

Welcome to the community of the Catholic Parish of St John 23rd Glenwood-Stanhope Gardens where the love of Christ is shining in so many ways.

The gospel reading (Matt 28:16-20) quirkily takes us to the final scene and parting commission in Matthew that in Luke's version includes the Ascension. Indeed in year A this pericope is read on the feast of the Ascension, notwithstanding its lack of any reference to Ascension. Clearly it is the command to baptise "in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" that suggests itself for use on this theological feast which commemorates no event but the very understanding of Holy Trinity. That command provides a contrast to the other baptism referred to early in the gospels and in other New Testament works, John the Baptist's baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. This context makes no reference to forgiveness but simply to a symbolic immersion in God.

Some of the trinitarian language that emerged in the reflections of the preceding Sundays can be found again in today's readings. The second stanza of the responsorial Psalm in particular evokes the creation narrative in Genesis 1, in which God utters the world into being, shaping it by word; in the Psalm it is what issues from the mouth of God, his word and his breath, that makes all things. Similar to the application of the word Advocate to both the Spirit and Christ explored last Sunday to reveal a unity in the working of the Son and Spirit, so too here in word and breath, for while a word may be said to exist in the mind, and thus in silence, hidden from the world, a word is not manifested in the world without breath to empower it. This is consonant with Irenaeus' reference to the Son and Spirit as the two hands of the Father. We must be careful not to push analogies too far, however, but this one can be useful for the Trinity: while our words as sounds in the air do not have a distinct or enduring existence yet convey some meaning, and while our breath is but borrowed air returned yet empowering the words we speak, so too it is useful as an example of cooperative synergy at work in the world, in the stuff of creation. That analogy lacks an ability to incorporate us into the model, for which the other use of breath in the second creation narrative is helpful: having formed Adam from the inanimate dust of the earth, formed according to ancient interpretation by the Word into an image like unto the one he himself would take in the world, the new clay vessel is empowered to live by the inbreathed Spirit, the Breath of God. The breath that animates lifeless earth may in another inbreathing renew that creature with the very life of the Word, the Son. Hence in the second reading (Rom 8:14-17) it is the Spirit that makes us children of God, and provides the borrowed breath that then enables the recipient to speak with divine force, calling to God, not so as to engender God (as God's speaking engenders creation) but to announce to oneself the realisation of who we are in relation to God: God's children.

*O SANCTISSIMA
O most Holy Trinity,
I adore you who dwell by your grace in my soul.
Sanctify me more and more,
make me love you more and more, abide with me evermore and be my true joy.
Amen.*

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

In the spirit of reconciliation, we acknowledge the traditional custodians of the lands in which the Catholic Parish of St John XXIII and the Diocese of Parramatta sits, the land of the Darug and Gundungurra people. We would like to pay our respects to the Aboriginal Elders past, present and future for they hold the traditions, memories and wisdom of Mother Earth on which we place our feet upon today.

Entrance Antiphon

Blest be God the Father, and the Only Begotten Son of God, and also the Holy Spirit, for he has shown us his merciful love.

First Reading

A reading from the book of Deuteronomy 4:32-34, 39-40

The Lord himself is God in heaven above and on earth below: there is no other.

Moses said to the people: 'Put this question to the ages that are past, that went before you, from the time God created man on earth: Was there ever a word so majestic, from one end of heaven to the other? Was anything ever heard? Did ever a people hear the voice of the living God speaking from the heart of the fire, as you heard it, and remain alive? Has any god ventured to take to himself one nation from the midst of another by ordeals, signs, wonders, war with mighty hand and outstretched arm, by fearsome terrors - all this that the Lord your God did for you before your eyes in Egypt?

'Understand this today, therefore, and take it to heart: The Lord is God indeed, in heaven above as on earth beneath, he and no other. Keep his laws and commandments as I give them to you today so that you and your children may prosper and live long in the land that the Lord your God gives you for ever.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 32:4-6, 9, 18-20, 22

R. Happy the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

The word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted. The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love. R. By his word the heavens were made, by the breath of his mouth all the stars. He spoke: and they came to be. He commanded; they sprang into being. R.

