Welcome to the community of the Catholic Parish of St John 23rd Glenwood-Stanhope Gardens where the love of Christ is shining in so many ways.

The Lectionary gives a certain pride of place to John's gospel in Eastertide; every Sunday gospel is taken from it, except the Seventh to which Ascension has been relocated in Australia. Only the first three Sundays' pericopes are post-resurrection. Today's (John 20:19-31), like that on Easter Sunday morning (John 20:1-9), is read each year, and the two form a natural fit with these two Sundays since they encompass the eight days and together form one story. The first part of today's with the bestowing of the Spirit and the commission to forgive or remit sins or debts (v.19-23), repeats on Pentecost Sunday, thus encompassing and identifying the Eastertide as one unit: the whole of the mystery of the Resurrection and Ascension of Christ and the inbreathing of the Holy Spirit into the community of disciples to commission the Church.

The missing episode between the frames of the two Sundays' readings is that of Mary of Magdala. She encountered Christ risen and he told her not to cling to him yet today he invites Thomas to probe his wounds. As a child this story captivated and revolted my imagination since it was not possible to hear it without imagining myself in Thomas' position, performing the invited actions; there is a distinct recollection of wanting to wipe or wash my hands. Less captivating to the child's mind, yet enshrined especially in liturgical practice, is the Lord's greeting of "Peace (be) with you." This ancient greeting, witnessed several times in the Hebrew Scriptures, is employed by both Luke and John as the Lord's greeting in the post-resurrection appearances. Here in John it is the immediate precursor to the Church's being commissioned in her reception of the Spirit, the divine breath that brings the newformed or newborn Church to life, just as God's breath animated Adam when first formed from earth. This new-begotten creature is authorised to forgive sins, to remit debt—the same mission of proclaiming forgiveness mentioned in Peter's speech in last Sunday's second reading.

The element of believing is reiterated in a nuanced manner in today's second reading (1 John 5:1-6), which we also read earlier this year on feast of the Baptism of the Lord: whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, is a begotten child of God. This belief is not merely an assent of the mind or heart but is manifested in love for the Son, and indeed therefore for all God's children, as John had explained earlier in this letter (and will unfold over the next four Sundays). To believe in the Son requires forsaking the wrongful ways of the world, and living his ways. This shines through the somewhat idealistic description of the common life of the new Church in the first reading (Acts 4:32-35). Each year we read one of the passages from Acts of the Apostles that describes this common life. This year's puts the apostles' testifying to the Lord's resurrection at the heart of this common life. But the gospel reminds us that to forgive sin, or remit debt, is to believe in him and is to testify to his Resurrection.

Our Parish Mission

The Parish of St John XXIII is a faith community with the Eucharist as its heart. Inspired by John XXIII's prophetic opening of the windows of the Church, we welcome the fresh air of the Holy Spirit, inviting every person to share in the responsibility of enriching the life and faith of our community by sharing their gifts and talents."

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

In the spirit of reconciliation, we acknowledge the traditional custodians of the lands in which the Catholic Parish of St John XXIII and the Diocese of Parramatta sits, the land of the Darug and Gundungurra people. We would like to pay our respects to the Aboriginal Elders past, present and future for they hold the traditions, memories and wisdom of Mother Earth on which we place our feet upon today.

Entrance Antiphon

Receive the joy of your glory, giving thanks to God, who has called you into the heavenly kingdom, alleluia.

First Reading

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles 4:32-35

The whole group was united, heart and soul.

The whole group of believers was united, heart and soul; no one claimed for his own use anything that he had, as everything they owned was held in common.

The apostles continued to testify to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus with great power, and they were all given great respect.

None of their members was ever in want, as all those who owned land or houses would sell them, and bring the money from them, to present it to the apostles; it was then distributed to any members who might be in need.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 117:2-4, 15-18, 22-24

R. Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

Let the sons of Israel say: 'His love has no end.' Let the sons of Aaron say: 'His love has no end.' Let those who fear the Lord say: 'His love has no end.' R.

The Lord's right hand has triumphed; his right hand raised me up. I shall not die, I shall live and recount his deeds. I was punished, I was punished by the Lord, but not doomed to die. R.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone, This is the work of the Lord, a marvel in our eyes. This day

Second Reading

A reading from the first letter of St John 5:1-6

Anyone begotten by God has already overcome the world.

Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ has been begotten by God; and whoever loves the Father that begot him loves the child whom he begets. We can be sure that we love God's children if we love God himself and do what he has commanded us; this is what loving God is—keeping his commandments; and his commandments are not difficult, because anyone who has been begotten by God has already overcome the world; this is the victory over the world—our faith.

Who can overcome the world?

Only the man who believes that Jesus is the Son of God; Jesus Christ who came by water and blood, not with water only, but with water and blood; with the Spirit as another witness - since the Spirit is the truth.

Gospel Acclamation

John 20:29

Alleluia, alleluia!

You believe in me, Thomas, because you have seen me; happy are those who have not seen me, but still believe!

Alleluia!

Gospel

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John 20:19-31

After eight days, Jesus came in and stood among them.

In the evening of that same day, the first day of the week, the doors were closed in the room where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews. Jesus came and stood among them. He said to them, 'Peace be with you,' and showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were filled with joy when they saw the Lord, and he said to them again, 'Peace be with you.

'As the Father sent me, so am I sending you.'

After saying this he breathed on them and said:

'Receive the Holy Spirit. For those whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven; for those whose sins you retain, they are retained.'

