

Eighth Sunday Ordinary time 27 February 2022

Welcome to the community of the Catholic Parish of St John 23rd Glenwood-Stanhope Gardens where the love of Christ is shining in so many ways.

The book of Sirach or Ecclesiasticus, the source of today's first reading, was received by the Church from Greek speaking communities in the Jewish diaspora; it was ultimately excluded from the Jewish canon of Scripture but early Christians so cherished it that it was nicknamed Liber Ecclesiasticus (Church book) and so it is in our canon (but not the Protestants'). However, it has only five occurrences in our three year Sunday cycle (Ordinary Time 6A, 24A, 8C, 22C, and 30C). Today's passage (Sirach 27:4-7) was chosen to accompany the gospel reading (Luke 6:39-45, third and final excerpt from the Sermon on the Plain) due to a similarity with the gospel's analogy of knowing trees by their fruit (verses 43-45); it is the Old Testament's nearest parallel to the gospel analogy, but a nearer match is found in a New Testament epistle, James 3.

Sirach likens the judging of an orchard by its fruit to the assessing of people's thought as expressed in their speech. This apparent attention to thinking and speaking rather than doing is found elsewhere too, such as Isaiah 32 (which includes reference to thorns and briars), but closer scrutiny shows no such division. Our gospel passage similarly ends with a reference to speaking as coming from and therefore revealing the heart, yet until that point it could be read as referring to doing. We need to remember Scripture's repeating theme of the importance of meditating on and pondering God's Law so as to know and follow God's ways; knowing God's ways results in both speaking truly and acting rightly – thought and speech go hand in hand with action, and wisdom is seen to be not merely an intellectual pursuit but also the following of a good manner of life.

The first part of today's gospel reading may now be seen as similar, but it points to a communal aspect. Self-awareness is important, and understanding one's own interpretation of God's ways, indeed any intellectual subject, is deepened in the process of discussion. An idea often seems sound until we try to express it; in expressing it we may hear it more clearly, noting weaknesses and then honing or changing the argument. But this is enhanced further by our hearers' critiques, if we are open to hearing them. This insight may help us better understand the role of disputation and argument in the gospels, and then avoid reading passages like today's in an anti-Jewish manner; questioning and criticising, or disputing, does not necessarily mean opposition to Jesus, for part of the genius of Judaism is this proceeding by way of argumentation, seeking ever to deepen understanding of God's word so as to better know how to act. It is far better to view the participants in such arguments not as enemies (as we too often currently find in today's polarised "debates") but as partners in the struggle for knowledge and understanding. It requires an openness to the other, and a readiness to be aware of the possibility of being wrong in at least some detail. Common to many languages, including English and Aramaic and Greek, verbs for seeing may by synonyms for knowing or understanding. In the question emerging from the parable of the blind leading the blind, the eye refers to understanding. How obvious it would be to have sight obscured by a stick, so much so that none with a stick in the eye would ever presume to attend to the speck in another. But unreflective people are often blind to their own inabilities and shortcomings. The ancient Greek aphorism comes to mind: "Know thyself", but this is only truly done in engagement with others.

The hierarchic leadership of the Church, too, needs to be open to dialog and correction, and to show humility to acknowledge fault in thought and practice – especially with regard to sexual abuse scandals and their mismanagement – for it is now wide open to the accusation of hypocrisy, of arrogantly orating correction to others while blatantly blind itself. Or worse, it may be judged by the bad fruits produced as a demonstrably bad tree worthy of being cut down.

Our Parish Mission

The parish of St John XXIII is a faith community with the Eucharist as its heart.

Inspired by John XXIII's prophetic opening of the windows of the Church, we welcome the fresh air of the Holy Spirit, inviting every person to share in the responsibility of enriching the life and faith of our community by sharing their gifts and talents."

Entrance Antiphon

The Lord became my protector. He brought me out to a place of freedom; he saved me because he delighted in me.

First Reading

Sirach 27:4-7

A reading from the book of Ecclesiasticus

Do not praise someone before they have spoken.

In a shaken sieve the rubbish is left behind, so too the defects of a man appear in his talk. The kiln tests the work of the potter, the test of a man is in his conversation.

The orchard where the tree grows is judged on the quality of its fruit, similarly a man's words betray what he feels.

