

Fourth Sunday of Advent 18 December 2022

Welcome to the community of the Catholic Parish of St John 23rd Glenwood-Stanhope Gardens where the love of Christ is shining in so many ways.

The accounts of the birth of Jesus by Matthew and Luke reflect different perspectives: in Matthew we see things from Joseph's point of view, while in Luke we see from Mary's. Matthew tells us of Joseph's response to the information that his betrothed, Mary, "was found to be with child, through the Holy Spirit", and later we read of his actions to take care of her and the child in the face of peril; Mary is neither spoken to nor speaks in the entire work. In Luke it is Mary who is spoken to and speaks, while Joseph is silent, though he is also active. Matthew and Luke agree that Joseph was a descendant of David, and neither report any further role of Joseph past the childhood narratives. Both approaches are catered for in today's Collect, for the observation that "the Incarnation... was made known by the message of an Angel" fits equally with both gospels. So too does the Prayer over the Offerings, referring to Mary's womb being filled with the power of the Holy Spirit; this is the first Prayer over the Offerings in Advent to have a specific reference to the season and coming feast. This is true also of the Prayer after Communion. Thus at all levels this Sunday marks a decided turn in the emphasis of Advent away from Christ's future return towards celebrating the mystery of the Incarnation in history. In fact this turn manifests first on 17 December (unless it is the 3rd Sunday of Advent), and is seen on all the weekdays of this time, with the exception that in these days the "O" antiphons for the Magnificat at Vespers, deployed also in variant forms for the Gospel Acclamations at Mass, continue the theme of looking forward to Christ's second coming, even urgently begging for that day and Christ to come. This incessant request always highlights the joyful anticipation of his coming with salvation, and thus is not an end to be feared. We read from Luke's gospel on this Sunday in Years B & C, so Year A is the only one in which we reflect on Joseph's role; of importance is that Joseph is the descendant of David, and through him Jesus is also David's heir. This reading is accompanied by the famous prophesy in Isaiah for the coming birth of the one who will be called Emmanuel—literally, God-with-us. The responsorial Psalm, Ps 24(23) is of particular importance; it follows the same reading on 20 December (when not a Sunday) and is in the entrance antiphon on 22 December (when not a Sunday)—and so it appears at least once every year in the days before Christmas. Historically it is associated with the Ark of the Covenant being taken into its new abode in the first Temple; though it is Solomon who takes the Ark in, it is David's song that opens the way, and thus it came to have an important place in Jewish thought and liturgy: it is morning prayer's Psalm of the Day on Sundays, and it is sung daily in Ashkenazi synagogues as the Torah scroll is taken back to the "ark", the scroll's special storage place. In our liturgies it has a similar role as we prepare to celebrate the Lord's "entrance" into the world in the Incarnation, and it is used on the feast of the Presentation of the Lord in the Temple, and for his entry into Jerusalem on Passion Sunday. The Ark was celebrated not for its own sake, but for what it contained and signified; it contained the summary of the Law (the 10 Commandments carved on the stone tablets) and the Mercy Seat, the golden lid with its two carved cherubim that together delineated the empty space designating the invisible presence of God who cannot be held by creatures. Christ is giver of the new commandment, establishing the New Covenant, also embodies God's mercy. In consequence, though it sounds a little odd to us at first, for bearing him Mary has been called the Ark of the New Covenant. Merging all the imagery, the readings present Joseph in the place of David, leading the new Ark to its new abode, leading Mary who bears the embodied Law and source of mercy.

Our Parish Mission

The parish of St John XXIII is a faith community with the Eucharist as its heart. Inspired by John XXIII's prophetic opening of the windows of the Church, we welcome the fresh air of the Holy Spirit, inviting every person to share in the responsibility of enriching the life and faith of our community by sharing their gifts and talents."