Thomas, called the Twin, who was one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. When the disciples said, 'We have seen the Lord,' he answered, 'Unless I see the holes they made, and unless I can put my hand into his side, I refuse to believe.' Eight days later the disciples were in the house again and Thomas was with them. The doors were closed, but Jesus came in and stood among them. 'Peace be with you,' he said. Then he spoke to Thomas, 'Put your finger here; look, here are my hands. Give me your hand; put it into my side. Doubt no longer but believe.' Thomas replied, 'My Lord and my God!' Jesus said to him:

'You believe because you can see me. Happy are those who have not seen and yet believe.'

There were many other signs that Jesus worked and the disciples saw, but they are not recorded in this book. These are recorded so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing this you may have life through his name.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Bring your hand and feel the place of the nails, and do not be unbelieving but believing, alleluia.

PRAYING in the SILENCE of the HEART

God, you love us!

So no matter how poor our prayer, we seek you with confidence. Your love burrows a way through our hesitations, and even through our doubts.

Praying together

Our Lady of Perpetual Help Prayer

O Mother of Perpetual Help, grant that I may ever invoke your powerful name, the protection of the living and the salvation of the dying. Purest Mary, let your name henceforth be ever on my lips. Delay not, Blessed Lady, to rescue me whenever I call on you. In my temptations, in my needs, I will never cease to call on you, ever repeating your sacred name, Mary, Mary. What a consolation, what sweetness, what confidence fills my soul when I utter your sacred name or even only think of you! I thank the Lord for having given you so sweet, so powerful, so lovely a name. But I will not be content with merely uttering your name. Let my love for you prompt me ever to hail you Mother of Perpetual Help. Mother of Perpetual Help, pray for me and grant me the favour I confidently ask of you. (Then say three Hail Marys).

First Communion

Parent Information Night

There will be a parent information evening for anyone wishing to enroll their child in our First Communion Program on Wednesday 10th April at 7pm in the Church. This for any children from Year 4 and above.

Paying our debt together

We are very grateful to all our parishioners who always generously support our Parish.

FIRST COLLECTION supports the priests and deacons of the Diocese.

SECOND COLLECTION goes to the running costs of our church, ministry expenses and specially to pay off our church mortgage.

A Planned giving Program is in place to help with the planning/budgeting of church expenses. The Parish Finance Committee encourages parishioners to register for direct debit or credit card deductions instead of the envelope system. An SJ23rd registration form is available at the church foyer or from the website.

scan the QR code

Parishioners who want to make a financial contribution are encouraged to use the TapnGo machines by the entrances or online via BPoint.

Pastoral Ministries

The best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others. Mahatma Gandhi
We are in urgent need for volunteers to assist in the different pastoral ministries in our Parish.

WE NEED YOU

⇒ SRE Teachers

If you could spare an hour during weekdays to spread God's word teaching the scriptures to children, WE NEED YOU. We currently have 4 public primary schools and a high school in our parish where we hold scripture classes during school hours for 30 minutes during Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays. For more information please call Asoki 0430 020265 or Renuka 0414 795814. Training and resources will be provided.

⇒ GARDENERS AND CLEANERS

Now that the church is open for celebrations, its floors need to be swept of dust, cobwebs brushed off, candle stands cleaned and garden kept green. We would like to request all our volunteer cleaners and gardeners to come back and continue their ministry. For more information contact maintenance@john23rd.org.au or the parish office.

⇒ MUSIC MINISTRY

If your passion is music and are interested to assist with the music ministry, you are most welcome to join and make our liturgy celebrations more alive.

Please contact Neil Mascarenhas, our music ministry coordinator via email neil.mas@gmail.com

FLOWERS FOR THE CHURCH

If you wish to donate flowers for the altar, please phone James David on 0413 787596

We still have aprons for sale $30.00
Please contact Techie on 0438 201436 or the parish office for orders.

DRIVEWAY/CARPARK SAFETY

For everyone's safety, please park at least 1.8 meters from the church's driveway entrance.

Your parked vehicle must not block the flow of traffic or impair the vision of other drivers getting into or out of the parking lot, basically impeding vehicles from entering, exiting or turning into or from the church's driveway.

Vehicle safety is more than just staying alert when parking your car. Let us not become a danger to other road users.

Remember to please always use the footpath on both sides of the church car park when walking around the church parking lot, again for safety reasons.

Please make sure when you come to Mass, let us consider our neighbours. Do not block the neighbours' driveway.

Community Events

We are organizing some mini events to contribute to our much needed church funds but most especially to boost our parish community engagements. It's about time to get together, know each other and begin to build up our Parish Community of St John 23rd.

We invite our different cultural community to host a Saturday Vigil or Sunday mornings mini event after our mass celebrations for a full community involvement. We encourage our parish community to support these mini endeavour.

Any other suggestions for church fanfare, activities or just availability of support are most welcome and greatly appreciated. Please contact either Nanette - 0404 465600 or Techie - 0439 201436.

EASTER CELEBRATION

Thank you to everyone, all the different ministries and parishioners, who have made our Easter Triduum celebration another memorable event.

Congratulations to Paula, William and Samuel for going through their faith formation journey.

To the parents and children who participated in the Easter Egg hunt, we hope they had enjoyed the little activity to commemorate Easter.

And finally, to all parishioners who supported the mini stall of goodies and especially Fr Jolly's plant, your contribution is very much appreciated. We raised $1.8k which will help our church coffers.

Again, thank you all for your unending support to our parish.

REGISTRATION FORM

BLAZE youth group is an initiative from Stanhope Parish to encourage community amongst the youth. It is a space for encouragement and open faith talk. Our sessions focus on one relevant theme each term. We start the night with casual conversation and dinner followed by games and then a faith-based talk, concluding with a discussion.

We encourage all youth from Year 7 to Year 12 to join in on the fun, meet like-minded people and gain a deeper understanding of their faith.

Sessions run from 7pm to 9pm every second Friday throughout the school

If you would like to come along to one of our sessions, please contact the team at blaze@john23rd.org.au
