

Welcome to the community of the Catholic Parish of St John 23rd Glenwood-Stanhope Gardens where the love of Christ is shining in so many ways.

Our PARISH MISSION

The Parish of St John XXIII is a faith community with the Eucharist as its heart. Inspired by John XXIII's prophetic opening of the windows of the Church, we welcome the fresh air of the Holy Spirit, inviting every person to share in the responsibility of enriching the life and faith of our community by sharing their gifts and talents."

Gospel Reflection

The feast of the Baptism of the Lord and this Second Sunday go very nicely together. The baptism of Jesus was all about the start of his mission, and the readings of today are all about our mission. To be a baptised person is to be a person on a mission.

Our gospel passage this Sunday is taken from John. It is rare to read from John during the Sundays in Ordinary Time. For all the other Sundays in Ordinary Time we shall be reading from Matthew. The mission of Jesus is well expressed in John's Gospel here when John the Baptist calls him the lamb of God. He was to be the lamb of God and the lamb for God. The lamb was the number one sacrificial animal in Jewish worship. To sacrifice something is, technically, to dedicate it to God. With a living creature there was no fuller way of showing that it had been handed over to God than to take its life. Life is precious and to give a life is to give all that the creature has. Jesus was our lamb for God; he gave his life and shed his blood; he gave everything he was and everything he had to repair the damage done to our relationship with God in Adam. This is why in our eucharistic liturgy we repeat the words of John the Baptist as we say 'Behold the lamb of God' with the broken bread that is his body and with the wine poured out that is his blood. The mission of Jesus was to have his body broken and his blood spilt. What is more, not only is Jesus the sacrifice humankind has offered to God but God indeed has given us Jesus in the first place as the gift to be that sacrifice. Jesus is both the lamb of God and the lamb for God.

Today we proclaim the second of the Suffering Servant songs of Second Isaiah (an anonymous prophet of the sixth century BC, while Israel was in exile), found in chapters 40 to 55 of the book of Isaiah. It speaks of the call by God of one who was not only to restore the survivors of the Jewish exile back to their homeland, but to be a light of the nations. Remember we heard at Epiphany that 'nations' is the code word for foreigners, for non-Jews, for us. The mission of the Suffering Servant was to bring God's salvation to the ends of the earth. This was the mission of Jesus. Following Jewish interpretation of the Suffering Servant songs, we can also say that it was not his mission alone. In the Jewish tradition these songs are given a corporate interpretation. As much as they apply to an individual they apply to a people. In baptism we become part of that people. Our mission is to be the servant of the Lord. Our mission is to call Israel back from exile. Our mission is to be the light of the nations. Our mission is to bring God's salvation to the ends of the world. To be a baptised person is to be a person of mission.

In response to God's call, in response to God's voice spoken not only to Jesus at his baptism, 'This is my Son, the Beloved', but to each one of us at our baptism, 'This is my son, this is my daughter', our mission is to join with the psalmist and say 'Here I am, Lord; I come to do your will' (cf. Ps 39[40]:7-8). God does not want sacrifice; Jesus was enough. What God wants is our open ear, our availability, our willingness to announce God's justice in the great assemblies of our lives. To be a baptised person is to be a person of mission.

From today until the start of Lent our second reading will be taken from Paul's first letter to the Christians of Corinth. At the very start of the letter Paul announces that he has been appointed by God, that he is an apostle, that he is to send greetings to the church, the people of God. Like Paul we are called by God to bring greetings, to bring good news to those whom we meet. To be a baptised person is to be a person of mission.

Brothers and sisters, let us give thanks to the Lord our God. Let us give thanks that our God believes in us. From our mother's womb God has called each one of us. God entrusts us with the mission of being light to the world, God nourishes us with the broken body of the lamb, with the blood of the lamb poured out, so that we too can allow our bodies to be broken and our blood to be poured out in the service of our world.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

In the spirit of reconciliation, we acknowledge the traditional custodians of the lands in which the Catholic Parish of St John XXIII and the Diocese of Parramatta sits, the land of the Darug and Gundungurra people. We would like to pay our respects to the Aboriginal Elders past, present and future for they hold the traditions, memories and wisdom of Mother Earth on which we place our feet upon today.

Entrance Antiphon

All the earth shall bow down before you, O God, and shall sing to you, shall sing to your name, O Most High!

First Reading

Isaiah 49:3, 5-6

I will make you the light of the nations so that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth.

The Lord said to me, 'You are my servant, Israel, in whom I shall be glorified'; I was honoured in the eyes of the Lord, my God was my strength.