Do not praise a man before he has spoken, since this is the test of men.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 91:2-3, 13-16

R. Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

It is good to give thanks to the Lord to make music to your name, O Most High, to proclaim your love in the morning and your truth in the watches of the night. R.

The just will flourish like the palm-tree and grow like a Lebanon cedar. R.

Planted in the house of the Lord they will flourish in the courts of our God, still bearing fruit when they are old, still full of sap, still green, to proclaim that the Lord is just. In him, my rock, there is no wrong. R.

A good tree does not bear bad fruit.....

nor a bad tree bear good fruit....

What do you produce?

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 15:54-58

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

Victory has been given to us through Jesus Christ.

When this perishable nature has put on imperishability, and when this mortal nature has put on immortality, then the words of scripture will come true: Death is swallowed up in victory. Death, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting? Now the sting of death is sin, and sin gets its power from the Law. So let us thank God for giving us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Never give in then, my dear brothers, never admit defeat; keep on working at the Lord's work always, knowing that, in the Lord, you cannot be labouring in vain.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

Philippians 2:15-16

Alleluia, alleluia!

Shine on the world like bright stars; you are offering it the word of life. Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 6:39-45

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

A person speaks from what is in his heart.

Jesus told a parable to his disciples, 'Can one blind man guide another? Surely both will fall into a pit? The disciple is not superior to his teacher; the fully trained disciple will always be like his teacher. Why do you observe the splinter in your brother's eye and never notice the plank in your own? How can you say to your brother, "Brother, let me take out the splinter that is in your eye," when you cannot see the plank in your own? Hypocrite! Take the plank out of your own eye first, and then you will see clearly enough to take out the splinter that is in your brother's eye.

'There is no sound tree that produces rotten fruit, nor again a rotten tree that produces sound fruit. For every tree can be told by its own fruit: people do not pick figs from thorns, nor gather grapes from brambles. A good man draws what is good from the store of goodness in his heart; a bad man draws what is bad from the store of badness. For a man's words flow out of what fills his heart.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

I will sing to the Lord who has been bountiful with me, sing psalms to the name of the Lord Most High.

FAITH FORMATION

⇒ Our Lady of Perpetual Help

Oh Mother of Perpetual Help, grant that I may ever invoke your powerful name, the protection of the living and the salvation of the dying. Purest Mary, let your name henceforth be ever on my lips. Delay not, Blessed Lady, to rescue me whenever I call on you. In my temptations, in my needs, I will never cease to call on you, ever repeating your sacred name, Mary, Mary. What a consolation, what sweetness, what confidence fills my soul when I utter your sacred name or even only think of you! I thank the Lord for having given you so sweet, so powerful, so lovely a name. But I will not be content with merely uttering your name. Let my love for you prompt me ever to hail you Mother of Perpetual Help. Mother of Perpetual Help, pray for me and grant me the favour I confidently ask of you. (Then say three Hail Marys).

SPONSOR A PEW

Dear Parishioners,

As you are aware, we had been planning and discussing for a while to replace our old, broken, damaged and messy pews of different colour, design and shape to make the church look better and sitting and kneeling more comfortable. After many little experiments of a carpenter and our construction students, this did not work out in the way we expected due to COVID and other reasons. We, then, invited a number of pew making companies to submit quotes. We received a number of quotes and finally, at the satisfaction of everyone in the committee, we decided to go with Grandchester Designs to make the new pews. (They are also making pews for our neighbouring parish Our Lady of the Rosary Kellyville).

The total cost of the project is $175,000. So far, the total amount received from sponsors is $89,100. We still need to raise $85,900.

On this note, we would like to request you to sponsor a pew. It can be in memory of a deceased love one or your family or personal gift to the parish community. Each pew in the size of 4.6 metres will cost $2500 and pews at the back will be almost double the size to match with the shape of the church. A small memorial or "donated by" plaque will be placed upon request. You can get family and friends to pool together or if you cannot afford to sponsor one full pew, you can donate whatever amount you can to have comfortable pews and be part of the community that care its spiritual home.

Finance committee, Fr Zvonimir and Fr Jolly

'Forms are available at the church foyer for those who wish to donate towards the cost of the pews'.
