Welcome to the community of the Catholic Parish of St John 23rd Glenwood-Stanhope Gardens where the love of Christ is shining in so many ways.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

In the spirit of reconciliation, we acknowledge the traditional custodians of the lands in which the Catholic Parish of St John XXIII and the Diocese of Parramatta sits, the land of the Darug and Gundungurra people. We would like to pay our respects to the Aboriginal Elders past, present and future for they hold the traditions, memories and wisdom of Mother Earth on which we place our feet upon today.

The two agrarian parables of today's gospel (Mark 4:26-34) share the feature of seeds. The first, which is unique to Mark, begins with no interest in what the variety of seed is—just that the seeds are sown and in the incomprehensibly marvellous manner of seeds they sprout and grow and reproduce. It is only in the second part that the seed is said to be grain, and it is harvested like grain, for literally “he sends (in) the sickle” (borrowed from Joel 3:13), but it still matters not which grain—wheat, spelt, barley, rye or oats, the five grains of Israel. The farmer literally throws seed on the ground—an act that spoils any other food—and his risk pays off so that he gains more than he threw away. Farming is always a calculated risk taken in trust and hope in future possibilities. The farmer knows that without risking seed that could be eaten today the hope of food tomorrow is gone.

In the second parable (shared by Matthew and Luke) we are told immediately that the seed is mustard (sinapi in Greek), but exactly what plant was meant is uncertain since neither Brassica nigra nor Sinapis alba fits the second part of the parable; neither grows branches that in any way could be called big. Perhaps something was lost in very early translations, or perhaps the form of the parable we have received blends two parables. Perhaps the point of the first part of this parable is, like the previous one, on the miraculous nature of growing things, indeed of all plants that come from seed: that anything of their size can unfold from something so small is simply wondrous. So too the kingdom of God may grow from small beginnings. However, the second part of this parable opens another possibility that the Lectionary itself has prepared us to hear; it uses the same language as that of the great branched cedar that shelters the birds in Ezekiel 17:22-23. That cedar grows from a mere shoot that God planted; it will remain where it is put, where it belongs, and there it provides sanctuary also for humble creatures. The word cedar (Hebrew: 'erez) puns with land ('erets) to represent the land and people of Israel, just as the later references to trees ('ets) represent the other nations. But the usage in Ezekiel follows criticism of the prior behaviour of the kings of Israel who sought to promote it via political dealings with other nations. According to Ezekiel success will come only when God is recognised as king, only when Israel trusts in God. It is not responsible for its own greatness, and the hospitality it offers is God's doing.

There is a tendency for Christians to see in these parables' fruitfulness and the plenty that grows from precarious and small beginnings a parallel in the worldwide Church that began with such a small group of disciples of Jesus. The danger here is in equating the kingdom with the Church as if located in or constrained to it, rather than in seeing the Church as being a collaborating servant of the kingdom. The kingdom is God's doing, and what is produced is inherently open to others because that is God's intent. In this venture the disciples, as also us today, are indeed co-workers, Jesus cultivating them (and us) by teaching in private. In a real sense the Eucharist is one of these private moments, and so it is never to be a gathering of the self-satisfied; it is a teaching and feeding of workers in the harvest that goes on throughout the world and to which they shortly return.

Our Parish Mission

The Parish of St John XXIII is a faithful community with the Eucharist as its heart. Inspired by John XXIII's prophetic opening of the windows of the Church, we welcome the fresh air of the Holy Spirit, inviting every person to share in the responsibility of enriching the life and faith of our community by sharing their gifts and talents."

Entrance Antiphon

O Lord, hear my voice, for I have called to you; be my help. Do not abandon or forsake me, O God, my Saviour!

First Reading

A reading from the prophet Ezekiel 17:22-24

I have made the small tree great.