And now the Lord has spoken, he who formed me in the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob back to him, to gather Israel to him:

'It is not enough for you to be my servant, to restore the tribes of Jacob and bring back the survivors of Israel; I will make you the light of the nations so that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 39:2, 4, 7-10

R. Here I am, Lord; I come to do your will.

I waited, I waited for the Lord and he stooped down to me; he heard my cry. He put a new song into my mouth, praise of our God. R.

You do not ask for sacrifice and offerings, but an open ear. You do not ask for holocaust and victim. Instead, here am I. R.

In the scroll of the book it stands written that I should do your will. My God, I delight in your law in the depth of my heart. R.

Your justice I have proclaimed in the great assembly. My lips I have not sealed; you know it, O Lord. R.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 1:1-3

The grace and peace of God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

I, Paul, appointed by God to be an apostle, together with brother Sosthenes, send greetings to the church of God in Corinth, to the holy people of Jesus Christ, who are called to take their place among all the saints everywhere who pray to our Lord Jesus Christ; for he is their Lord no less than ours. May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ send you grace and peace.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

John 1:14, 12

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Word of God became flesh and dwelt among us. He enabled those who accepted him to become the children of God. Alleluia!

Gospel

John 1:29-34

This is the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world.

Seeing Jesus coming towards him, John said, 'Look, there is the lamb of God that takes away the sin of the world. This is the one I spoke of when I said: A man is coming after me who ranks before me because he existed before me. I did not know him myself, and yet it was to reveal him to Israel that I came baptising with water.' John also declared, 'I saw the Spirit coming down on him from heaven like a dove and resting on him. I did not know him myself, but he who sent me to baptise with water had said to me, "The man on whom you see the Spirit come down and rest is the one who is going to baptise with the Holy Spirit." Yes, I have seen and I am the witness that he is the Chosen One of God.'

Pastoral Ministries

The best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others. Mahatma Gandhi
We are in need of volunteers to assist in the different pastoral ministries in our Parish.

WE NEED YOU

⇒ SRE Teachers
If you could spare an hour during weekdays to spread God's word teaching the scriptures to children, WE NEED YOU. We currently have 4 public primary schools and a high school in our parish where we hold scripture classes during school hours for 30 minutes during Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays. For more information please call Asoki 0430 020265 or Renuka 0414 795814. Training and resources will be provided.

⇒ CLEANERS AND GARDENERS
As we give our heartfelt thanks to the wonderful volunteers who faithfully keep our church clean, our gardens green, and our surroundings welcoming, we also invite others to join this valued ministry. A few more helping hands would make a great difference in caring for our shared spiritual home. If you are able to assist, please contact Tanya at the parish office.

We would like to extend our heartfelt and profound gratitude to Madeleine Huang and her family for their unwavering commitment and dedicated leadership of our Cake Angels ministry. For more than ten years, they have lovingly nurtured and sustained this ministry and so we remain deeply thankful for their years of faithful service.

Anyone interested to take on the baton of leadership, please contact Techie 0438 201436.

HALL PROJECT

Prayer

Almighty God, we thank you for your many blessings to our parish and to each of us.

We pray for your guidance and wisdom as we prepare ourselves to begin the construction. May your Holy spirit be with all our Engineers, architects, builders and all involved in this project. Protect them from harm and grant them skill and diligence. May this hall be a place of unity, fellowship and faith formation for our community, a space where we can grow in faith and serve others. Bless all our sponsors, donors and each of us who contribute in our own humble ways and means. Whatever we do, may we do it for your glory.

CONTRIBUTION UPDATE

Let's Build our future together

Dear fellow parishioners,

As many of you know, our parish continues to grow — and with that growth comes the wonderful opportunity to dream boldly and build joyfully. Today, we are excited to share a vision that will further strengthen our community: the construction of our new Parish Hall.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude for your generous support of past parish projects, and we thank you in advance for your continued support toward this important initiative.

This new hall will greatly expand our capacity to reach out and serve. It will provide the much-needed space for:

- Sunday catechism for our children;
- Fellowship programs for young families;
- Mothers' groups;
- Social gatherings for our Young at Heart;
- And many other ministries that require a place to meet, grow, and flourish.

This hall is an investment in our children, our youth, our families, and all parishioners — young and old. It will be a place of faith formation, community life, and belonging; a home where future generations can continue to grow in Christ.