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

In the spirit of reconciliation, we acknowledge the traditional custodians of the lands in which the Catholic Parish of St John XXIII and the Diocese of Parramatta sits, the land of the Darug and Gundungurra people. We would like to pay our respects to the Aboriginal Elders past, present and future for they hold the traditions, memories and wisdom of Mother Earth on which we place our feet upon today.

Entrance Antiphon

Drop down dew from above, you heavens, and let the clouds rain down the Just One; let the earth be opened and bring forth a Saviour.

First Reading

A reading from the prophet Isaiah 7:10-14

The virgin will conceive.

The Lord spoke to Ahaz and said, 'Ask the Lord your God for a sign for yourself coming either from the depths of Sheol or from the heights above.' 'No,' Ahaz answered 'I will not put the Lord to the test.'

Then Isaiah said:

'Listen now, House of David:
are you not satisfied with trying the patience of men
without trying the patience of my God, too?
The Lord himself, therefore,
will give you a sign.
It is this: the maiden is with child
and will soon give birth to a son whom she will call Emmanuel,
a name which means "God-is-with-us".'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 23:1-6

R. Let the Lord enter; he is king of glory.

The Lord's is the earth and its fullness, the world and all its peoples. It is he who set it on the seas; on the waters he made it firm. R.

Who shall climb the mountain of the Lord? Who shall stand in his holy place? The man with clean hands and pure heart, who desires not worthless things. R.

He shall receive blessings from the Lord and reward from the God who saves him. Such are the men who seek him, seek the face of the God of Jacob. R.

Second Reading

A reading from the letter of St James 5:7-10

Jesus Christ, a descendant of David, is the Son of God.

From Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus who has been called to be an apostle, and specially chosen to preach the Good News that God promised long ago through his prophets in the scriptures.

This news is about the Son of God, who, according to the human nature he took, was a descendant of David: it is about Jesus Christ our Lord who, in the order of the spirit, the spirit of holiness that was in him, was proclaimed Son of God in all his power through his resurrection from the dead. Through him we received grace and our apostolic mission to preach the obedience of faith to all pagan nations in honour of his name. You are one of these nations, and by his call belong to Jesus Christ. To you all, then, who are God's beloved in Rome, called to be saints, may God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ send grace and peace.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

Matthew 1:23

Alleluia, alleluia!

A virgin will give birth to a son; his name will be Emmanuel: God is with us. Alleluia!

Gospel

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 1:18-24

Jesus was born of Mary, the betrothed of Joseph, a son of David.

This is how Jesus Christ came to be born. His mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph; but before they came to live together she was found to be with child through the Holy Spirit. Her husband Joseph, being a man of honour and wanting to spare her publicity, decided to divorce her informally. He had made up his mind to do this when the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, and said 'Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because she has conceived what is in her by the Holy Spirit. She will give birth to a son and you must name him Jesus, because he is the one who is to save his people from their sins.' Now all this took place to fulfil the words spoken by the Lord through the prophet:

'The virgin will conceive and give birth to a son and they will call him Emmanuel, a name which means 'God-is-with-us'. When Joseph woke up he did what the angel of the Lord had told him to do: he took his wife to his home.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Behold, a Virgin shall conceive and bear a son; and his name will be called Emmanuel.

FAITH FORMATION

Our Lady of Perpetual Help

Oh Mother of Perpetual Help, grant that I may ever invoke your powerful name, the protection of the living and the salvation of the dying. Purest Mary, let your name henceforth be ever on my lips. Delay not, Blessed Lady, to rescue me whenever I call on you. In my temptations, in my needs, I will never cease to call on you, ever repeating your sacred name, Mary, Mary. What a consolation, what sweetness, what confidence fills my soul when I utter your sacred name or even only think of you! I thank the Lord for having given you so sweet, so powerful, so lovely a name. But I will not be content with merely uttering your name. Let my love for you prompt me ever to hail you Mother of Perpetual Help. Mother of Perpetual Help, pray for me and grant me the favour I confidently ask of you. (Then say three Hail Marys).