The Lord says this:

'From the top of the cedar, from the highest branch I will take a shoot and plant it myself on a very high mountain. I will plant it on the high mountain of Israel. It will sprout branches and bear fruit, and become a noble cedar. Every kind of bird will live beneath it, every winged creature rest in the shade of its branches. And every tree of the field will learn that I, the Lord, am the one who stunts tall trees and makes the low ones grow, who withers green trees and makes the withered green. I, the Lord, have spoken, and I will do it.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 129

R. Lord it is good to give thanks to you.

It is good to give thanks to the Lord to make music to your name, O Most High, to proclaim your love in the morning and your truth in the watches of the night. R.

The just will flourish like the palm-tree and grow like a Lebanon cedar. R.

Planted in the house of the Lord they will flourish in the courts of our God, still bearing fruit when they are old, still full of sap, still green, to proclaim that the Lord is just. In him, my rock, there is no wrong. R.

Cultivating the Kingdom within

Second Reading

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians 5:6-10

Whether we are living in the body or exiled from it, we are intent on pleasing the Lord.

We are always full of confidence when we remember that to live in the body means to be exiled from the Lord, going as we do by faith and not by sight - we are full of confidence, I say, and actually want to be exiled from the body and make our home with the Lord. Whether we are living in the body or exiled from it, we are intent on pleasing him. For all the truth about us will be brought out in the law court of Christ, and each of us will get what he deserves for the things he did in the body, good or bad.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

GA

Alleluia, alleluia!

The seed is the word of God, Christ is the sower; all who come to him will live for ever. Alleluia!

Gospel

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark 4:26-34

The mustard seed, the smallest of all the seeds, grows into the biggest shrub of all.

Jesus said to the crowd, 'This is what the kingdom of God is like. A man throws seed on the land. Night and day, while he sleeps, when he is awake, the seed is sprouting and growing; how, he does not know. Of its own accord the land produces first the shoot, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. And when the crop is ready, he loses no time; he starts to reap because the harvest has come.'

He also said, 'What can we say the kingdom of God is like? What parable can we find for it? It is like a mustard seed which at the time of its sowing in the soil is the smallest of all the seeds on earth; yet once it is sown it grows into the biggest shrub of them all and puts out big branches so that the birds of the air can shelter in its shade.' Using many parables like these, he spoke the word to them, so far as they were capable of understanding it. He would not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything to his disciples when they were alone.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Holy Father, keep in your name those you have given me, that they may be one as we are one, says the Lord.

Praying together

Our Lady of Perpetual Help Prayer

O Mother of Perpetual Help, grant that I may ever invoke your powerful name, the protection of the living and the salvation of the dying. Purest Mary, let your name henceforth be ever on my lips. Delay not, Blessed Lady, to rescue me whenever I call on you. In my temptations, in my needs, I will never cease to call on you, ever repeating your sacred name, Mary, Mary. What a consolation, what sweetness, what confidence fills my soul when I utter your sacred name or even only think of you! I thank the Lord for having given you so sweet, so powerful, so lovely a name. But I will not be content with merely uttering your name. Let my love for you prompt me ever to hail you Mother of Perpetual Help. Mother of Perpetual Help, pray for me and grant me the favour I confidently ask of you. (Then say three Hail Marys).

Paying our debt together

We are very grateful to all our parishioners who always generously support our Parish.

FIRST COLLECTION supports the priests and deacons of the Diocese. SECOND COLLECTION goes to the running costs of our church, ministry expenses and specially to pay off our church mortgage.

A Planned giving Program is in place to help with the planning/budgeting of church expenses. The Parish Finance Committee encourages parishioners to register for direct debit or credit card deductions instead of the envelope system. An SJ23rd registration form is available at the church foyer or from the website.

DRIVEWAY/CARPARK SAFETY

For everyone's safety, please park at least 1.8 meters from the church's driveway entrance.

Your parked vehicle must not block the flow of traffic or impair the vision of other drivers getting into or out of the parking lot, basically impeding vehicles from entering, exiting or turning into or from the church's driveway.

Vehicle safety is more than just staying alert when parking your car. Let us not become a danger to other road users.

Remember to please always use the footpath on both sides of the church car park when walking around the church parking lot, again for safety reasons.

Please make sure when you come to Mass, let us consider our neighbours. Do not block the neighbours' driveway.