The Lord looks on those who revere him, on those who hope in his love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine. R.

Our soul is waiting for the Lord. The Lord is our help and our shield. May your love be upon us, O Lord, as we place all our hope in you. R.

Second Reading

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans 8:14-17

You have received the Spirit that makes you God's own children, and in that Spirit we call God: Father, our Father!

Everyone moved by the Spirit is a son of God. The spirit you received is not the spirit of slaves bringing fear into your lives again; it is the spirit of sons, and it makes us cry out, 'Abba, Father!' The Spirit himself and our spirit bear united witness that we are children of God. And if we are children we are heirs as well: heirs of God and coheirs with Christ, sharing his sufferings so as to share his glory.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

Revelation 1:8

Alleluia, alleluia!

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit: to God who is, who was, and who is to come. Alleluia!

Gospel

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 28:16-20

Baptise them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

The eleven disciples set out for Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had arranged to meet them. When they saw him they fell down before him, though some hesitated. Jesus came up and spoke to them. He said, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, make disciples of all the nations; baptise them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teach them to observe all the commands I gave you. And know that I am with you always; yes, to the end of time.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Since you are children of God, God has sent into your hearts the Spirit of his Son, the Spirit who cries out: Abba, Father.

Praying together

Our Lady of Perpetual Help Prayer

O Mother of Perpetual Help, grant that I may ever invoke your powerful name, the protection of the living and the salvation of the dying. Purest Mary, let your name henceforth be ever on my lips. Delay not, Blessed Lady, to rescue me whenever I call on you. In my temptations, in my needs, I will never cease to call on you, ever repeating your sacred name, Mary, Mary. What a consolation, what sweetness, what confidence fills my soul when I utter your sacred name or even only think of you! I thank the Lord for having given you so sweet, so powerful, so lovely a name. But I will not be content with merely uttering your name. Let my love for you prompt me ever to hail you Mother of Perpetual Help. Mother of Perpetual Help, pray for me and grant me the favour I confidently ask of you. (Then say three Hail Marys).

Paying our debt together

We are very grateful to all our parishioners who always generously support our Parish.

FIRST COLLECTION supports the priests and deacons of the Diocese. SECOND COLLECTION goes to the running costs of our church, ministry expenses and specially to pay off our church mortgage.

A Planned giving Program is in place to help with the planning/budgeting of church expenses. The Parish Finance Committee encourages parishioners to register for direct debit or credit card deductions instead of the envelope system. An SJ23rd registration form is available at the church foyer or from the website.

Parishioners who want to make a financial contribution are encouraged to use the TapnGo machines by the entrances or online via BPoint.

DRIVEWAY/CARPARK SAFETY

For everyone's safety, please park at least 1.8 meters from the church's driveway entrance.

Your parked vehicle must not block the flow of traffic or impair the vision of other drivers getting into or out of the parking lot, basically impeding vehicles from entering, exiting or turning into or from the church's driveway.

Vehicle safety is more than just staying alert when parking your car. Let us not become a danger to other road users.

Remember to please always use the footpath on both sides of the church car park when walking around the church parking lot, again for safety reasons.

Please make sure when you come to Mass, let us consider our neighbours. Do not block the neighbours' driveway.

BLAZE

What did God do for you to make you believe in him? What was your "Ah Ha" moment?

For Amanda, it is the kindness and love she receives from her loved ones and sometimes even strangers, drawing her attention to the loving God that lives in their hearts. For Earl, through truth seeking and researching scientific and historical evidence, he discovered that God was the way and truth in life. Testimonies are such a critical part of our faith and have been our main focus this term for BLAZE. We believe that sharing our own spiritual journeys will encourage the children to think of their own journey with God and with the power of the Holy Spirit, they may be inclined to share their testimonies too!

If you are interested in hearing more, we warmly invite you to our next BLAZE session on the 31st of May at St John XXIII College from 7pm-9pm.

If you have any enquiries, please feel free to reach out via email, blaze@john23rd.org.au. For future updates, you can follow us on Instagram @blazeyouthsj23. God Bless!
