Welcome to the community of the Catholic Parish of St John 23rd Glenwood-Stanhope Gardens where the love of Christ is shining in so many ways.

REMEMERING OUR LOVED ONES

The month of November begins with the solemn feast of all Saints. It is a day, we remember the countless and multitude of men, women and children including many, we have known, loved and even lived with, who are now in heaven. It reflects our communion with them.

As a Christian community and as believers, each of us are inspired by their heroic lives and the qualities. Their love, humility, sense of justice, gentleness, kindness, mercy, courage and their love for the poor and weak in the society, teaches us how each of us can lead a life that is worthy and meaningful and attain the eternal bliss with God.

On the second of November in a special way, we celebrate the feast of all our departed brothers and sisters, then, in the whole month, we remember and pray for them in a special way. The feast of all souls reminds us, of our unity with all who have died. They are our brothers and sisters, and we express our unity with them by praying for the eternal repose of their souls. We pray for every departed person, seeking the mercy of God. The Catechism of the Catholic church in its article 958 specially reminds us our duty and obligation to pray for them. "In full consciousness of this communion of the whole Mystical Body of Jesus Christ, the church in its pilgrim members, from the very earliest days of the Christian religion, has honored with great respect the memory of the dead: and because it is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead that they may be loosed from their sins' she offers her suffrages for them. Our prayer for them capable not only of healing them, but also of making their intercession for us effective." It is needless to say; Mass is the highest form of all prayers.

Let us, please remember our beloved death by offering masses and prayers as a community. It expresses our unity with the Saints in heaven, souls in Purgatory and us struggling for holiness in this world.

Fr. Jolly

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

In the spirit of reconciliation, we acknowledge the traditional custodians of the lands in which the Catholic Parish of St John XXIII and the Diocese of Parramatta sits, the land of the Darug and Gundungurra people. We would like to pay our respects to the Aboriginal Elders past, present and future for they hold the traditions, memories and wisdom of Mother Earth on which we place our feet upon today.

Entrance Antiphon

Let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice; turn to the Lord and his strength; constantly seek his face.

First Reading

A reading from the book of Exodus 22:20-26

If you are harsh with the widow or the orphan, my anger will rage against you.

The Lord said to Moses, "Tell the sons of Israel this, "You must not molest the stranger or oppress him, for you lived as strangers in the land of Egypt. You must not be harsh with the widow, or with the orphan; if you are harsh with them, they will surely cry out to me, and be sure I shall hear their cry; my anger will flare and I shall kill you with the sword, your own wives will be widows, your own children orphans.

"If you lend money to any of my people, to any poor man among you, you must not play the usurer with him: you must not demand interest from him.

"If you take another's cloak as a pledge, you must give it back to him before sunset. It is all the covering he has; it is the cloak he wraps his body in; what else would he sleep in? If he cries to me, I will listen, for I am full of pity."

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 17:2-4, 47, 51

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

I love you, Lord, my strength, my rock, my fortress, my saviour. My God is the rock where I take refuge; my shield, my mighty help, my stronghold. The Lord is worthy of all praise: when I call I am saved from my foes. R.

Long life to the Lord, my rock! Praised be the God who saves me. He has given great victories to his king and shown his love for his anointed. R.

Second Reading

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians 1:5-10

You turned away from idols to serve God and await his Son.

You observed the sort of life we lived when we were with you, which was for your instruction, and you were led to become imitators of us, and of the Lord; and it was with the joy of the Holy Spirit that you took to the gospel, in spite of the great opposition all round you. This has made you the great example to all believers in Macedonia and Achaia since it was from you that the word of the Lord started to spread - and not only throughout Macedonia and Achaia, for the news of your faith in God has spread everywhere. We do not need to tell other people about it: other people tell us how we started the work among you, how you broke with idolatry when you were converted to God and became servants of the real, living God; and how you are now waiting for Jesus, his Son, whom he raised from the dead, to come from heaven to save us from the retribution which is coming.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

cf Ephesians 1:17, 18

Alleluia, alleluia!

All who love me will keep my words and my Father will love them and we will come to them. Alleluia!

Gospel

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 22:34-40

You shall love the Lord your God and your neighbour as yourself.

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees they got together and, to disconcert him, one of them put a question, 'Master, which is the greatest commandment of the Law?' Jesus said, 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second resembles it: You must love your neighbour as yourself. On these two commandments hang the whole Law, and the Prophets also.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Communion Antiphon

We will ring out our joy at your saving help and exult in the name of our God.

Praying together

Our Lady of Perpetual Help Prayer

O Mother of Perpetual Help, grant that I may ever invoke your powerful name, the protection of the living and the salvation of the dying. Purest Mary, let your name henceforth be ever on my lips. Delay not, Blessed Lady, to rescue me whenever I call on you. In my temptations, in my needs, I will never cease to call on you, ever repeating your sacred name, Mary, Mary. What a consolation, what sweetness, what confidence fills my soul when I utter your sacred name or even only think of you! I thank the Lord for having given you so sweet, so powerful, so lovely a name. But I will not be content with merely uttering your name. Let my love for you prompt me ever to hail you Mother of Perpetual Help. Mother of Perpetual Help, pray for me and grant me the favour I confidently ask of you. (Then say three Hail Marys).

Pastoral Ministries

The best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others. Mahatma Gandhi
We are in urgent need for volunteers to assist in the different pastoral ministries in our Parish.

WE NEED YOU

⇒ SRE Teachers

If you could spare an hour during weekdays to spread God's word teaching the scriptures to children, WE NEED YOU. We currently have 4 public primary schools and a high school in our parish where we hold scripture classes during school hours for 30 minutes during Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays. For more information please call Asoki 0430 020265 or Renuka 0414 795814. Training and resources will be provided.

⇒ GARDENERS AND CLEANERS

Now that the church is open for celebrations, its floors need to be swept of dust, cobwebs brushed off, candle stands cleaned and garden kept green. We would like to request all our volunteer cleaners and gardeners to come back and continue their ministry. For more information contact maintenance@john23rd.org.au or the parish office.

DRIVEWAY/CARPARK SAFETY

For everyone's safety, please park at least 1.8 meters from the church's driveway entrance.

Your parked vehicle must not block the flow of traffic or impair the vision of other drivers getting into or out of the parking lot, basically impeding vehicles from entering, exiting or turning into or from the church's driveway.

Vehicle safety is more than just staying alert when parking your car. Let us not become a danger to other road users.

Remember to please always use the footpath on both sides of the church car park when walking around the church parking lot, again for safety reasons.

Please make sure when you come to Mass, let us consider our neighbours. Do not block the neighbours' driveway.

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

Now available, in memory of our loved ones where you can write their names and be able to pray for them.

"The Young at Heart" Seniors of our parish had a wonderful day at the "Shrine of Our Lady of Mercy" at Penrose Park.

On arrival, the group relaxed and refreshed from a long trip. Then they visited the grotto and went down a path to look and visit the main church. At 12.30pm Father Zvonimir presided with a mass and after the mass they had a wonderful lunch, took a photo in front of the shrine and were ready to return back home.

It was really an enjoyable day for our very Young at Hearts.