We invite you to prayerfully consider how you can support this vision through your prayers, generosity, and involvement. Several initiatives are planned for 2026 to help bring this project to life, beginning with our Dinner Dance on 7 February. Please mark your calendars.

Every prayer, gift, and contribution brings us one step closer. Together, we can build something beautiful that will bless our parish for many years to come.

Thank you for your continued love and support. May God bless you and our parish family.

UPCOMING Community EVENTS

Building our Community
TOGETHER

Please contact either
Nanette - 0404 465600
Techie - 0438 201436

As a vibrant community of St John XXIII Parish, we invite our various cultural groups and ministries to take part in our parish life by hosting a Saturday Vigil or Sunday morning mini-event after our Mass celebrations. These gatherings are a wonderful way to share your culture, connect and strengthen our sense of family and belonging within the parish.

We encourage everyone to come along, participate and support these community-led activities. We also welcome suggestions for future events, fundraising ideas, or any offers of help — your creativity and support are always appreciated and play an important part in making our parish life joyful and thriving!

In joyful support of the construction of our new Parish Hall, we warmly invite you to join us for a wonderful fundraising evening filled with delicious food, lively dancing, and delightful entertainment. Bring along your family and friends and share in a night of celebration, laughter, and parish fellowship.

There is also a special opportunity to support this important endeavor by becoming an event sponsor.

We warmly encourage you to partner with us in this meaningful cause. Sponsorship is a beautiful way to support our parish, with your generosity acknowledged during the evening and beyond. Your contribution will play a vital role in strengthening and enriching the ongoing mission and life of our parish community.

For more information to becoming a sponsor, please contact our parish accountant, Renuka Soosaipillai, at accounts@john23rd.org.au.

PARTS OF THE HOLY MASS IN ORDER

The Holy Mass in the Roman Rite is structured into four main parts: the Introductory Rites, the Liturgy of the Word, the Liturgy of the Eucharist, and the Concluding Rites.

1. Introductory Rites

These rites help the faithful assemble as a community and prepare to hear the Word of God and celebrate the Eucharist.

- Entrance: A procession of the priest and ministers accompanied by an entrance song.
- Greeting: The priest begins with the Sign of the Cross and a formal greeting.
- Penitential Act: A time for the congregation to acknowledge their sins and ask for God's mercy.
- Kyrie (Lord, Have Mercy): An ancient prayer for mercy, usually in three parts.
- Gloria: A hymn of praise sung on Sundays (outside of Advent and Lent) and feast days.
- Collect (Opening Prayer): The priest invites everyone to pray in silence before "collecting" these prayers into one spoken prayer.

2. Liturgy of the Word

The central focus is hearing the scriptures and the explanation of God's Word.

- First Reading: Usually from the Old Testament.
- Responsorial Psalm: A psalm is sung or recited typically in response to the first reading.
- Second Reading: Usually from the New Testament Letters, often omitted on weekdays.
- Gospel Acclamation: The Alleluia (or other verse in Lent) sung to welcome the Gospel.
- Gospel Readings: A reading from one of the four Gospels.
- Homily: The priest or deacon explains the readings and applies them to daily life.
- Profession of Faith (Creed): The congregation recites the Nicen or Apostles' Creed on Sundays and solemnities.
- Universal Prayer (Prayer of the Faithful): Petitions for the Church, the world, and local needs.

3. Liturgy of the Eucharist

This is the "center and summit" of the Mass, where the sacrifice of Christ is made present.

- Presentation and Preparation of the Gifts: Bread and wine are brought to the altar, often accompanied by a collection for the poor and the clergy needs.
- Eucharistic Prayer: The most solemn part of the Mass, including the Consecration, where the bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Christ.
- Communion Rite:
The Lord's Prayer (Our Father): Recited or sung together.
Sign of Peace: A ritual exchange of Christ's peace
Lamb of God: (Agnus Dei): A prayer for mercy as the bread is broken.
Holy Communion: The distribution of the Eucharist to the faithful.
Prayer after Communion: The priest prays that the sacrament will be effective in the lives of the people.

4. Concluding Rites

- Brief notices: For the community a collection taken for the needs of the parish.
- Greetings and Blessing: The priest imparts a final blessing in the name of the Holy Trinity (Father, Son and the Holy Spirit.)
- Dismissal: The priest dismisses the congregation to go in peace and serve the Lord.
- Recessional Hymn: People leave singing with joy to continue the Lord's work.

A Friendly Reminder to Our Parish Community

We kindly ask all parishioners to help care for our church by cleaning up after themselves after masses
