:2). However, it does so with a view to its fulfilment here and now; instead of being overly concerned with that future time, Paul sees the current life as the time when that heavenly life is to be lived, not merely as a practising of what we would like to have but because it is right now. Those days and that time promised in the first reading (Jeremiah 33:14-16) are already here, for that virtuous Branch of David (called the Root of Jesse (father of David) in Isaiah 11:1,10), has come, and so the promise is fulfilled. The coming of the Kingdom is therefore not to be imagined as some future event, for to all those who love God it is here and now. This is consistent with the message proclaimed at the very beginning of Christ's public ministry, that the Kingdom "is very near" or "is among you". Recognition of this should give his disciples the courage needed to tackle, and seek to make right, the ills of this world, now; and due to human fragility and weakness there will be no end to this work: the work of salvation will ever be unfolding. When the gospel mentions "the cares of life" it does not mean the works by which we take care of things in the world. Some have read it that way, and so have deduced that Christians do not need to be engaged with the world's social ills. Behind our translation as "cares" is a word that means distractions or anxieties. These are presented as destructive in the same way that debauchery and drunkenness are. Whatever the social ills may be, the Christian, continuing the work of Christ and with an eye to his return at any time, is to take care of them, to bring healing and to manifest the integrity of his rule, to which we have already submitted.

Entrance Antiphon

To you, I lift up my soul, O my God. In you, I have trusted; let me not be put to shame. Nor let my enemies exult over me; and let none who hope in you be put to shame.

First Reading

Jeremiah 33:14-16

A reading from the prophet Jeremiah

I will cause a good seed to spring forth from David.

See, the days are coming - it is the Lord who speaks - when I am going to fulfil the promise I made to the House of Israel and the House of Judah:

'In those days and at that time, I will make a virtuous Branch grow for David, who shall practise honesty and integrity in the land. In those days Judah shall be saved and Israel shall dwell in confidence. And this is the name the city will be called: The Lord-our-integrity.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 24:4-5, 8-9, 10, 14

R. To you, O Lord, I lift my soul.

Lord, make me know your ways. Lord, teach me your paths. Make me walk in your truth, and teach me: for you are God my Saviour. R.

The Lord is good and upright. He shows the path to those who stray, he guides the humble in the right path; he teaches his way to the poor. R.

His ways are faithfulness and love for those who keep his covenant and will. The Lord's friendship is for those who revere him; to them he reveals his covenant. R.

Second Reading

1 Thessalonians 3:12 - 4:2

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians

When Christ comes may he strengthen your hearts in holiness.

May the Lord be generous in increasing your love and make you love one another and the whole human race as much as we love you. And may he so confirm your hearts in holiness that you may be blameless in the sight of our God and Father when our Lord Jesus Christ comes with all his saints.

Finally, brothers, we urge you and appeal to you in the Lord Jesus to make more and more progress in the kind of life that you are meant to live: the life that God wants, as you learnt from us, and as you are already living it. You have not forgotten the instructions we gave you on the authority of the Lord Jesus.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Ps 84:8

Alleluia, alleluia!

Lord, show us your mercy and love, and grant us your salvation. Alleluia!

Gospel

John 18:33-37

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Your redemption is near at hand.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'There will be signs in the sun and moon and stars; on earth nations in agony, bewildered by the clamour of the ocean and its waves; men dying of fear as they await what menaces the world, for the powers of heaven will be shaken. And then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. When these things begin to take place, stand erect, hold your heads high, because your liberation is near at hand.'

'Watch yourselves, or your hearts will be coarsened with debauchery and drunkenness and the cares of life, and that day will be sprung on you suddenly, like a trap. For it will come down on every living man on the face of the earth. Stay awake, praying at all times for the strength to survive all that is going to happen, and to stand with confidence before the Son of Man.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

The Lord will bestow his bounty, and our earth shall yield its increase.

FAITH FORMATION

⇒ Our Lady of Perpetual Help

Oh Mother of Perpetual Help, grant that I may ever invoke your powerful name, the protection of the living and the salvation of the dying. Purest Mary, let your name henceforth be ever on my lips. Delay not, Blessed Lady, to rescue me whenever I call on you. In my temptations, in my needs, I will never cease to call on you, ever repeating your sacred name, Mary, Mary. What a consolation, what sweetness, what confidence fills my soul when I utter your sacred name or even only think of you! I thank the Lord for having given you so sweet, so powerful, so lovely a name. But I will not be content with merely uttering your name. Let my love for you prompt me ever to hail you Mother of Perpetual Help. Mother of Perpetual Help, pray for me and grant me the favour I confidently ask of you. (Then say three Hail Marys).

Cleaners - we have four teams of cleaners who clean the church on a monthly cycle and four teams who clean the votive candle stands every few months. Both groups need more bodies to help out, urgently. The commitment would be a few hours each month. For more information contact maintenance@john23rd.org.au

⇒ SRE Teachers

If you could spare an hour during weekdays to spread God's word teaching the scriptures to children, WE NEED YOU. Homeless young mothers desperately need our help this Christmas

For more than 30 years, CatholicCare's Houses to Homes has been assisting disadvantaged pregnant girls and young mothers aged 16 to 25, who are experiencing abuse, hardship and homelessness.

The need for shelter and support has increased with the pandemic, putting an even greater strain on staff and resources.

Your compassionate gift and prayers today will give marginalised young women like Lucy a safe, secure and loving environment to care for their children and the chance to feel hopeful about their future. Thank you for your kind-hearted generosity.
