

Second Sunday of Easter 24 April 2022

Welcome to the community of the Catholic Parish of St John 23rd Glenwood-Stanhope Gardens where the love of Christ is shining in so many ways.

Easter tide gives a certain pride of place to John's gospel, from which each Sunday's reading is taken except for the Seventh Sunday to which in Australia we move the celebration of the Ascension. But only on the first three Sundays are the pericopes from the post-resurrection section. Today's reading, like that on Easter Sunday, is read each year, and the two form a natural frame for these two Sundays since they encompass the eight days. In fact the first part of today's reading, the bestowing of the Spirit and the commission to forgive sins, is repeated at Pentecost, thus encompassing and identifying the whole season of Eastertide as one: the whole of the mystery of the resurrection and ascension of Christ and the commissioning inbreathing of the Holy Spirit into the community of disciples, the Church.

One of the themes threaded throughout John appears in today's account of the episode of the doubting apostle, Thomas. It had come to the fore on Easter Tuesday with Mary Magdalene announcing to the disciples "I have seen the Lord", and now they say to Thomas "We have seen the Lord". Thomas' response is interesting, for after stating "Unless I see..." instead of saying him or the Lord he uses a pars pro toto figure of speech mentioning only the crucifixion-inflicted wounds, "... the nail holes... his [pierced] side". There is something odd about this, which we will turn to shortly. Thomas' response sets up the extraordinarily intimate encounter on the eighth day, when he is invited to probe the wounds, or like the nails and spear to penetrate the flesh. John does not say if Thomas actually probes the wounds, which leaves the scene open to many and varied artistic representations. John only mentions Thomas' uttering "My Lord and my God!" The Lord's response literally translates, "Since you have seen me, you have believed. Blessed they who have not seen, yet have believed."

Now here is what strikes me as odd: in referring to the wounds of the body, did Thomas mean the dead body, or the living person? What do we see when we look at anyone? We see their body, or identifiable parts of it; but is seeing the body to see the person? If we see a dead body we do not say it is the person, but that we have seen his or her body. A person is somehow more than a body, and a dead body is not a person. Our common-sense approach is to say that when we see a living body we have seen the person, and when he or she is dead we say we have seen his or her body. As the dead body of Jesus was deposited in the tomb the wounds could have been probed, but that could not have prompted the statement "I have seen the Lord" nor led to belief beyond believing that he was dead.

John, in his unique and richly literary manner, is pointing back through the gospel to the threaded references to seeing Jesus and believing in him (e.g., 6:40; 9:37-38; 20:8). There were those, blessed indeed, who saw him in the flesh and who saw his body, yet some of them never believed. Blessed indeed too are those who saw him risen, and believed; yet there are those who cannot see him, neither alive in the flesh nor his dead body (for that time and opportunity have passed), but who believe—these can see and hear him in a different way. One way is within the liturgical gathering itself, for it is his body, living in the members gathered to him, and in this body his greeting is heard again, "Peace be with you."

Our Parish Mission

The parish of St John XXIII is a faith community with the Eucharist as its heart.

Inspired by John XXIII's prophetic opening of the windows of the Church, we welcome the fresh air of the Holy Spirit, inviting every person to share in the responsibility of enriching the life and faith of our community by sharing their gifts and talents."

Entrance Antiphon

Like newborn infants, you must long for the pure, spiritual milk, that in him you may grow to salvation, alleluia.

First Reading

Acts 5:12-16

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

The numbers of men and women who came to believe in the Lord increased steadily.

The faithful all used to meet by common consent in the Portico of Solomon. No one else ever dared to join them, but the people were loud in their praise and the numbers of men and women who came to believe in the Lord increased steadily. So many signs and wonders were worked among the people at the hands of the apostles that the sick were even taken out into the streets and laid on beds and sleeping-mats in the hope that at least the shadow of Peter might fall across some of them as he went past. People even came crowding in from the towns round about Jerusalem, bringing with them their sick and those tormented by unclean spirits, and all of them were cured.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 117:2-4, 22-27

R. Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

Let the sons of Israel say: 'His love has no end.' Let the sons of Aaron say: 'His love has no end.' Let those who fear the Lord say: 'His love has no end.' R.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone. This is the work of the Lord, a marvel in our eyes. This day was made by the Lord; we rejoice and are glad. R.

O Lord, grant us salvation; O Lord, grant success. Blessed in the name of the Lord is he who comes. We bless you from the house of the Lord; the Lord God is our light. R.

Second Reading

Revelation 1:9-13, 17-19

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse

I was dead and now I am to live for ever and ever.

My name is John, and through our union in Jesus I am your brother and share your sufferings, your kingdom, and all you endure. I was on the island of Patmos for having preached God's word and witnessed for Jesus; it was the Lord's day and the Spirit possessed me, and I heard a voice behind me, shouting like a trumpet, 'Write down all that you see in a book.' I turned round to see who had spoken to me, and when I turned I saw seven golden lamp-stands and, surrounded by them, a figure like a Son of man, dressed in a long robe tied at the waist with a golden girdle.

When I saw him, I fell in a dead faint at his feet, but he touched me with his right hand and said, 'Do not be afraid; it is I, the First and the Last; I am the Living One. I was dead and now I am to live for ever and ever, and I hold the keys of death and of the underworld. Now write down all that you see of present happenings and things that are still to come.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

John 20:29

Alleluia, alleluia!

You believe in me, Thomas, because you have seen me; happy those who have not seen me, but still believe! Alleluia!

Gospel

John 20:19-31

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

After eight days Jesus came in and stood among them.

In the evening of that same day, the first day of the week, the doors were closed in the room where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews. Jesus came and stood among them. He said to them, 'Peace be with you,' and showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were filled with joy when they saw the Lord, and he said to them again, 'Peace be with you.'

'As the Father sent me so am I sending you.'

After saying this he breathed on them and said:

'Receive the Holy Spirit. For those whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven; for those whose sins you retain, they are retained.'

Thomas, called the Twin, who was one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. When the disciples said, 'We have seen the Lord,' he answered, 'Unless I see the holes that the nails made in his hands and can put my finger into the holes they made, and unless I can put my hand into his side, I refuse to believe.' Eight days later the disciples were in the house again and Thomas was with them. The doors were closed, but Jesus came in and stood among them. 'Peace be with you,' he said. Then he spoke to Thomas, 'Put your finger here; look, here are my hands. Give me your hand; put it into my side. Doubt no longer but believe.' Thomas replied, 'My Lord and my God!' Jesus said to him:

'You believe because you can see me. Happy are those who have not seen and yet believe.'

There were many other signs that Jesus worked and the disciples saw, but they are not recorded in this book. These are recorded so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing this you may have life through his name.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Bring your hand and feel the place of the nails, and do not be unbelieving but believing, alleluia.

THANK YOU

Beautiful Altar of Repose, simplicity and elegance at its best.

Generosity of our parishioner who donated a canopy for use for any parish ceremonies, it adds to the solemnity of the procession.

Congratulations to Jessica and Kevin, welcome to the Catholic faith.

Ever dedicated choir groups who led us to a more profound praying and worship.

Such a big turnout during our Easter Vigil celebration, similarly, during Easter Sunday masses.

It is heart warming to see people coming back to church services.

FAITH FORMATION

⇒ Our Lady of Perpetual Help

Oh Mother of Perpetual Help, grant that I may ever invoke your powerful name, the protection of the living and the salvation of the dying. Purest Mary, let your name henceforth be ever on my lips. Delay not, Blessed Lady, to rescue me whenever I call on you. In my temptations, in my needs, I will never cease to call on you, ever repeating your sacred name, Mary, Mary. What a consolation, what sweetness, what confidence fills my soul when I utter your sacred name or even only think of you! I thank the Lord for having given you so sweet, so powerful, so lovely a name. But I will not be content with merely uttering your name. Let my love for you prompt me ever to hail you Mother of Perpetual Help. Mother of Perpetual Help, pray for me and grant me the favour I confidently ask of you. (Then say three Hail Marys).

SUGGESTION BOX

We welcome your comments and constructive suggestions.

PEW UPDATE

We are now almost close to our target. Our profound gratitude to our contributors. A pew size of 4.6 metres will cost $2500 and pews at the back will be almost double the size to match the shape of the church. Let us keep this going and sponsor a pew.

You can get family and/or friends to pool together or if you cannot afford to sponsor one full pew, any amount you donate will be a big addition to the cost of the pews.

If any one still would like to contribute, please do, so the additional amount raised will be used to also flourish the pews at the left side sitting area of the church.

Finance committee, Fr Zvonimir and Fr Jolly

'Forms are available at the church foyer for those who wish to donate towards the cost of the pews'.

Our first set of new pews are expected to be in the church by next week.

God of love and liberty,
We bring our thanks today for the peace and security we enjoy,
We remember those who in time of war faithfully served their country.
We pray for their families, and for ourselves whose freedom was won at such a cost.

Make us a people zealous for peace,
and hasten that day when nation
shall not lift up sword against nation neither learn war any more.

This we pray in the name of the one who gave his life for the sake of the world:

Jesus Christ, our Redeemer.

Amen.

Paying our debt together

FIRST COLLECTION goes to support the priests and deacons of the Diocese.

SECOND COLLECTION provides for the running costs of the church and ministry expenses; it also goes to pay off our church mortgage.

A Planned giving Program is in place to help us with the planning/budgeting for the church expenses. To register, an SJ23rd form is available at the church foyer or the website.

The Parish Finance Committee encourages all parishioners to register for direct debit or credit card deductions instead of the envelope system.

We encourage everyone to contribute financially using the TapnGo machines by the entrances or online via BPoint.
